Fresh Chiang Armies Enter Suchow Battle

Nanking Declares Communists Have Lost 90,000 Men

NANKING, Nov. 17 (AP) — China's high command, asserting the Communists already have lost 90,000 men, sent fresh armies into the battle of Suchow today.

The nightly communique of the Defense Ministry claimed more than half the Communist veterans who mounted the major assault east of Suchow had been killed or wounded.

(On the other hand, the Communist radio said nine government divisions were "wiped out," including the 63rd and 107th Armies. That could be 90,000 men. Both sides are inclined to exaggerate casualties.)

Most Chinese sources doubted that the Suchow "victory" was all the newspapers said it was.

But it appeared Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's forces in the opening phase of the fateful battle at least held their own with some of the best troops in the Communist armies.

Tanks, Planes Help Chiang

They did it with the surprise use of a tank column and all-out support from the air force. War planes flew shuttle from Nanking, 200 miles to the south, bombing and strafing.

Both sides are gathering strength for the second phase.

Afternoon newspapers said troops under Gen. Liu Ju-Ming, moving north from the Nanking area, had joined units attacking the Communists who have encircled Suhsien, 50 miles south of Suchow.

This is a sensitive point. Suhsien lies on the railway conecting Suchow with Nanking. The Communists are supposed to hold 30 miles of the line. The loss of Suhsien (which the Communists say they have taken) would be a serious blow to government hopes of recovering the railway.

Four armies, the 12th Army Group under Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, have made a forced march of 180 miles from the big Central China base of Hankow and are approaching the railway at an undisclosed point.

Gen. Pai's fresh troops are expected to bump into two columns of Gen. Liu Po-Cheng's Communist armies of Central China. Liu's forces from the west support the East China armies of Communist Gen. Chen Yi, which is bearing the brunt of the battle for Suchow.

Reds Say Troops Intercepted

(The Communist radio, heard by the Associated Press in San Francisco, said yet another government army group had swung eastward from Southern Honan Province in an attempt to join the battle.

(The army group, reported to be under Gen. Huang Wei, has been intercepted, the broadcast added. Presumably, the intercepting was done by Communist Gen. Liu, who might have his hands full if the Honan forces from the west and the Hankow armies from the south struck simultaneously.)

It appeared that the air force unquestionably blunted the Red attack which rolled up east of Suchow. There the Communists were exposed in flat, open country to a rain of bombs and bullets.

Thomas' Ex-Secretary Enters Innocent Plea

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. (AP)—Miss Helen Campbell, once the secretary of Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ), today denied charges that he helped her former boss pad his office payroll.

Miss Campbell, 63, pleaded innocent in District Court. She was placed under $500 bond. Her trial was set for January 10.

Thomas, chairman of the House Un-American Activities Committee, is free under $1,000 bail on a conspiracy charge as well as three additional charges of filing false claims in connection with his office payroll.

Evatt And Lie Renew Their Appeal For Berlin Accord

Two U. N. Leaders Shift Emphasis To Western Viewpoint

PARIS, Nov. 17—(AP)—United Nations leaders Herbert V. Evatt and Trygve Lie renewed their appeal for Berlin peace today after the Western Powers refused once again to negotiate with Russia until the blockade is lifted.

The Western Power viewpoint was set forth in three separate notes handed to the Assembly President and Secretary-General by the United States, Britain and France this afternoon.

These notes, replying to last Saturday's appeal by Lie and Evatt for four-power Berlin peace talks, said the Berlin situation is still a threat to peace and must remain in the hands of the Security Council under present circumstances.

The new Lie-Evatt plea carries a significant shift in emphasis.

West View Apparently Accepted

In the original appeal the stress was placed on possible four-power talks; in today's appeal, the two leaders urged the big powers to note "in particular" the part of the earlier Lie-Evatt letter calling on them to "lend their full and active support to the efforts at mediation of the Berlin dispute by the President of the Security Council."

One "neutral" source said the new Lie-Evatt statement apparently indicated the two leaders had accepted the western view that the Berlin conflict should remain in the Security Council.

In any event, it seemed obvious that the appeal to cooperate with Council President Juan Atilio Bramuglia was directed at Russia since each of the three Western Powers in their replies to Lie and Evatt specifically pledged cooperation with Bramuglia.

A United Nations source said Lie and Evatt expected no formal answer to their latest appeal.

"What is wanted is an answer in deeds, not in words," this source said.

Russia's Position

In the past Russia has taken the position that the Berlin dispute should be settled by the Council of Foreign Ministers and not by the Security Council. In her reply to the Lie-Evatt note yesterday, Russia made no reference to the Security Council, but indicated she would be willing to discuss the Berlin issue either in the Council of Ministers, along with the entire German problem, or possibly in a meeting of the Big Four chief executives.

It was noted, however, that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky conferred informally several times with Bramuglia last month when the Argentine Foreign Minister was trying to win big power agreement on a formula drafted by the council's six neutral members.

This formula eventually was vetoed by Russia.

President, Forrestal To Confer

Chiang, In Letter To Truman, Appeals For Encouragement

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 17—(AP)—Word that Secretary of Defense Forrestal is flying here tomorrow to talk with President Truman coincided with grave developments in China.

The White House confirmed tonight that the President has received a letter direct from Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, President of the Chinese government.

While Matthew J. Connelly, a presidential secretary, would not disclose its total contents or comment upon the letter, it was later learned it contained an appeal for encouragement to the hard-pressed armies and people of Nationalist China in their critical battle with the Communists. This appeal parallels a similar request made by Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo to Undersecretary of State Lovett Thursday.

That Forrestal's trip to the President's vacation retreat here for lunch might concern more than a possible discussion of how long he will remain in the Cabinet was indicated by:

1. The Defense Secretary's announcement at a news conference in Washington that Marine forces are to be increased by 1,000 men at Tsingtao, China.

2. His further disclosure that two transports are going into Chinese ports to remove Americans from the path of advancing Communist forces. There are now 3,600 Marines at Tsingtao.

3. Undersecretary of State Lovett's report that the President had received a letter direct from the Chinese leader.

4. President Truman's own assertion at a news conference here yesterday that we are in direct communication with the Chinese President.

5. Evidence here that Lovett was in telephone communication with the temporary White House here more than once today.

Forrestal also told his news conference that while he had submitted his resignation, along with other members of the Cabinet, he is "at the service of the President."

This was just another indication that his desire to see the President did not concern his own future, but a serious foreign policy discussion.

This would be a preliminary to a full-scale review of the international picture Monday at the White House with Secretary of State Marshall and ECA Roving Ambassador Harriman. Mr. Truman is flying back to Washington Sunday.

WILL "DRESS" ACT — Winnie Garrett, nightclub dancer and former Broadway burlesque entertainer, sits on a window sill in magistrates court, New York, where she appeared yesterday for a hearing on a charge of presenting a "lewd and indecent performance" at a Manhattan club. Further hearing was adjourned until November 23 after "The Flaming Redhead" promised to dress up her undressed strip tease dance.

AFL, Impressed By Showing, Will Stay In Politics

CINCINNATI, Nov. 17 (AP) — The American Federation of Labor, impressed by its showing in the recent elections, voted today to stay in politics permanently.

Delegates to the 67th annual convention — sitting as members of "Labor's League for Political Education"—voted to collect 10 cents each from the AFL's nearly 7,500,000 members. The Taft-Hartley Act forbids direct contributions.

The $750,000 collected would finance a propaganda and education drive in 110,000 polling precincts over the nation in the next 14 months.

172 Backed By League Win

Delegates shouted approval when Secretary-Treasurer George Meany said 172 league-backed candidates were elected to the House and 106 classed as "unfriendly" were defeated.

Nevertheless, 225 members of the House who voted for the Taft-Hartley Act were re-elected. Only 218 votes are needed for a majority.

The AFL followed its traditional non-partisan stand in the presidential race although most of its leaders worked for a Truman victory.

Meany hailed the result as "a tremendous victory." He said "the tide of reaction has been decisively turned."

But he added: "we should not become overconfident and consider that the job is done and that we can now forget our political responsibilities."

Convention delegates had a busy day with these top developments:

Merger Talk Revived

1—A new move for merger with the CIO, prompted by cooperation of labor organizations locally in the recent elections. A report of the convention organization committee was approved, calling on leaders to work for consolidation "with new vigor." The committee proposed that the door not only should be opened to the CIO but the AFL "should now reach out and grasp them by the hand and urge them to come back into the AFL." The CIO was formed by AFL unions in 1936.

2—Marshall Plan Director Paul Hoffman told the AFL the new goal of the European Cooperation Administration was to boost the standard of living in Europe by one-third. He said the United States was following "an enlightened form of dollar diplomacy" through the Marshall Plan and said the spirit of recovery in Western Europe has been greatly improved since 1946.

"Tallest Tree" Claims Disputed By Redding, Calif.

Redding has had giant trees on its main street every Christmas for 25 years now, and the only runt it ever had measured 94 feet. Its tallest was 101 feet.

This year's tree, marked out in the Mt. Lassen country east of here, will run about 98 feet when cut.

Los Angeles' tree is 95 feet. New York's tree is a mere 90-footer.

The Redding tree is cut annually and erected by Pacific Gas and Electric Company crews under local Manager Ben Mason.

Potato Price Guarantee Cut To Benefit Taxpayers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—The government today reduced its price guarantee on next year's potato crop by one-third.

It also recommended a substantial cut in potato acreage.

Both moves are designed to discourage overproduction and save some of the money which has been paid to farmers for producing more potatoes than the country would eat. About $100,000,000 has been paid out in potato price supports so far this year.

The lower support level — at 60 per cent rather than 90 per cent of parity — make lower retail prices for potatoes possible, although not certain.

Officials of the Department of Agriculture, which announced the new policy, explained that the lower production goal and reduced guarantee should result in a smaller crop of potatoes than was harvested this year. And if supply and demand are in balance, they surmised, retail prices might not decline appreciably.

Nevertheless, consumers, who also are taxpayers, are bound to benefit. Not so much of their money will go to support prices.

The support at 60 per cent of parity is the lowest level allowed under the long-range farm bill passed by the 80th Congress. Under the old farm law, potatoes were supported at 90 per cent of parity. This means that if the market price goes below that figure, the farmer can sell them to the government at the guarantee level.

Parity is a price calculated to give the farmer a return equal in purchasing power to the price he received in a base period. It is calculated under a formula set up by Congress, and changes from month to month.

Next year's potato acreage goal was set at 1,938,000 acres, about 200,000 less than the 1948 planted acreage. The national goal was divided into state goals, which in turn will be broken down into goals for counties and individual farms. In order to be eligible for price supports, producers must stay within their acreage goals.

St. Peter's Scene Of Suicide Leap

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 17. (AP)—A despondent lawyer leaped 170 feet to his death inside Saint Peter's Church today.

He jumped from the base of Michelangelo's soaring cupola of the Basilica and crashed near the high altar, only a few feet from where tourists were viewing the wonders of the greatest Roman Catholic church.

They and worshippers were asked by guards to leave immediately. The Basilica was closed nearly five hours until it could be reconsecrated.

The Cathedral of Naples also was closed today because of a suicide Dispatches said a shoemaker last night shot himself near the main altar.

Vatacan authorities identified the crushed body in Saint Peter's as that of Pietro Puglieri. The Neapolitan shoemaker was named Luigi Pugliese.

Puglieri's identity was established by Angelini Rota, Vatican City judge. He was 65 years old and was born in Rome.

Mrs. Kasenkina Will Leave Hospital Friday

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—(AP)—Mrs. Stephanovna Kasenkina will end her three-month stay in the hospital Friday.

The 53-year-old Russian school teacher has been at Roosevelt Hospital since she leaped from a third-story window of the Russian consulate August 12.

Set For Tomorrow, Mediator Discloses

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—A top-notch federal mediator went to work today on a settlement of the East Coast dock workers' walkout, and tonight announced he had arranged a union-employer meeting Friday.

It will be the first joint meeting since the start of the strike.

The negotiator, William N. Margolis, assistant to the director of the United States Mediation Service, made the announcement after conferring with officials of both sides.

Margolis said that "we haven't gone into great detail on the issues" but that talks for "further exploration" would be held tomorrow.

The entire 125-man union negotiating committee is expected to attend the joint session Friday, while the employers' full 25-man committee will be present.

Margolis said after his arrival from Washington today that he was "neither optimistic nor pessimistic" about a quick settlement.

More Workers Laid Off

Serious economic effects of the walkout of 65,000 AFL longshoremen continued to pile up. Additional railroad, steamship line and trucking company employes were laid off.

Marshall Plan officials estimated that 140,000 tons of European recovery supplies are backed up in East Coast ports. And the total is growing at the rate of 20,000 tons a day.

The shipping jam was relieved somewhat, particularly with respect to passengers, by a decision during the day of Canadian longshoremen to handle any vessel which puts in at Halifax.

The Halifax dock workers at first worked diverted vessels after the strike began last Wednesday, then announced they would not touch such ships.

The Cunard White Star Line immediately announced the Queen Elizabeth, world's largest passenger liner, would sail from Southampton November 20 and reach Halifax November 24. Its trip had been cancelled previously.

The Aquitania arrived at Halifax toady, sixth liner to dock there since the strike began. Passenger trains have been shuttling between the Canadian city and New York to handle the passengers.

123 Ships Idle At New York

The Customs House in New York said the number of ships strikebound here had jumped to 123.

The Swedish-American liner Stockholm sailed during the day and took back with her to Goeteborg 400 tons of cargo which could not be unloaded. Passengers handled their own baggage and company officials cast off the ship's lines.

The Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, Erie, New York Central and Lackawanna Railroads announced additional layoffs of employes who work with export-import cargo. More than 3,100 railroad workers now are idle.

An official of the Motor Carrier Association of New York said 2,000 trucking employes were out of work temporarily because of the strike. The AFL teamsters union set the figure at 3,500.

Nickel Is Kicked Around But Holds Its Own As Price For Bottle Of Pop

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 17 (AP)—The nickel was kicked around like a football today by soft drink manufacturers, but appeared to hold its own as the price for a bottle of pop.

A panel of six men, representing Mr. Big and Mr. Little of the bottling industry, carried the nickel through high production costs, sales volume, taxes, dealers and public opinion.

The six, R. A. Jolley, Greenville, S. C.; James Vernor, Detroit; A. B. Hatcher, Charleston, W. Va.; A. G. Beamen, Nashville, Tenn.; Edward Wagner, Cincinnati, and Paul F. Glaser, Seattle, answered questions popped by delegates to the 30th annual convention of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages.

The panel's individual members came up with these remarks:

Glaser: "Price is not a nationwide prbolem in our industry—it is a local problem."

Vernor: "A rise in price probably will reduce volume. Prices have to be taken care of day by day, month by month."

Beaman: "Any attempt on the part of this association or a state association to set prices would be illegal. We don't want any part of price fixing."

Wagner: "Bottlers should budget their business from month to month if necessary. They should think about ways to cut costs in their plants, in their sales programs."

Hatcher: "The well-established, small, independent bottler can stand the present profit squeeze. I advise against establishment of any new bottling plants. The already established bottlers can supply double the demand."

Fourth-Round Wage Hike, Higher Prices Predicted By Ford

Price Control Would Wreck Nation, Auto Executive Declares

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17 (AP)—Henry Ford II predicts today the nation's workers will get a fourth round wage increase and prices will go up.

"A new pay boost is inevitable," the president of the Ford Motor Company told a news conference. "I don't think anything can prevent it."

But the 31-year-old automobile executive here to inspect his firm's Chester, Pa., plant, added:

"Prices too must go up. There is no place else for them to go."

Ford admitted that production has improved "but we haven't got sufficient productivity to reduce prices."

"Prices are high today," Ford said, "maybe too high—but we can't lower them without lowering wages and material costs.

"I wish we had a buyer's market today. We're living in a fool's paradise. Unquestionably, prices will go down in a buyer's market."

Opposes Price Control

Price control?

"That won't help. Price control would wreck the nation—the auto industry included—and ruin the economy.

"It is ridiculous to think that any person sitting in Washington can tell a company how much to charge for its product.

"We still have to make profits to go any place in this country."

Ford declared the working man—"relatively speaking"—is better off today than in 1939 or 1940.

Labor is "hurting itself" by demanding price control, Ford said, adding:

"Not only would it turn the nation's progress backward, but it is a trend toward socialism. And such a system would be despicable for the United States."

The Taft-Hartley labor law won high praise from Ford.

"From our standpoint there is no part of the Taft-Hartley law that is unworkable. "I don't think it is a bad law. It should be given a fair and lengthy trial before it is changed."

Then he added:

"Goodness, we lived with the one-sided Wagner Act for so long. It is stupid to go back to that."

Won't Willingly Aid Probe

Looking more like a college football player than an industrial titan, Ford jokingly skimmed past activities of a congressional probe into automoble dealers' trade practices.

"What are they going to prove?" he asked. "We know that many dealers are unscrupulous. As long as a dealer has a chance to make easy money, he will. We don't condone the practice and have fired 23 dealers for black market practices. We'll fire more if we catch them."

The Ford company, he said, will not willingly aid the probe.

Name For New Prince? Jake Is Suggested

LONDON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Why not call him Jake?

The Evening News, one of the newspapers conducting a poll on the most popular name for the baby born to Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, said today that entry had come from Chicago.

"You can't imagine King Jake the First? Frankly, nor can I," said the Evening News columnist.

DeGaulle Places French Interests Ahead Of U. S. Aid

PARIS, Nov. 17 (AP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle declared today the Marshall Plan must not be allowed to displace "the essential interests of France."

The wartime resistance leader, whose party has moved into a strategic position in the upper house of Parliament, questioned the recent decision of the American and British military governments to return control of Ruhr industries to German trustees.

He renewed his insistence that the defense of France must not be "centered in England," and declared that the Communist Party should be outlawed if it is true, as the government charges, that the Cominform has been financing French strikes.

The General spoke at a news conference which was prompted by the success of his French Peoples Party (RPF) in capturing more than 40 per cent of the Council of the Republic. The council has only an advisory capacity, but by refusing to approve National Assembly measures can force the Assembly to vote on them a second time when an absolute majority is needed to make them law. Considering the present division in the Assembly these absolute majorities are hard to get.

De Gaulle, whose strategy is to force the Assembly to dissolve itself, reiterated that it should quit and call new elections which he thinks would sweep him into power.

The threat of a fist fight in the Assembly forced a temporary suspension of the Assembly session today when Jules Moch, Socialist Interior Minister, and Communist Deputy August Lecoeur accused each other of being liars. Moch charged that the Cominform is financing the current coal strike and Lecoeur charged police with murder, lynching and clubbings against strikers. Moch and his sympathizers marched out, but rightists and Communists continued to hurl insults at one another and Speaker Edouard Herriot abruptly suspended the session.

Judge Refuses To Order Shift By Ala. Electors

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 17 (AP) —A federal judge refused today to order Alabama's presidential electors to cast their ballots for President Truman.

Judge C. B. Kennamer denied Gov. James E. Folsom's request for a temporary injunction to keep the electors from voting for anyone but Mr. Truman. They are pledged to support Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, of South Carolina, who was the States' Rights candidate for President.

The judge did not act on other parts of the Governor's suit but set another hearing for November 30 to consider them. They asked for a permanent injunction, a writ of mandamus to compel the electors to vote for the President and a declaratory judgment defining the electors' duties.

Leathernecks To Aid Fleeing U. S. Nationals

American Course If Reds Grab Tsingtao Still Undisclosed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—(AP)—The Navy is sending 1,250 marines along with ships to China to evacuate American civilians ahead of the advancing Communist armies.

The marines, traveling light from Guam, will reinforce 3,600 now stationed at naval headquarters at Tsingtao, vital port city on the edge of the Communist battle line. They are to leave Guam next Tuesday in the transport Bayfield, a Navy announcement said.

The number of civilians fleeing China was not estimated. One high speed transport, the Gosselin, is due at Shanghai from Tsingtao tomorrow. A larger one, the General H. W. Butner, arrives at Shanghai Friday from Manila. Officials said the Bayfield with a capacity of 1,500 would be available for evacuees at Tsingtao.

Earlier in the day, Secretary of Defense Forestal disclosed that marines would be sent to Tsingtao, but he put the number at 1,000. It was some two hours later before the Navy confirmed the movement and set the figure higher.

Would Marines Fight

Forrestal didn't make it clear whether the marines would fight the Reds if necessary to maintain our position at Tsingtao.

The Navy announcement said:

"This marine force will assist in the orderly evacuation of the United States nationals through the port of Tsingtao. It is expected that in the near future United States nationals from Tsingtao and the interior will be evacuated. The Navy is taking these steps to meet evacuation problems."

What to do if the Communist horde grabs the city has become a growing question. It involves American naval strategy, and American prestige. Tsingtao, a Yellow Sea port, is China headquarters and fleet anchorage for the Navy. There are 3,600 marines there now, along with a 12-ship task force.

At a news conference, Forrestal was asked,

1. Would the marines "fight" Communists if they seize Tsingtao? He wouldn't comment. "Their purpose," he explained, "is to aid whatever steps are necessary for evacuation."

2. Would they be ordered out if the Reds moved on the city? The State Department would have to decide that, he replied.

Americans fleeing the North China fighting areas have poured into Tsingtao. All Americans in China have been warned they had better leave. Forrestal said two transports are headed for China from the West Coast. One is due to arrive in Shanghai tomorrow and a second is due at a China port on Friday.

4,624 U. S. Civilians In China

There are a 4,624 Americans in China, exclusive of military police. Of these, 3,050 are in the Shanghai-Nanking area, and 1,574 in other sections.

Even if the Comunists fail to capture Tsingtao, they might create a tough situation by cutting off the water supply, which originates in territory they control. Much of the United States Naval force is stationed ashore.

Tsingtao is on the Shantung Pen-

29 Injured In Train Wreck Near Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 17. (AP)—The "Meadowlark," fast streamliner of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad, crashed into the rear of a suburban train tonight near Dolton, outside of Chicago, and at least 29 persons were injured.

The fast train was running about an hour late after replacing its Diesel engine shortly after leaving Chicago.

Most of the injured suffered light bruises, lacerations and cuts. They were taken to the St. Francis Hospital, Blue Island, Ill., and to the Thompson Clinic at Dolton.

Pro-Communist Minority Of CIO Flayed By Murray

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 17 (AP)—CIO President Philip Murray made a scorching attack on the pro-Communist minority of the CIO today.

In a five-hour meeting of the 51-man CIO Executive Board, Murray delivered what some members said was perhaps the strongest language he has ever used against Communist activities in the labor movement.

Murray himself, holding a news conference, neglected to mention the attack, but others who were present told reporters about it privately.

One official quoted Murray as calling Communists "filthy" and "vicious"—and as saying that all CIO union leaders must make a choice between loyalty to the CIO and loyalty to Russian foreign policy.

The CIO's left wing, which has been declining in strength for the last two years, is squarely in the dog-house with Murray just now because the left-wingers departed from CIO policy in two big respects.

They supported Henry Wallace for President and they kept up their attacks on the Marshall Plan.

After Murray spoke, other CIO right-winngers (anti-Communists) joined in the attack. One was Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers.

Some of the left-wingers defended themselves. They argued, for example, that the Progressive Party was responsible for the progressive tone of the Democratic platform.

During the board meeting an internal struggle in the CIO over the issue of alleged "raiding" between unions was discussed pro and con without a final decision.

Another internal struggle—over whether to revoke the charter of the left-wing New York City CIO Council—was avoided by the board today but will come up later and is almost sure to be debated in the convention which begins here Monday.

Evatt And Lie Renew Their Appeal For Berlin Accord

Two U. N. Leaders Shift Emphasis To Western Viewpoint

PARIS, Nov. 17—(AP)—United Nations leaders Herbert V. Evatt and Trygve Lie renewed their appeal for Berlin peace today after the Western Powers refused once again to negotiate with Russia until the blockade is lifted.

The Western Power viewpoint was set forth in three separate notes handed to the Assembly President and Secretary-General by the United States, Britain and France this afternoon.

These notes, replying to last Saturday's appeal by Lie and Evatt for four-power Berlin peace talks, said the Berlin situation is still a threat to peace and must remain in the hands of the Security Council under present circumstances.

The new Lie-Evatt plea carries a significant shift in emphasis.

West View Apparently Accepted

In the original appeal the stress was placed on possible four-power talks; in today's appeal, the two leaders urged the big powers to note "in particular" the part of the earlier Lie-Evatt letter calling on them to "lend their full and active support to the efforts at mediation of the Berlin dispute by the President of the Security Council."

One "neutral" source said the new Lie-Evatt statement apparently indicated the two leaders had accepted the western view that the Berlin conflict should remain in the Security Council.

In any event, it seemed obvious that the appeal to cooperate with Council President Juan Atilio Bramuglia was directed at Russia since each of the three Western Powers in their replies to Lie and Evatt specifically pledged cooperation with Bramuglia.

A United Nations source said Lie and Evatt expected no formal answer to their latest appeal.

"What is wanted is an answer in deeds, not in words," this source said.

Russia's Position

In the past Russia has taken the position that the Berlin dispute should be settled by the Council of Foreign Ministers and not by the Security Council. In her reply to the Lie-Evatt note yesterday, Russia made no reference to the Security Council, but indicated she would be willing to discuss the Berlin issue either in the Council of Ministers, along with the entire German problem, or possibly in a meeting of the Big Four chief executives.

It was noted, however, that Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky conferred informally several times with Bramuglia last month when the Argentine Foreign Minister was trying to win big power agreement on a formula drafted by the council's six neutral members.

This formula eventually was vetoed by Russia.

President, Forrestal To Confer

Chiang, In Letter To Truman, Appeals For Encouragement

KEY WEST, Fla., Nov. 17—(AP)—Word that Secretary of Defense Forrestal is flying here tomorrow to talk with President Truman coincided with grave developments in China.

The White House confirmed tonight that the President has received a letter direct from Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek, President of the Chinese government.

While Matthew J. Connelly, a presidential secretary, would not disclose its total contents or comment upon the letter, it was later learned it contained an appeal for encouragement to the hard-pressed armies and people of Nationalist China in their critical battle with the Communists. This appeal parallels a similar request made by Chinese Ambassador Wellington Koo to Undersecretary of State Lovett Thursday.

That Forrestal's trip to the President's vacation retreat here for lunch might concern more than a possible discussion of how long he will remain in the Cabinet was indicated by:

1. The Defense Secretary's announcement at a news conference in Washington that Marine forces are to be increased by 1,000 men at Tsingtao, China.

2. His further disclosure that two transports are going into Chinese ports to remove Americans from the path of advancing Communist forces. There are now 3,600 Marines at Tsingtao.

3. Undersecretary of State Lovett's report that the President had received a letter direct from the Chinese leader.

4. President Truman's own assertion at a news conference here yesterday that we are in direct communication with the Chinese President.

5. Evidence here that Lovett was in telephone communication with the temporary White House here more than once today.

Forrestal also told his news conference that while he had submitted his resignation, along with other members of the Cabinet, he is "at the service of the President."

This was just another indication that his desire to see the President did not concern his own future, but a serious foreign policy discussion.

This would be a preliminary to a full-scale review of the international picture Monday at the White House with Secretary of State Marshall and ECA Roving Ambassador Harriman. Mr. Truman is flying back to Washington Sunday.

WILL "DRESS" ACT — Winnie Garrett, nightclub dancer and former Broadway burlesque entertainer, sits on a window sill in magistrates court, New York, where she appeared yesterday for a hearing on a charge of presenting a "lewd and indecent performance" at a Manhattan club. Further hearing was adjourned until November 23 after "The Flaming Redhead" promised to dress up her undressed strip tease dance.

AFL, Impressed By Showing, Will Stay In Politics

CINCINNATI, Nov. 17 (AP) — The American Federation of Labor, impressed by its showing in the recent elections, voted today to stay in politics permanently.

Delegates to the 67th annual convention — sitting as members of "Labor's League for Political Education"—voted to collect 10 cents each from the AFL's nearly 7,500,000 members. The Taft-Hartley Act forbids direct contributions.

The $750,000 collected would finance a propaganda and education drive in 110,000 polling precincts over the nation in the next 14 months.

172 Backed By League Win

Delegates shouted approval when Secretary-Treasurer George Meany said 172 league-backed candidates were elected to the House and 106 classed as "unfriendly" were defeated.

Nevertheless, 225 members of the House who voted for the Taft-Hartley Act were re-elected. Only 218 votes are needed for a majority.

The AFL followed its traditional non-partisan stand in the presidential race although most of its leaders worked for a Truman victory.

Meany hailed the result as "a tremendous victory." He said "the tide of reaction has been decisively turned."

But he added: "we should not become overconfident and consider that the job is done and that we can now forget our political responsibilities."

Convention delegates had a busy day with these top developments:

Merger Talk Revived

1—A new move for merger with the CIO, prompted by cooperation of labor organizations locally in the recent elections. A report of the convention organization committee was approved, calling on leaders to work for consolidation "with new vigor." The committee proposed that the door not only should be opened to the CIO but the AFL "should now reach out and grasp them by the hand and urge them to come back into the AFL." The CIO was formed by AFL unions in 1936.

2—Marshall Plan Director Paul Hoffman told the AFL the new goal of the European Cooperation Administration was to boost the standard of living in Europe by one-third. He said the United States was following "an enlightened form of dollar diplomacy" through the Marshall Plan and said the spirit of recovery in Western Europe has been greatly improved since 1946.

"Tallest Tree" Claims Disputed By Redding, Calif.

Redding has had giant trees on its main street every Christmas for 25 years now, and the only runt it ever had measured 94 feet. Its tallest was 101 feet.

This year's tree, marked out in the Mt. Lassen country east of here, will run about 98 feet when cut.

Los Angeles' tree is 95 feet. New York's tree is a mere 90-footer.

The Redding tree is cut annually and erected by Pacific Gas and Electric Company crews under local Manager Ben Mason.

St. Peter's Scene Of Suicide Leap

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 17. (AP)—A despondent lawyer leaped 170 feet to his death inside Saint Peter's Church today.

He jumped from the base of Michelangelo's soaring cupola of the Basilica and crashed near the high altar, only a few feet from where tourists were viewing the wonders of the greatest Roman Catholic church.

They and worshippers were asked by guards to leave immediately. The Basilica was closed nearly five hours until it could be reconsecrated.

The Cathedral of Naples also was closed today because of a suicide Dispatches said a shoemaker last night shot himself near the main altar.

Vatacan authorities identified the crushed body in Saint Peter's as that of Pietro Puglieri. The Neapolitan shoemaker was named Luigi Pugliese.

Puglieri's identity was established by Angelini Rota, Vatican City judge. He was 65 years old and was born in Rome.

Mrs. Kasenkina Will Leave Hospital Friday

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—(AP)—Mrs. Stephanovna Kasenkina will end her three-month stay in the hospital Friday.

The 53-year-old Russian school teacher has been at Roosevelt Hospital since she leaped from a third-story window of the Russian consulate August 12.

VISIT ST. NICK-- Three Chicago tots register varied reactions in a Loop department store as they get a closeup of the store's Santa Claus. Three-year-old Jo Hart (left) is enthralled, while Gary John Ogurek (center), two, puts up a howl as Santa's gloved hand and mama's grip keep him in place. Lynn Weston (right), 16 months old, just isn't very happy as willing hands lift her high enough to see St. Nick.

Union-Employer Talks Arranged In Dock Walkout

Set For Tomorrow, Mediator Discloses

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—A top-notch federal mediator went to work today on a settlement of the East Coast dock workers' walkout, and tonight announced he had arranged a union-employer meeting Friday.

It will be the first joint meeting since the start of the strike.

The negotiator, William N. Margolis, assistant to the director of the United States Mediation Service, made the announcement after conferring with officials of both sides.

Margolis said that "we haven't gone into great detail on the issues" but that talks for "further exploration" would be held tomorrow.

The entire 125-man union negotiating committee is expected to attend the joint session Friday, while the employers' full 25-man committee will be present.

Margolis said after his arrival from Washington today that he was "neither optimistic nor pessimistic" about a quick settlement.

More Workers Laid Off

Serious economic effects of the walkout of 65,000 AFL longshoremen continued to pile up. Additional railroad, steamship line and trucking company employes were laid off.

Marshall Plan officials estimated that 140,000 tons of European recovery supplies are backed up in East Coast ports. And the total is growing at the rate of 20,000 tons a day.

The shipping jam was relieved somewhat, particularly with respect to passengers, by a decision during the day of Canadian longshoremen to handle any vessel which puts in at Halifax.

The Halifax dock workers at first worked diverted vessels after the strike began last Wednesday, then announced they would not touch such ships.

The Cunard White Star Line immediately announced the Queen Elizabeth, world's largest passenger liner, would sail from Southampton November 20 and reach Halifax November 24. Its trip had been cancelled previously.

The Aquitania arrived at Halifax toady, sixth liner to dock there since the strike began. Passenger trains have been shuttling between the Canadian city and New York to handle the passengers.

123 Ships Idle At New York

The Customs House in New York said the number of ships strike-bound here had jumped to 123.

The Swedish-American liner Stockholm sailed during the day and took back with her to Goeteborg 400 tons of cargo which could not be unloaded. Passengers handled their own baggage and company officials cast off the ship's lines.

The Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, Erie, New York Central and Lackawanna Railroads announced additional layoffs of employes who work with export-import cargo. More than 3,100 railroad workers now are idle.

An official of the Motor Carrier Association of New York said 2,000 trucking employes were out of work temporarily because of the strike. The AFL teamsters union set the figure at 3,500.

Fourth-Round Wage Hike, Higher Prices Predicted By Ford

Price Control Would Wreck Nation, Auto Executive Declares

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 17 (AP)—Henry Ford II predicts today the nation's workers will get a fourth round wage increase and prices will go up.

"A new pay boost is inevitable," the president of the Ford Motor Company told a news conference. "I don't think anything can prevent it."

But the 31-year-old automobile executive here to inspect his firm's Chester, Pa., plant, added:

"Prices too must go up. There is no place else for them to go."

Ford admitted that production has improved "but we haven't got sufficient productivity to reduce prices."

"Prices are high today," Ford said, "maybe too high—but we can't lower them without lowering wages and material costs.

"I wish we had a buyer's market today. We're living in a fool's paradise. Unquestionably, prices will go down in a buyer's market."

Opposes Price Control

Price control?

"That won't help. Price control would wreck the nation—the auto industry included—and ruin the economy.

"It is ridiculous to think that any person sitting in Washington can tell a company how much to charge for its product.

"We still have to make profits to go any place in this country."

Ford declared the working man—"relatively speaking"—is better off today than in 1939 or 1940.

Labor is "hurting itself" by demanding price control, Ford said, adding:

"Not only would it turn the nation's progress backward, but it is a trend toward socialism. And such a system would be despicable for the United States."

The Taft-Hartley labor law won high praise from Ford.

"From our standpoint there is no part of the Taft-Hartley law that is unworkable. "I don't think it is a bad law. It should be given a fair and lengthy trial before it is changed."

Then he added:

"Goodness, we lived with the one-sided Wagner Act for so long. It is stupid to go back to that."

Won't Willingly Aid Probe

Looking more like a college football player than an industrial titan, Ford jokingly skimmed past activities of a congressional probe into automobile dealers' trade practices.

"What are they going to prove?" he asked. "We know that many dealers are unscrupulous. As long as a dealer has a chance to make easy money, he will. We don't condone the practice and have fired 23 dealers for black market practices. We'll fire more if we catch them."

The Ford company, he said, will not willingly aid the probe.

Name For New Prince? Jake Is Suggested

LONDON, Nov. 17 (AP)—Why not call him Jake?

The Evening News, one of the newspapers conducting a poll on the most popular name for the baby born to Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, said today that entry had come from Chicago.

"You can't imagine King Jake the First? Frankly, nor can I," said the Evening News columnist.

What they will name the baby is Britain's favorite guessing game.

DeGaulle Places French Interests Ahead Of U. S. Aid

PARIS, Nov. 17 (AP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle declared today the Marshall Plan must not be allowed to displace "the essential interests of France."

The wartime resistance leader, whose party has moved into a strategic position in the upper house of Parliament, questioned the recent decision of the American and British military governments to return control of Ruhr industries to German trustees.

He renewed his insistence that the defense of France must not be "centered in England," and declared that the Communist Party should be outlawed if it is true, as the government charges, that the Cominform has been financing French strikes.

The General spoke at a news conference which was prompted by the success of his French Peoples Party (RPF) in capturing more than 40 per cent of the Council of the Republic. The council has only an advisory capacity, but by refusing to approve National Assembly measures can force the Assembly to vote on them a second time when an absolute majority is needed to make them law. Considering the present division in the Assembly these absolute majorities are hard to get.

De Gaulle, whose strategy is to force the Assembly to dissolve itself, reiterated that it should quit and call new elections which he thinks would sweep him into power.

The threat of a fist fight in the Assembly forced a temporary suspension of the Assembly session today when Jules Moch, Socialist Interior Minister, and Communist Deputy August Lecoeur accused each other of being liars. Moch charged that the Cominform is financing the current coal strike and Lecoeur charged police with murder, lynching and clubbings against strikers. Moch and his sympathizers marched out, but rightists and Communists continued to hurl insults at one another and Speaker Edouard Herriot abruptly suspended the session.

Judge Refuses To Order Shift By Ala. Electors

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 17 (AP) —A federal judge refused today to order Alabama's presidential electors to cast their ballots for President Truman.

Judge C. B. Kennamer denied Gov. James E. Folsom's request for a temporary injunction to keep the electors from voting for anyone but Mr. Truman. They are pledged to support Gov. J. Strom Thurmond, of South Carolina, who was the States' Rights candidate for President.

The judge did not act on other parts of the Governor's suit but set another hearing for November 30 to consider them. They asked for a permanent injunction, a writ of mandamus to compel the electors to vote for the President and a declaratory judgment defining the electors' duties.

Leathernecks To Aid Fleeing U. S. Nationals

American Course If Reds Grab Tsingtao Still Undisclosed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—(AP)—The Navy is sending 1,250 marines along with ships to China to evacuate American civilians ahead of the advancing Communist armies.

The marines, traveling light from Guam, will reinforce 3,600 now stationed at naval headquarters at Tsingtao, vital port city on the edge of the Communist battle line. They are to leave Guam next Tuesday in the transport Bayfield, a Navy announcement said.

The number of civilians fleeing China was not estimated. One high speed transport, the Gosselin, is due at Shanghai from Tsingtao tomorrow. A larger one, the General H. W. Butner, arrives at Shanghai Friday from Manila. Officials said the Bayfield with a capacity of 1,500 would be available for evacuees at Tsingtao.

Earlier in the day, Secretary of Defense Forestal disclosed that marines would be sent to Tsingtao, but he put the number at 1,000. It was some two hours later before the Navy confirmed the movement and set the figure higher.

Would Marines Fight

Forrestal didn't make it clear whether the marines would fight the Reds if necessary to maintain our position at Tsingtao.

The Navy announcement said:

"This marine force will assist in the orderly evacuation of the United States nationals through the port of Tsingtao. It is expected that in the near future United States nationals from Tsingtao and the interior will be evacuated. The Navy is taking these steps to meet evacuation problems."

What to do if the Communist horde grabs the city has become a growing question. It involves American naval strategy, and American prestige. Tsingtao, a Yellow Sea port, is China headquarters and fleet anchorage for the Navy. There are 3,600 marines there now, along with a 12-ship task force.

At a news conference, Forrestal was asked:

1. Would the marines "fight" Communists if they seize Tsingtao? He wouldn't comment. "Their purpose," he explained, "is to aid whatever steps are necessary for evacuation."

2. Would they be ordered out if the Reds moved on the city? The State Department would have to decide that, he replied.

Americans fleeing the North China fighting areas have poured into Tsingtao. All Americans in China have been warned they had better leave. Forrestal said two transports are headed for China from the West Coast. One is due to arrive in Shanghai tomorrow and a second is due at a China port on Friday.

4,624 U. S. Civilians In China

There are a 4,624 Americans in China, exclusive of military police. Of these, 3,050 are in the Shanghai-Nanking area, and 1,574 in other sections.

Even if the Comunists fail to capture Tsingtao, they might create a tough situation by cutting off the water supply, which originates in territory they control. Much of the United States Naval force is stationed ashore.

29 Injured In Train Wreck Near Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 17. (AP)—The "Meadowlark," fast streamliner of the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad, crashed into the rear of a suburban train tonight near Dolton, outside of Chicago, and at least 29 persons were injured.

The fast train was running about an hour late after replacing its Diesel engine shortly after leaving Chicago.

Most of the injured suffered light bruises, lacerations and cuts. They were taken to the St. Francis Hospital, Blue Island, Ill., and to the Thompson Clinic at Dolton.

Potato Price Guarantee Cut To Benefit Taxpayers

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—The government today reduced its price guarantee on next year's potato crop by one-third.

It also recommended a substantial cut in potato acreage.

Both moves are designed to discourage overproduction and save some of the money which has been paid to farmers for producing more potatoes than the country would eat. About $100,000,000 has been paid out in potato price supports so far this year.

The lower support level — at 60 per cent rather than 90 per cent of parity — make lower retail prices for potatoes possible, although not certain.

Officials of the Department of Agriculture, which announced the new policy, explained that the lower production goal and reduced guarantee should result in a smaller crop of potatoes than was harvested this year. And supply and demand are in balance, they surmised, retail prices might not decline appreciably.

Nevertheless, consumers, who also are taxpayers, are bound to benefit. Not so much of their money will go to support prices.

The support at 60 per cent of parity is the lowest level allowed under the long-range farm bill passed by the 80th Congress. Under the old farm law, potatoes were supported at 90 per cent of parity. This means that if the market price goes below that figure, the farmer can sell them to the government at the guarantee level.

Parity is a price calculated to give the farmer a return equal in purchasing power to the price he received in a base period. It is calculated under a formula set up by Congress, and changes from month to month.

Next year's potato acreage goal was set at 1,938,000 acres, about 200,000 less than the 1948 planted acreage. The national goal was divided into state goals, which in turn will be broken down into goals for counties and individual farms. In order to be eligible for price supports, producers must stay within their acreage goals.

Nickel Is Kicked Around But Holds Its Own As Price For Bottle Of Pop

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Nov. 17 (AP)—The nickel was kicked around like a football today by soft drink manufacturers, but appeared to hold its own as the price for a bottle of pop.

A panel of six men, representing Mr. Big and Mr. Little of the bottling industry, carried the nickel through high production costs, sales volume, taxes, dealers and public opinion.

The six, R. A. Jolley, Greenville, S. C.; James Vernor, Detroit; A. B. Hatcher, Charleston, W. Va.; A. G. Beamen, Nashville, Tenn.; Edward Wagner, Cincinnati, and Paul F. Glaser, Seattle, answered questions popped by delegates to the 30th annual convention of the American Bottlers of Carbonated Beverages.

The panel's individual members came up with these remarks:

Glaser: "Price is not a nationwide prbolem in our industry—it is a local problem."

Vernor: "A rise in price probably will reduce volume. Prices have to be taken care of day by day, month by month."

Beaman: "Any attempt on the part of this association or a state association to set prices would be illegal. We don't want any part of price fixing."

Wagner: "Bottlers should budget their business from month to month if necessary. They should think about ways to cut costs in their plants, in their sales programs."

Hatcher: "The well-established, small, independent bottler can stand the present profit squeeze. I advise against establishment of any new bottling plants. The already established bottlers can supply double the demand."

Pro-Communist Minority Of CIO Flayed By Murray

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 17 (AP)—CIO President Philip Murray made a scorching attack on the pro-Communist minority of the CIO today.

In a five-hour meeting of the 51-man CIO Executive Board, Murray delivered what some members said was perhaps the strongest language he has ever used against Communist activities in the labor movement.

Murray himself, holding a news conference, neglected to mention the attack, but others who were present told reporters about it privately.

One official quoted Murray as calling Communists "filthy" and "vicious"—and as saying that all CIO union leaders must make a choice between loyalty to the CIO and loyalty to Russian foreign policy.

The CIO's left wing, which has been declining in strength for the last two years, is squarely in the dog-house with Murray just now because the left-wingers departed from CIO policy in two big respects.

They supported Henry Wallace for President and they kept up their attacks on the Marshall Plan.

After Murray spoke, other CIO right-winngers (anti-Communists) joined in the attack. One was Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers.

Some of the left-wingers defended themselves. They argued, for example, that the Progressive Party was responsible for the progressive tone of the Democratic platform.

During the board meeting an internal struggle in the CIO over the issue of alleged "raiding" between unions was discussed pro and con without a final decision.

Another internal struggle—over whether to revoke the charter of the left-wing New York City CIO Council—was avoided by the board today but will come up later and is almost sure to be debated in the convention which begins here Monday.

Women Opposed To State Tax Cut

ANAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 17—(AP)—The Maryland League of Women Voters resolved today to "oppose any reduction in the state income tax rate."

The resolution, in effect, put the league on record in favor of increased rates scheduled to take effect next March.

Delegates at the league's biennial legislative conference voted to condemn as "inflationary" Gov. Lane's proposal for keeping the tax at two per cent.

Under an act of the 1947 Legislature, the rate is scheduled to rise to 2½ per cent when returns on 1948 income are due.

Because of a $20,000,000 general fund surplus, Lane and the Board of Revenue Estimates have recommended that the General Assembly pass a new law preventing the increased tax.

Mrs. Dwight Partello introduced the resolution. Mrs. James R. Downs, Baltimore, state president, said that even though the state seems to have plenty of money, the counties which receive about a third of income tax revenues are still hard up.

One hundred delegates from county chapters were present for the one-day conference, held shortly before each session of the Legislature, which will convene here in January.

Soviet Pass System May Seal Off Berlin Sector

BERLIN, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Russians announced tonight a new system of passes which threatened to seal off the Soviet sector of Berlin from the three western sectors.

The new system will apply to the entire Soviet occupation zone and the Russian-controlled area of Berlin.

Col. Frank S. Howeley, the United States military governor in Berlin, said the Russians had not told the other powers of the move.

The Russians said over the Berlin radio and through the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN that starting tomorrow three kinds of identity cards would be in use: For Germans, for those without nationality and for "foreigners."

Forrestal Hints He May Stay In Cabinet

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP) — Secretary of Defense Forrestal hinted today he may stay on in the Cabinet and said there may have to be some "adjustments" in armed forces' expansion plans.

He said he will remain in the Cabinet "at the service of the President." This appeared to modify previous statements, including one in Europe several days ago, that he would not stay another four years.

He told a news conference that such programs as the Navy's big carrier building program and the Air Force's expansion to 70-group strength will have to be dovetail. t into the $15,000,000,000 armed force spending limit fixed by the Budget Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. (AP)—Dorothy Bailey, a top official in a CIO government workers union, has been suspended from her $8,000 a year job with the United States Employment Service on grounds of possible disloyalty.

Miss Bailey is a member of the International Executive Board of the CIO United Public Workers of America Union.

Women Opposed To State Tax Cut

ANAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 17—(AP)—The Maryland League of Women Voters resolved today to "oppose any reduction in the state income tax rate."

The resolution, in effect, put the league on record in favor of increased rates scheduled to take effect next March.

Delegates at the league's biennial legislative conference voted to condemn as "inflationary" Gov. Lane's proposal for keeping the tax at two per cent.

Under an act of the 1947 Legislature, the rate is scheduled to rise to 2½ per cent when returns on 1948 income are due.

Because of a $20,000,000 general fund surplus, Lane and the Board of Revenue Estimates have recommended that the General Assembly pass a new law preventing the increased tax.

Mrs. Dwight Partello introduced the resolution. Mrs. James R. Downs, Baltimore, state president, said that even though the state seems to have plenty of money, the counties which receive about a third of income tax revenues are still hard up.

One hundred delegates from county chapters were present for the one-day conference, held shortly before each session of the Legislature, which will convene here in January.

Soviet Pass System May Seal Off Berlin Sector

BERLIN, Nov. 17 (AP)—The Russians announced tonight a new system of passes which threatened to seal off the Soviet sector of Berlin from the three western sectors.

The new system will apply to the entire Soviet occupation zone and the Russian-controlled area of Berlin.

Col. Frank S. Howeley, the United States military governor in Berlin, said the Russians had not told the other powers of the move.

The Russians said over the Berlin radio and through the Soviet-licensed news agency ADN that starting tomorrow three kinds of identity cards would be in use: For Germans, for those without nationality and for "foreigners."

Forrestal Hints He May Stay In Cabinet

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP) — Secretary of Defense Forrestal hinted today he may stay on in the Cabinet and said there may have to be some "adjustments" in armed forces' expansion plans.

He said he will remain in the Cabinet "at the service of the President." This appeared to modify previous statements, including one in Europe several days ago, that he would not stay another four years.

He told a news conference that such programs as the Navy's big carrier building program and the Air Force's expansion to 70-group strength will have to be dovetail. ! into the $15,000,000,000 armed force spending limit fixed by the Budget Bureau.

CIO Official Suspended For Possible Disloyalty

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. (AP)—Dorothy Bailey, a top official in a CIO government workers union, has been suspended from her $8,000 a year job with the United States Employment Service on grounds of possible disloyalty.

It Is A Mistake To Confine Self To One Circle Of Friends

By NANCY MOTTRAM

You and the gals you call your crowd are carbon copies of each other. You wear the same clothes—and each others' clothes. You give and go to the same parties, know the same, boys, date in a group and even talk the same way.

Nancy Mottram

You honestly can't say that you know anyone outside your circle very well. You'd rather pal around with those certain girls because you like the same thing, have the same opinions and outside of a few minor squabbles every now and then, everybody gets along perfectly. You never go any place without them and you can't see any point in not letting every single one in on your most private secrets.

You can have more fun when you're one of a crowd, that's a fact. But counting everybody else as unimportant is a mistake. You hardly ever have a chance to think for yourself or have any personal opinions. And that's no way to learn how to be independent after you grow older, for when college time comes, you all will drift apart for most of the year.

Just because you have your own particular friends is no reason to give a cool nod of the head to anyone else who makes an effort to get to know you. Times may come when it's definitely handy to be able to count on others who don't belong to your certain crowd. Even though you don't spend hours on the phone or three evenings out of every four with them, it doesn't cost anything to be friendly with girls and fellows who aren't on the top of your best buddy list.

The last thing you want is to be known as a snob, yet, what can you expect if you never see the world other than through your pals' eyes? You're an individual, or would be, if you gave it a try. Do some thinking on your own, and don't take your crowd's opinion on a person or a book or whatever comes into your everyday life. Days will come when the rest won't be around to decide for you. And you'll be at your wit's end unless you start doing your own brainwork now.

It's Your Fight, Too!

Bing Crowley was "beefing" the other day about all that Our Town's doing in the way of sending food and clothes to Europe. Bing felt that those struggling democracies should look after themselves.

But most agreed with Judge Cunningham who said: "So long as any family or individual in Europe is helping hold the line for freedom—against the forces of intolerance—it's common sense, and common decency, to help 'em."

Because that's everybody's fight: To see that individual freedom is preserved in every aspect, big or little—whether it's the right to vote, or the right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer or ale with friends.

And from where I sit, no liberty's too small to overlook. Because the minute one small freedom is threatened, all the others are in jeopardy—just as the minute one small country loses freedom, all its neighbors are in danger!

Maritime Strike Something For Russia To Rejoice Over

With the cold war tightening and the Marshall Plan under desperate attack from Russia, her satellites and fifth columns, the AFL maritime unions have seen fit to tie up American shipping along the East Coast, following the months-old CIO paralysis of the Pacific Coast docks.

According to some AFL leaders, the Atlantic Coast strikers wanted to demonstrate against the Taft-Hartley Act—to prove that the 80-day injunction restraint was only a waste of time. Out in San Francisco Harry Bridges sought to make that same demonstration, though he has lately seemed eager to end a long and costly walkout. But whatever the rank and file of the strikers may be trying to do, they are actually playing into the hands of radical maritime elements which care little about wages or working conditions or the Taft-Hartley Act as such, and want above all else to block the Marshall Plan.

We believe the AFL leaders in New York realize this. They accepted a proposed new contract, even praised it and recommended it to the membership. But when the members turned it down, they went along and are now supporting an all-out strike. With 700 miles of the Atlantic Coast tied up, President Joseph P. Ryan of the International Longshoremen's Union says that the Gulf Coast workers will come out "if we need them." That would establish a tight ring around the three coasts of the United States. Could anything now please Russia more?

Ryan seems to believe that Marshall Plan shipments and Army cargoes can move despite the strike. His optimism is not shared by the Collector of the Port of New York. It is hard to see how ECA could fail to be affected now that the railroads have clamped down an embargo on freight shipments to the ports of New York and Boston. Maybe it is assumed that everybody can go to Halifax.

The loss and distress to overseas shippers and passengers are obvious. But the international complications of the strike, coming at this critical moment, are far more serious. Ryan remarks that "the President will have to go into this thing." He will indeed. Amid all the rejoicing and planning down at Key West, a spectre is seen rearing its head over the camp that claims credit for the Truman victory.

People Voted Mandate For The Minority, Too

While the Democrats talk about what they are going to do in the new Congress to carry out their "mandate from the people," the Republicans who were re-elected should not forget that they have a mandate, too. Senator Bricker of Ohio has made that clear in his call to fellow Republicans to continue to fight price controls and repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

There is an unfortunate psosibility that some Republicans will adopt a "me-too" attitude in the Eighty-first Congress. They might figure mistakingly that the Democratic victory means that the whole country wants the Democratic platform carried out and so will go along with all sorts of radical proposals. If they do so, they will be neglecting the people back home who re-elected them.

The people sent them back to Congress because they believed in the policies of the Eightieth Congress. That Republican Congress made a good record. It did nothing to be ashamed of. And the fact that many of its Republican members were returned to office indicates that millions of Americans approved of what it did.

The gravest mistake that Republicans in the new Congress could make would be to turn their backs on the principles of the Eightieth Congress. That would not only be a betrayal of trust, it would also be abandonment of Congress to the special interest groups and would negate all that had been done in the past two years to restore a semblance of Americanism to government.

It is too early yet to know the temper of the new Congress. But there is a good chance that coalition between Republicans and conservative Southern Democrats could hold the balance of power in the passage of future legislation. It can only do so, however, if Republicans stick by their principles and their guns.

A Newspaper's Role In Controversial Matters

Telephone calls to the editor reflect a rather widespread misconception about "the power of the press" in the United States. These phone callers assume that the defeat of Governor Dewey, whom most of the newspapers had supported during the campaign, "proves" that the influence of the American press is declining.

The power of the press, as a news medium and an expression of editorial opinion on current affairs, is a reality in any democratic country. But anybody who supposes that the newspapers can swing a national election simply does not understand the function of the press.

Most newspaper editors state their opinions and preferences during a political campaign. But they know that the reader will make up his own mind as voter. The editors call their shots as they see them. They are not conducting a popularity contest.

It happens that most of the voters thought differently from most of the newspaper editors in 1948. History will decide who was right.

Senator Bricker Lays It On Line For Republicans

To Senator John W. Bricker, we take off our hats for his fortright statement on Republican policy in the next Congress.

Some Republican leaders in Congress have been saying how obliging and polite they intend to be after Congress meets and how easy it will be for President Truman to get everything he wants from everybody, Republican and Democrat alike.

That's a bizarre idea of a two-party government. A lot of millions of Americans voted Republican in the November 2 election. Do they deserve representation in the next Congress or do they not?

"We shouldn't say," declared Senator Bricker, that "we were licked, so we'll join you." He said: "We'll fight for what we believe is right."

That is good American, democratic, republican doctrine. Are we never going to get through with "me-tooism" at high levels in the United States?

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

The Amebic Parasite

It has been estimated that approximately 10 per cent of our population harbor the organisms responsible for amebic dysentery.

Dr. Van Dellen

Many are unaware that the infection exists because it is not troublesome. Others develop telltale abdominal symptoms but they are so vague that the condition remains unsuspected by patient and physician. Only a small percentage encounter manifestations that are more typical of the malady.

The causative organism, Endameba histolytica, is a benign looking creature which delights in setting up housekeeping in the wall of the large intestine. It produces irritation, with ulcer and abscess formation and when the disease is severe the victim is plagued by diarrhea, vomiting, and griping pain in the lower abdomen. Unless something is done, weight loss and anemia ensue.

In others, the warnings are less clear. Constipation, cramps, gaseous distention, and belching are the only complaints. Sometimes there is a dull ache in the back, arms, or legs and the individual is often depressed and easily fatigued. Diarrhea may occur and usually follows excesses of eating or overindulgence in alcohol. A stool analysis is the only means of making the diagnosis. Now and then, several specimens must be studied before the culprit is found.

Amebic dysentery can be transferred directly from one individual to another via unwashed hands. This is particularly true among food handlers which explains why public health authorities are so insistent that this group of men and women be free from the disease. Transmission can take place also through contaminated water and is most likely to happen in areas where the plumbing system is not up to par. Polluted swimming pools may act as a source of infection and our prize pest, the fly, has been incriminated more than once.

Every sufferer must be exceedingly cautious in his habits lest the disease be spread to others but the greatest offender is the man or woman who does not know that he is playing host to the invader.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

Stillness

One reason why people are so nervous and unsettled in mind these days is that they do not sit still long enough in one place. I often think that the patient who waits in the outer reception room of a Doctor's office gets more good from this relaxation than from the medicine that the Doctor later prescribes.

It's a conservation of energy, and not a waste of time, when a man or woman decides just to sit still for a time—and think. Or even not to think for a time. Too many people think more than they do, anyway.

Every moment of relaxation and stillness is health-wealth in the bank. Immediate dividends follow. We all need much in reserve, in order to face the many emergencies of life, and to meet each responsibility with coolness and courage. It would revolutionize millions of lives if people could only school themselves into devoting but an hour a day to sitting still—either at reading, quiet talk, or easy thinking.

There is an expression in the Bible that has always fascinated and attracted me. Here it is: "Be still, and know that I am God." And then, in the 23rd Psalm, there is that line —"besides the still waters."

When sorrow, disappointment, or distress comes into our lives we want to get by ourselves—alone and undisturbed. There we want to be still—to think everything over, or to sit with closed eyes in prayer. Out of this procedure there always comes a light that guides us to happier days.

And when doubts come, what better decision than to find a quiet place and sit still—to measure out our thoughts, then to piece them together and make them stand for something vital and hopeful. And then to put them to work!

There is inspiration to these Autumn days as the golden leaves fall so silently to the earth, their mission performed and fulfilled. And how quieting to the nerves and the distressed mind is the stillness of the night.

Big Business Has Redder Face Than Pollsters; Vice President Barkley Won't Get Into Social Row With Sam Rayburn; Ambassadors Told To Resign

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. — Only one group of people since Nov. 2 have redder faces than the pollsters —the big businessmen who had feathered their nests with Dewey's friends.

Take, for instance, the sad case of delightful Lewis Rosenstiel, head of Schenley's giant distilling company. As one of the leading whisky and wine producers in the USA, Mr. Rosenstiel was interested in having an "in" with the new administration. It was not unnatural therefore that he should busy himself before election in wining and dining various prospective members of the Dewey cabinet.

Mr. Rosenstiel's motto is to leave no stone unturned. He is a successful businessman and he did not become one by accident. He believes in looking ahead. Therefore, not long before election, he looked ahead and retained Herbert Brownell, campaign manager for Mr. Dewey, as his attorney.

Looking still further ahead, he also retained as his public relations counsellor Carl Byoir, a pro-Republican gentleman with pipelines into the Deweyites.

Then to make sure his position with the new administration was secure, he invited Dewey to go yatchting with him right after the election to get a little post-election rest. Dewey was dated up for a vacation with Roger Strauss of American Smelting and Refining, so Rosenstiel took the next best. He invited Dewey's right-hand man, Paul Lockwood, to go yachting.

Paul accepted. Both Rosenstiel and Lockwood are entertaining gentlemen, but neither felt much like entertaining the other on that post-election trip.

Inside The Cabinet

Various Cabinet members, all set to resign, are now angling to remain. One is Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, who gave only $1,000 to the Truman campaign—though one of the wealthiest men in Ohio. . . . Averell Harriman, Marshall Plan ambassador to Enrope, has sent an urgent cable to President Truman asking permission to come home to discuss a wide range of subjects. (Friends say he wants to be Secretary of State.) . . . If Attorney General Tom Clark is elevated to the Supreme Court, the next Attorney General will be either Clark Clifford or Alex Campbell, hard-hitting head of the Criminal Division . . . Here's one Cabinet revision being discussed by the dopesters: Chief Justice Fred Vinson to be Secretary of State; Attorney General Tom Clark to the Supreme Court as Associate Justice; William O. Douglas to be Chief Justice. (Wouldn't that burn Felix Frankfurter up?) . . . Albert Greenfield, the big Philadephia real estate man, is in line for either the Truman Cabinet or an embassy.

Another Dolly Gann Row ? ?

Capital hostesses, who haven't enjoyed a good social row since the days of Dolly Gann and Alice Longworth's spat over who should sit where at dinner, have been glowing with anticipation over the problem of who will be Vice President Barkley's official hostess, and where she will rank at official dinners.

Vice President Barkley, like Vice President Charlie Curtis, is a widower. That was why Curtis's half-sister, Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, was made his official hostess. And it was the question of whether the Vice President's sister or the wife of Speaker Longworth preceded the other at dinner which threw social Washington into such a hubbub during the Hoover Administration.

However, it looks as if Alben Barkley would disappoint the ladies. Alben is not averse to going out to dinner. In fact, he is in great demand. But he doesn't relish social rows.

Furthermore, his counterpart is also single — Speaker-to-be Sam Rayburn. Close friends, Sam and Alben have been going out together as widowers for so long that the idea of their rowing over protocol brings smiles to those who know them.

Sam was married once, so long ago that most people think he was always a bachelor. He has no official hostess and doesn't intend to have one.

Barkley, whose wife was an invalid for many years before she died, also goes to dinner on his own. Barkley says he's had a "number of applicants" for the job, but if he needs an official hostess, he will draft his daughter, gracious Mrs. Max Truitt.

Merry-Go-Round

All American ambassadors have received cables from the State Department reminding them that it's customary to submit their resignations. Truman wants a free hand to select new diplomats . . . . U. S. Ambassador to Moscow Bedell Smith has been pulling wires to get General Clay's job as commander in Berlin. He's not likely to succeed . . . . Not all of President Truman's callers get into the newspapers. One significant secret caller was Chicago's Democratic Boss, Jake Arvey, the man who helped Truman carry the surprise state—Illinois . . . . John Maragon, President Truman's old bootblack friend from the Kansas City Union Station, feels that the election guarantees his future. Maragon is trying to hire one of the fanciest office suites in Washington for William Helis, the New Orleans oil man. (Maragon is supposed to run the Helis office in Washington.)

Under The Dome

Senator McClellan of Arkansas, one of the most reactionary diehards on Capitol Hill, is slated to take over Senator Ferguson's investigating committee. McClellan is sore at Truman for ousting his friend Nat Dyke from the Home Loan Bank Board and friends say the Senator is planning to smear any Government department that backs major legislation he doesn't happen to like — especially civil rights . . . . Phil Murray and William Green of the CIO-AFL have sent a stiff protest to President Truman against making Senator Lucas of Illinois majority leader of the Senate. (Lucas voted for the Taft-Hartley Act.) However, Lucas will probably get the job just the same. He faces a re-election battle in 1950—an off-year which makes for strong Republican showings and the Democrats want to give him plenty of help. . . . Gerald B. Winrod of Wichita, Kansas, formerly indicted for sedition against his country, has been trying to buy time once a week on Washington radio stations. His agent tells station managers this is a "program I believe your station will be proud to have." . . . Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana has padded the Louisiana State Mineral Board with ten new members in a move calculated to let the political hacks and the party favorites in on juicy oil concessions. B. A. Hardey of Shreveport, now chucked out, had operated the board too conscientiously for the Long machine.

Republicans Late Recognizing Mr. Truman Had Taken The Ball

By MARK SULLIVAN

Post-mortems over the election, by Republicans, have reached the stage in which search for the causes of disaster overlaps upon suggestions for future recovery. To this stage a contribution is made by Mr. Clarence Budington Kelland, who, as a distinguished author and at the same time a citizen who gives concentrated thought to public questions and takes an active part in politics, represents a type which would enrich public life if there were more of them. As Republican national committeeman from Arizona, Mr. Kelland harshly criticizes the campaign conducted by Governor Dewey and his aides and suggests a meeting of the national committee to reorganize the party and bring about new leadership. And in his role of author Mr. Kelland puts his opinion of the Dewey campaign management into a racy phrase, saying that they "proved themselves to be geniuses in the art of stirring up an avalanche of lethargy."

Whether a different kind of campaign, or a different kind of candidate would have won, are now questions which, however worthy of thought, are of the kind which President Franklin Roosevelt used to describe as "iffy." Regardless of the outcome of the Republican campaign, there are objective facts about it which compose the most recent segment of the country's political history.

Failed to Run On Record

The Republicans, coming into control of Congress by the elections of 1946, made a record. It was the only record they had, for during 13 years preceding they had been out of power in both Congress and the Presidency. The record they made would have been a natural basis of their appeal to the electorate to give them the Presidency this year. It would be one of two possible bases, the other being the record of the Democrats during their long period in power, including the latter part of it, the record of President Truman.

It is not possible to say that the Republicans "chose" not to run on their record in Congress, for there is no sign that any thought was given to choice. But, in selecting their candidate for the Presidency, they took a step which left them open to the charge that they did not chose to run on their record in Congress. Had they decided to run on that record, an appropriate selection for Presidential nominee would have been one of the leaders who had made that record, and were symbols of it. These included Senator Taft, who had led in making the record on domestic matters, Senator Vandenberg who had led on foreign matters, and Speaker of the House Martin.

All these the Republicans passed over. Acting upon a different basis, so far as they gave thought to balancing one basis against another, they nominated Governor Dewey of New York. In a faint way this amounted to making the record of President Truman their issue for Mr. Truman was rather flagrantly open to the charge of administration, while Mr. Dewey was credited with knowing the art of good administration, and had proved it as Governor of the largest state, the largest unit of government other than the federal one. If good management at Washington was the issue, Mr. Dewey was the appropriate candidate.

Truman Quick To See Opening

President Truman was quick to see the opening. If the Republicans would not run on the record of their Congress, he would. Up and down the country he denounced "the Republican 80th Congress," sprayed it with harsh epithets, subjected it to charges of commission and commission. Mr. Truman's opportunity was double. Not only had the Republicans given him his opening by not nominating one of their leaders in Congress, but also had one of those leaders been Mr. Truman's opponent, he would have been equipped, by his knowledge of the record to make effective replies to Mr. Truman's charges.

Te Republicans were late in recognizing that Mr. Truman had taken the ball, if indeed they ever recognized it until the day after election. They assumed the issue was the record of Mr Truman and the Democrats over a period of 15 years. Even of this Mr. Dewey did not take as much advantage as he might have; the most conspicuous aspect of his campaign was appeal to the people for unity, looking forward to when he and the Republicans should have responsibility. The Republican campaign seemed to assume that, in the words of a former Republican slogan, the people had "had enough," that the campaign was one of a type in which the people had decided to turn the "ins" out.

Election "Mandate" Will Be Viewed Differently By Groups

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—What "mandate" was given by the last election?

This question will be interpreted differently by various groups. There is no acceptable means of measuring trends or the claims of selfish interests. But if the United States had a parliamentary system like Canada and the other nations of the British commonwealth, there would not be any need to worry about anybody distorting or misconstruing the "mandate." For in a parliamentary system the existing administration can at any time be checked by the people's expressed will. This is true democracy.

Under our constitutional system, the Chief Executive cannot be checked except once in four years. The will of a sizable minority—it amounted to 21,544,061 voters in the last election, according to the latest count—can be completely disregarded by an American President without any check being imposed upon him. Likewise, 3,000,000 or more out of the 23,669,387 who voted for the victorious candidate for the presidency at the time of the election may find cause hereafter for disapproving some proposals and may therefore actually help form a new majority. But in the United States the will of that majority cannot be expressed immediately. It must wait for four years to change Chief Executives.

Protest Can Be Registered

It is true that a congressional election will be held in two years and that the protest of the people can be registered then. But it need not effect the presidency at all. Indeed, it is not good government to be opposite political complexion. Under a parliamentary system, the prime minister and his cabinet are responsible to the national legislature and can be ousted by a majority vote. If he feels he is right and the legislature is wrong, the issue can be carried to the people to decide. The reason that this system does not result in frequent elections is that serious thought is given constantly to the true wishes of the majority of the voters. Readjustments in the cabinet are made in the face of evident desires of the people.

There would be far more unity in America and much more of a spirit of reconciliation today if the minority felt that the majority party would not abuse its power in the name of groups seeking special privilege. Thus already there are Democratic leaders blandly saying that union labor won the election and that a "mandate" was given to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act. Naturally the union leaders do not want any balanced labor law—they are already saying they want a return to the one-sided Wagner Act.

But the people in the farm districts did not intend by their votes to bring about a labor-controlled government. The farm areas will look with disfavor on any situation that produces higher and higher prices for the articles bought by the farmer, especially since a decline in the prices of farm products seems likely.

The labor leaders made the mistake of preventing modification of the Wagner law for twelve years. If they should get their way now and secure the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act without any balanced law being put in its place, the next congressional elections may see a complete overturn of Congress, and then a much more extreme law than the Taft-Hartley Act may be enacted. The farm areas will do the trick.

Serious Economic Damage Possible

If a series of strikes and work stoppages begin to paralyze the economic system, the people in the farm areas and cities, too, will express themselves in no uncertain terms at the next congressional election. Under a parliamentary system, however, they could make their wishes known at any time and prevent extreme policies from being adopted. Under the rigid system in effect in America today, serious damage can be done the economic system by extremist groups and there is no check possible through legislation if the party in power feels itself beholden to special-privilege factions or pressure groups.

It would, of course, take a constitutional amendment to bring about a parliamentary system in the United States and such a proposal would mean that Congress itself as well as the Executive would be subject to instantaneous check by the people. The cause of parliamentary democracy is gaining favor as the economic problems of the country grow more complex. Since a centralized government has become necessary to supercede the economic rule of 48 state entities, some more effective means of checking a centralized government than is at present available would also seem to be necessary. Certainly there would be a united country today if the majority of the people could make their wishes felt at any time that the Chief Executive or the Congress failed to heed the true will of the people.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Beware Of Peace!

THE Trojan Horse is still a device of war. And it can be mental as well as physical. There can be a Trojan Horse of false ideas as well as of spies and traitors and mean-spirited humans who would accept such a peace as includes slavery.

They believe in peace at any price—even at the loss of their country. Similar people betrayed their country in many nations of Europe and are now betraying their country in China.

Such a peace offensive is being driven at the American people. The chorus of those who have found their spiritual comfort in the Kremlin are already shouting not only for peace, but they would humiliate the Presidency of the United States by requiring the President to pay court upon Stalin—while his agents abuse us the world over—to pay court as a vassal asking for crumbs at his lord's table.

Let there be no mistake: That is what Stalin requires as the price of a temporary peace, the terms and tenure of which he is to determine. If he is so anxious for peace, why does he not come to Washington? Roosevelt met him at Teheran and Yalta; Truman met him at Potsdam. Stalin has never returned the visits. He has always decided where he is to be met. He has never shown anyone the courtesy of a recognition of propriety. He pipes the tune; we pay for the piping.

Stalin has lost the cold war; he is winning the war in China. He has failed to steal our atom bomb; he has failed to produce one of his own. He has succeeded in holding together the six satellite nations; he has failed to achieve a Communist victory in France. He has failed to prevent Western Germany from being reconditioned if not reconstructed; he has failed at Berlin because of the air-lift; he has succeeded in keeping Eastern Germany disturbed.

Stalin's greatest failure has been the unwillingness of the United States to follow the Communist theory and go into a deep depression. He had expected vast unemployment, hunger, anger, fear—violence. He had anticipated that the Wallace party would have attracted millions of what he calls "the masses."

The debacle of the Wallace party means more to Stalin than it means to anyone in the United States. To us, Wallace was a passing show; to Stalin, his inevitable obscurity is a political tragedy. The election of Truman is as damaging as the election of Dewey might have been —particularly as the vote was the narrowest in many years. The division shows that the people are not divided on an ideological basis. The bipartisan foreign policy continues—the country is not disturbed.

And so Stalin starts a peace offensive and the Red Dean of Canterbury comes to lecture us and the chorus of Communists, left-wingers, soft liberals, cowards begins to sing the katydid song of "Peace! Ain't it wonderful!"

But a peace without justice is no peace at all. That the world learned at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam. A peace that drives millions of human beings into slavery is a wicked peace. It is the peace of the prison, of the madhouse, of serfdom. It is a peace of humiliation that destrops the dignity of man, that deprives a human being of his human characteristics. A peace that robs nations of their national existence, that sets brother against brother in civil war, that suppresses freedom of thought and its expression—is no peace at all.

This is what Stalin offers and that he offers only if the head of our free society will come to him and plead with him. Were it otherwise, Stalin would come to Washington, to sit in freedom among free men, without fear, without espionage. He could even walk our streets and see how free men live. He could read our newspapers, listen to our radio, attend our schools and colleges and note what freedom of learning can be: he could go to our variety of churches and rediscover the God he deserted in his youth. That indeed would be peace—the peace of God.

It Says Here

By BOB HOPE

How about those selections of the five most virile-looking men in the country . . . Clark Gable, Victor Mature, Lou Boudreau, Governor Earl Warren, and radio singer Jack Smith? Of course, Artie Shaw is suing.

The five winners were chosen for their muscular appearance. Well, I got news for the judges. Those aren't muscles that bulge out all over Earl Warren . . . they're oranges.

And they not only said Victor Mature was virile, they said his hair always had a wind-blown effect. I could have the same thing if I wanted to take a shower in a laundrymat.

Crosby had a tough break and was disqualified in the final round. The last time he passed in front of the judges, the camouflage fell off his wheelchair.

Sinatra was so upset about not being picked one of the nation's most virile men . . . he stamped his foot. He'll be out of the hospital next week.

Don't think I'm complaining, though. I did pretty well this year. I finished only two votes behind Marjorie Main.

Maritime Strike Something For Russia To Rejoice Over

With the cold war tightening and the Marshall Plan under desperate attack from Russia, her satellites and fifth columns, the AFL maritime unions have seen fit to tie up American shipping along the East Coast, following the months-old CIO paralysis of the Pacific Coast docks.

According to some AFL leaders, the Atlantic Coast strikers wanted to demonstrate against the Taft-Hartley Act—to prove that the 80-day injunction restraint was only a waste of time. Out in San Francisco Harry Bridges sought to make that same demonstration, though he has lately seemed eager to end a long and costly walkout. But whatever the rank and file of the strikers may be trying to do, they are actually playing into the hands of radical maritime elements which care little about wages or working conditions or the Taft-Hartley Act as such, and want above all else to block the Marshall Plan.

We believe the AFL leaders in New York realize this. They accepted a proposed new contract, even praised it and recommended it to the membership. But when the members turned it down, they went along and are now supporting an all-out strike. With 700 miles of the Atlantic Coast tied up, President Joseph P. Ryan of the International Longshoremen's Union says that the Gulf Coast workers will come out "if we need them." That would establish a tight ring around the three coasts of the United States. Could anything now please Russia more?

Ryan seems to believe that Marshall Plan shipments and Army cargoes can move despite the strike. His optimism is not shared by the Collector of the Port of New York. It is hard to see how ECA could fail to be affected now that the railroads have clamped down an embargo on freight shipments to the ports of New York and Boston. Maybe it is assumed that everybody can go to Halifax.

The loss and distress to overseas shippers and passengers are obvious. But the international complications of the strike, coming at this critical moment, are far more serious. Ryan remarks that "the President will have to go into this thing." He will indeed. Amid all the rejoicing and planning down at Key West, a spectre is seen rearing its head over the camp that claims credit for the Truman victory.

People Voted Mandate For The Minority, Too

While the Democrats talk about what they are going to do in the new Congress to carry out their "mandate from the people," the Republicans who were re-elected should not forget that they have a mandate, too. Senator Bricker of Ohio has made that clear in his call to fellow Republicans to continue to fight price controls and repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act.

There is an unfortunate psosibility that some Republicans will adopt a "me-too" attitude in the Eighty-first Congress. They might figure mistakingly that the Democratic victory means that the whole country wants the Democratic platform carried out and so will go along with all sorts of radical proposals. If they do so, they will be neglecting the people back home who re-elected them.

The people sent them back to Congress because they believed in the policies of the Eightieth Congress. That Republican Congress made a good record. It did nothing to be ashamed of. And the fact that many of its Republican members were returned to office indicates that millions of Americans approved of what it did.

The gravest mistake that Republicans in the new Congress could make would be to turn their backs on the principles of the Eightieth Congress. That would not only be a betrayal of trust, it would also be abandonment of Congress to the special interest groups and would negate all that had been done in the past two years to restore a semblance of Americanism to government.

It is too early yet to know the temper of the new Congress. But there is a good chance that coalition between Republicans and conservative Southern Democrats could hold the balance of power in the passage of future legislation. It can only do so, however, if Republicans stick by their principles and their guns.

A Newspaper's Role In Controversial Matters

Telephone calls to the editor reflect a rather widespread misconception about "the power of the press" in the United States. These phone callers assume that the defeat of Governor Dewey, whom most of the newspapers had supported during the campaign, "proves" that the influence of the American press is declining.

The power of the press, as a news medium and an expression of editorial opinion on current affairs, is a reality in any democratic country. But anybody who supposes that the newspapers can swing a national election simply does not understand the function of the press.

Most newspaper editors state their opinions and preferences during a political campaign. But they know that the reader will make up his own mind as voter. The editors call their shots as they see them. They are not conducting a popularity contest.

It happens that most of the voters thought differently from most of the newspaper editors in 1948. History will decide who was right.

Senator Bricker Lays It On Line For Republicans

To Senator John W. Bricker, we take off our hats for his fortright statement on Republican policy in the next Congress.

Some Republican leaders in Congress have been saying how obliging and polite they intend to be after Congress meets and how easy it will be for President Truman to get everything he wants from everybody, Republican and Democrat alike.

That's a bizarre idea of a two-party government. A lot of millions of Americans voted Republican in the November 2 election. Do they deserve representation in the next Congress or do they not?

"We shouldn't say," declared Senator Bricker, that "we were licked, so we'll join you." He said: "We'll fight for what we believe is right."

That is good American, democratic, republican doctrine. Are we never going to get through with "me-tooism" at high levels in the United States?

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By Dr. Theodore R. Van Dellen

To the limit of space, questions pertaining to the prevention of disease will be answered. Personal replies will be made under proper limitations, when return stamped envelope is enclosed. Dr. Van Dellen will not make diagnosis or prescribe for individual diseases.

The Amebic Parasite

It has been estimated that approximately 10 per cent of our population harbor the organisms responsible for amebic dysentery.

Dr. Van Dellen

Many are unaware that the infection exists because it is not troublesome. Others develop telltale abdominal symptoms but they are so vague that the condition remains unsuspected by patient and physician. Only a small percentage encounter manifestations that are more typical of the malady.

The causative organism, Endameba histolytica, is a benign looking creature which delights in setting up housekeeping in the wall of the large intestine. It produces irritation, with ulcer and abscess formation and when the disease is severe the victim is plagued by diarrhea, vomiting, and griping pain in the lower abdomen. Unless something is done, weight loss and anemia ensue.

In others, the warnings are less clear. Constipation, cramps, gaseous distention, and belching are the only complaints. Sometimes there is a dull ache in the back, arms, or legs and the individual is often depressed and easily fatigued. Diarrhea may occur and usually follows excesses of eating or overindulgence in alcohol. A stool analysis is the only means of making the diagnosis. Now and then, several specimens must be studied before the culprit is found.

Amebic dysentery can be transferred directly from one individual to another via unwashed hands. This is particularly true among food handlers which explains why public health authorities are so insistent that this group of men and women be free from the disease. Transmission can take place also through contaminated water and is most likely to happen in areas where the plumbing system is not up to par. Polluted swimming pools may act as a source of infection and our prize pest, the fly, has been incriminated more than once.

Every sufferer must be exceedingly cautious in his habits lest the disease be spread to others but the greatest offender is the man or woman who does not know that he is playing host to the invader.

Big Business Has Redder Face Than Pollsters; Vice President Barkley Won't Get Into Social Row With Sam Rayburn; Ambassadors Told To Resign

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17. — Only one group of people since Nov. 2 have redder faces than the pollsters —the big businessmen who had feathered their nests with Dewey's friends.

Take, for instance, the sad case of delightful Lewis Rosenstiel, head of Schenley's giant distilling company. As one of the leading whisky and wine producers in the USA, Mr. Rosenstiel was interested in having an "in" with the new administration. It was not unnatural therefore that he should busy himself before election in wining and dining various prospective members of the Dewey cabinet.

Mr. Rosenstiel's motto is to leave no stone unturned. He is a successful businessman and he did not become one by accident. He believes in looking ahead. Therefore, not long before election, he looked ahead and retained Herbert Brownell, campaign manager for Mr. Dewey, as his attorney.

Looking still further ahead, he also retained as his public relations counsellor Carl Byoir, a pro-Republican gentleman with pipelines into the Deweyites.

Then to make sure his position with the new administration was secure, he invited Dewey to go yatchting with him right after the election to get a little post-election rest. Dewey was dated up for a vacation with Roger Strauss of American Smelting and Refining, so Rosenstiel took the next best. He invited Dewey's right-hand man, Paul Lockwood, to go yachting.

Paul accepted. Both Rosenstiel and Lockwood are entertaining gentlemen, but neither felt much like entertaining the other on that post-election trip.

Inside The Cabinet

Various Cabinet members, all set to resign, are now angling to remain. One is Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, who gave only $1,000 to the Truman campaign—though one of the wealthiest men in Ohio. . . . Averell Harriman, Marshall Plan ambassador to Enrope, has sent an urgent cable to President Truman asking permission to come home to discuss a wide range of subjects. (Friends say he wants to be Secretary of State.) . . . If Attorney General Tom Clark is elevated to the Supreme Court, the next Attorney General will be either Clark Clifford or Alex Campbell, hard-hitting head of the Criminal Division . . . Here's one Cabinet revision being discussed by the dopesters: Chief Justice Fred Vinson to be Secretary of State; Attorney General Tom Clark to the Supreme Court as Associate Justice; William O. Douglas to be Chief Justice. (Wouldn't that burn Felix Frankfurter up?) . . . Albert Greenfield, the big Philadephia real estate man, is in line for either the Truman Cabinet or an embassy.

Another Dolly Gann Row ? ?

Capital hostesses, who haven't enjoyed a good social row since the days of Dolly Gann and Alice Longworth's spat over who should sit where at dinner, have been glowing with anticipation over the problem of who will be Vice President Barkley's official hostess, and where she will rank at official dinners.

Vice President Barkley, like Vice President Charlie Curtis, is a widower. That was why Curtis's half-sister, Mrs. Edward Everett Gann, was made his official hostess. And it was the question of whether the Vice President's sister or the wife of Speaker Longworth preceded the other at dinner which threw social Washington into such a hubbub during the Hoover Administration.

However, it looks as if Alben Barkley would disappoint the ladies. Alben is not averse to going out to dinner. In fact, he is in great demand. But he doesn't relish social rows.

Furthermore, his counterpart is also single — Speaker-to-be Sam Rayburn. Close friends, Sam and Alben have been going out together as widowers for so long that the idea of their rowing over protocol brings smiles to those who know them.

Sam was married once, so long ago that most people think he was always a bachelor. He has no official hostess and doesn't intend to have one.

Barkley, whose wife was an invalid for many years before she died, also goes to dinner on his own. Barkley says he's had a "number of applicants" for the job, but if he needs an official hostess, he will draft his daughter, gracious Mrs. Max Truitt.

Merry-Go-Round

All American ambassadors have received cables from the State Department reminding them that it's customary to submit their resignations. Truman wants a free hand to select new diplomats . . . . U. S. Ambassador to Moscow Bedell Smith has been pulling wires to get General Clay's job as commander in Berlin. He's not likely to succeed . . . . Not all of President Truman's callers get into the newspapers. One significant secret caller was Chicago's Democratic Boss, Jake Arvey, the man who helped Truman carry the surprise state—Illinois . . . . John Maragon, President Truman's old bootblack friend from the Kansas City Union Station, feels that the election guarantees his future. Maragon is trying to hire one of the fanciest office suites in Washington for William Helis, the New Orleans oil man. (Maragon is supposed to run the Helis office in Washington.)

Under The Dome

Senator McClellan of Arkansas, one of the most reactionary diehards on Capitol Hill, is slated to take over Senator Ferguson's investigating committee. McClellan is sore at Truman for ousting his friend Nat Dyke from the Home Loan Bank Board and friends say the Senator is planning to smear any Government department that backs major legislation he doesn't happen to like — especially civil rights . . . . Phil Murray and William Green of the CIO-AFL have sent a stiff protest to President Truman against making Senator Lucas of Illinois majority leader of the Senate. (Lucas voted for the Taft-Hartley Act.) However, Lucas will probably get the job just the same. He faces a re-election battle in 1950—an off-year which makes for strong Republican showings and the Democrats want to give him plenty of help. . . . Gerald B. Winrod of Wichita, Kansas, formerly indicted for sedition against his country, has been trying to buy time once a week on Washington radio stations. His agent tells station managers this is a "program I believe your station will be proud to have." . . . Gov. Earl Long of Louisiana has padded the Louisiana State Mineral Board with ten new members in a move calculated to let the political hacks and the party favorites in on juicy oil concessions. B. A. Hardey of Shreveport, now chucked out, had operated the board too conscientiously for the Long machine.

Republicans Late Recognizing Mr. Truman Had Taken The Ball

By MARK SULLIVAN

Post-mortems over the election, by Republicans, have reached the stage in which search for the causes of disaster overlaps upon suggestions for future recovery. To this stage a contribution is made by Mr. Clarence Budington Kelland, who, as a distinguished author and at the same time a citizen who gives concentrated thought to public questions and takes an active part in politics, represents a type which would enrich public life if there were more of them. As Republican national committeeman from Arizona, Mr. Kelland harshly criticizes the campaign conducted by Governor Dewey and his aides and suggests a meeting of the national committee to reorganize the party and bring about new leadership. And in his role of author Mr. Kelland puts his opinion of the Dewey campaign management into a racy phrase, saying that they "proved themselves to be geniuses in the art of stirring up an avalanche of lethargy."

Whether a different kind of campaign, or a different kind of candidate would have won, are now questions which, however worthy of thought, are of the kind which President Franklin Roosevelt used to describe as "iffy." Regardless of the outcome of the Republican campaign, there are objective facts about it which compose the most recent segment of the country's political history.

Failed to Run On Record

The Republicans, coming into control of Congress by the elections of 1946, made a record. It was the only record they had, for during 13 years preceding they had been out of power in both Congress and the Presidency. The record they made would have been a natural basis of their appeal to the electorate to give them the Presidency this year. It would be one of two possible bases, the other being the record of the Democrats during their long period in power, including the latter part of it, the record of President Truman.

It is not possible to say that the Republicans "chose" not to run on their record in Congress, for there is no sign that any thought was given to choice. But, in selecting their candidate for the Presidency, they took a step which left them open to the charge that they did not chose to run on their record in Congress. Had they decided to run on that record, an appropriate selection for Presidential nominee would have been one of the leaders who had made that record, and were symbols of it. These included Senator Taft, who had led in making the record on domestic matters, Senator Vandenberg who had led on foreign matters, and Speaker of the House Martin.

All these the Republicans passed over. Acting upon a different basis, so far as they gave thought to balancing one basis against another, they nominated Governor Dewey of New York. In a faint way this amounted to making the record of President Truman their issue for Mr. Truman was rather flagrantly open to the charge of administration, while Mr. Dewey was credited with knowing the art of good administration, and had proved it as Governor of the largest state, the largest unit of government other than the federal one. If good management at Washington was the issue, Mr. Dewey was the appropriate candidate.

Truman Quick To See Opening

President Truman was quick to see the opening. If the Republicans would not run on the record of their Congress, he would. Up and down the country he denounced "the Republican 80th Congress," sprayed it with harsh epithets, subjected it to charges of commission and commission. Mr. Truman's opportunity was double. Not only had the Republicans given him his opening by not nominating one of their leaders in Congress, but also had one of those leaders been Mr. Truman's opponent, he would have been equipped, by his knowledge of the record to make effective replies to Mr. Truman's charges.

Te Republicans were late in recognizing that Mr. Truman had taken the ball, if indeed they ever recognized it until the day after election. They assumed the issue was the record of Mr Truman and the Democrats over a period of 15 years. Even of this Mr. Dewey did not take as much advantage as he might have; the most conspicuous aspect of his campaign was appeal to the people for unity, looking forward to when he and the Republicans should have responsibility. The Republican campaign seemed to assume that, in the words of a former Republican slogan, the people had "had enough," that the campaign was one of a type in which the people had decided to turn the "ins" out.

Election "Mandate" Will Be Viewed Differently By Groups

By DAVID LAWRENCE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17—What "mandate" was given by the last election?

This question will be interpreted differently by various groups. There is no acceptable means of measuring trends or the claims of selfish interests. But if the United States had a parliamentary system like Canada and the other nations of the British commonwealth, there would not be any need to worry about anybody distorting or misconstruing the "mandate." For in a parliamentary system the existing administration can at any time be checked by the people's expressed will. This is true democracy.

Under our constitutional system, the Chief Executive cannot be checked except once in four years. The will of a sizable minority—it amounted to 21,544,061 voters in the last election, according to the latest count—can be completely disregarded by an American President without any check being imposed upon him. Likewise, 3,000,000 or more out of the 23,669,387 who voted for the victorious candidate for the presidency at the time of the election may find cause hereafter for disapproving some proposals and may therefore actually help form a new majority. But in the United States the will of that majority cannot be expressed immediately. It must wait for four years to change Chief Executives.

Protest Can Be Registered

It is true that a congressional election will be held in two years and that the protest of the people can be registered then. But it need not effect the presidency at all. Indeed, it is not good government to be opposite political complexion. Under a parliamentary system, the prime minister and his cabinet are responsible to the national legislature and can be ousted by a majority vote. If he feels he is right and the legislature is wrong, the issue can be carried to the people to decide. The reason that this system does not result in frequent elections is that serious thought is given constantly to the true wishes of the majority of the voters. Readjustments in the cabinet are made in the face of evident desires of the people.

There would be far more unity in America and much more of a spirit of reconciliation today if the minority felt that the majority party would not abuse its power in the name of groups seeking special privilege. Thus already there are Democratic leaders blandly saying that union labor won the election and that a "mandate" was given to repeal the Taft-Hartley Act. Naturally the union leaders do not want any balanced labor law—they are already saying they want a return to the one-sided Wagner Act.

But the people in the farm districts did not intend by their votes to bring about a labor-controlled government. The farm areas will look with disfavor on any situation that produces higher and higher prices for the articles bought by the farmer, especially since a decline in the prices of farm products seems likely.

The labor leaders made the mistake of preventing modification of the Wagner law for twelve years. If they should get their way now and secure the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act without any balanced law being put in its place, the next congressional elections may see a complete overturn of Congress, and then a much more extreme law than the Taft-Hartley Act may be enacted. The farm areas will do the trick.

Serious Economic Damage Possible

If a series of strikes and work stoppages begin to paralyze the economic system, the people in the farm areas and cities, too, will express themselves in no uncertain terms at the next congressional election. Under a parliamentary system, however, they could make their wishes known at any time and prevent extreme policies from being adopted. Under the rigid system in effect in America today, serious damage can be done the economic system by extremist groups and there is no check possible through legislation if the party in power feels itself beholden to special-privilege factions or pressure groups.

It would, of course, take a constitutional amendment to bring about a parliamentary system in the United States and such a proposal would mean that Congress itself as well as the Executive would be subject to instantaneous check by the people. The cause of parliamentary democracy is gaining favor as the economic problems of the country grow more complex. Since a centralized government has become necessary to supercede the economic rule of 48 state entities, some more effective means of checking a centralized government than is at present available would also seem to be necessary. Certainly there would be a united country today if the majority of the people could make their wishes felt at any time that the Chief Executive or the Congress failed to heed the true will of the people.

These Days

By GEORGE E. SOKOLSKY

Beware Of Peace!

THE Trojan Horse is still a device of war. And it can be mental as well as physical. There can be a Trojan Horse of false ideas as well as of spies and traitors and mean-spirited humans who would accept such a peace as includes slavery.

They believe in peace at any price—even at the loss of their country. Similar people betrayed their country in many nations of Europe and are now betraying their country in China.

Such a peace offensive is being driven at the American people. The chorus of those who have found their spiritual comfort in the Kremlin are already shouting not only for peace, but they would humiliate the Presidency of the United States by requiring the President to pay court upon Stalin—while his agents abuse us the world over—to pay court as a vassal asking for crumbs at his lord's table.

Let there be no mistake: That is what Stalin requires as the price of a temporary peace, the terms and tenuré of which he is to determine. If he is so anxious for peace, why does he not come to Washington? Roosevelt met him at Teheran and Yalta; Truman met him at Potsdam. Stalin has never returned the visits. He has always decided where he is to be met. He has never shown anyone the courtesy of a recognition of propriety. He pipes the tune; we pay for the piping.

Stalin has lost the cold war; he is winning the war in China. He has failed to steal our atom bomb; he has failed to produce one of his own. He has succeeded in holding together the six satellite nations; he has failed to achieve a Communist victory in France. He has failed to prevent Western Germany from being reconditioned if not reconstructed; he has failed at Berlin because of the air-lift; he has succeeded in keeping Eastern Germany disturbed.

Stalin's greatest failure has been the unwillingness of the United States to follow the Communist theory and go into a deep depression. He had expected vast unemployment, hunger, anger, fear—violence. He had anticipated that the Wallace party would have attracted millions of what he calls "the masses."

The debacle of the Wallace party means more to Stalin than it means to anyone in the United States. To us, Wallace was a passing snow; to Stalin, his inevitable obscurity is a political tragedy. The election of Truman is as damaging as the election of Dewey might have been —particularly as the vote was the narrowest in many years. The division shows that the people are not divided on an ideological basis. The bipartisan foreign policy continues—the country is not disturbed.

And so Stalin starts a peace offensive and the Red Dean of Canterbury comes to lecture us and Trygve Lie issues obiter dicta and the chorus of Communists, left-wingers, soft liberals, cowards begins to sing the katydid song of "Peace! Ain't it wonderful!"

But a peace without justice is no peace at all. That the world learned at Teheran, Yalta and Potsdam. A peace that drives millions of human beings into slavery is a wicked peace. It is the peace of the prison, of the madhouse, of serfdom. It is a peace of humiliation that destrops the dignity of man, that deprives a human being of his human characteristics. A peace that robs nations of their national existence, that sets brother against brother in civil war, that suppresses freedom of thought and its expression—is no peace at all.

This is what Stalin offers and that he offers only if the head of our free society will come to him and plead with him. Were it otherwise, Stalin would come to Washington, to sit in freedom among free men, without fear, without espionage. He could even walk our streets and see how free men live. He could read our newspapers, listen to our radio, attend our schools and colleges and note what freedom of learning can be: he could go to our variety of churches and rediscover the God he deserted in his youth. That indeed would be peace—the peace of God.

It Says Here

By BOB HOPE

How about those selections of the five most virile-looking men in the country . . . Clark Gable, Victor Mature, Lou Boudreau, Governor Earl Warren, and radio singer Jack Smith? Of course, Artie Shaw is suing.

The five winners were chosen for their muscular appearance. Well, I got news for the judges. Those aren't muscles that bulge out all over Earl Warren . . . they're oranges.

And they not only said Victor Mature was virile, they said his hair always had a wind-blown effect. I could have the same thing if I wanted to take a shower in a laundrymat.

Crosby had a tough break and was disqualified in the final round. The last time he passed in front of the judges, the camouflage fell off his wheelchair.

Sinatra was so upset about not being picked one of the nation's most virile men . . . he stamped his foot. He'll be out of the hospital next week.

Don't think I'm complaining, though. I did pretty well this year. I finished only two votes behind Marjorie Main.

Girl Scout Council Plans Mrs. Henderson Memorial

Mrs. Bowen Heads Group's New Board

The Cumberland Girl Scout Council planned a memorial for the late Mrs. Robert R. Henderson and named a Planning Board at the meeting Tuesday night at the Girl Scout house, with Mrs. J. Gordon Mitchell presiding.

The council decided to "present a memorial book case for Mrs. Robert R. Henderson to the Public Library, in which she was greatly interested." Mrs. Henderson was an active member of the Girl Scouts for 14 years and the fund for the memorial has been started with volunteer gifts from her associates and friends. It also was decided that "as money is contributed books will be purchased on subjects in which she was specially interested, and will be placed in the cabinet as a permanent memorial." Mrs. Emma Everstine was elected to receive contributions at her office in the Liberty Trust Building.

A Council Planning Board to work with the Leaders Planning Board was named, with Mrs. Seth Bowen chairman. Serving with her are Mrs. Henry Holzshu, Mrs. A. M. Spioch and Mrs. William Somerville. The object of the group is to facilitate the two working together on large projects. They will begin with the Christmas program. An organization meeting is to be held December 1 at the Girl Scout house at which time a charter will be drawn up and presented at the next Council meeting.

Mrs. Lester Millenson, Mrs. Spioch and Mrs. Norman Geatz reported on the regional conference held in Washington last month, at which time outdoor work at all times was stressed. The Council also decided to sponsor a skating party for all scouts November 20 at Crystal Park. The bus will leave the scout office at 1 o'clock. The December meeting was changed to the 14th because of Christmas.

Bride Honored

A shower and reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Imperio honoring Mrs. C. B. Imperio recently at their home, Short Gap. A recent bride, Mrs. Imperio is the former Miss Helen Hartman, Piedmont.

Games and music featured the evening.

Bowling Green Auxiliary Plans Yule Activities

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Bowling Green Volunteer Firemen nominated officers, reported on the membership drive, and formulated plans for co-sponsoring with the firemen a community party and having a dance when it met Tuesday night at the fire hall, with Mrs. Arthur C. Page presiding. Elections will be held December 7 and Mrs. Louis Millholland was named Publicity chairman.

It was announced that the Blue team, headed by Mrs. Raymond Rosenberger, obtained 23 new members in the membership drive and the Red team, headed by Mrs. Jane Deffenbaugh obtained eight members. The losing team will treat the winners sometime next month after the new members are voted in. Three or four new applications were received after the drive was closed, bringing the total, with the membership of 44 and the 31 new ones, near the goal of 80.

Mrs. Millholland, Mrs. Paul Umberger, Mrs. H. C. Hamilton and Mrs. Jane Feltner were named on the committee to meet with the firemen's committee November 22 to plan the Christmas community party. Mrs. Paige appointed Mrs. Feltner, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Lavada Carney and Mrs. Catherine Johnson a committee to choose a date and orchestra for the semi-formal Christmas dance and have tickets ready for distribution at the next meeting.

It was decided to continue the tea towel shower and collection of kitchen equipment for the fire hall kitchen. A social followed and refreshments were served.

The Mizpah Bible Class of First Baptist Church will meet at 7:30 tomorrow at the home of Mrs. Stanley Morris, 508 Eastern Avenue.

Girl Scout Council Plans Mrs. Henderson Memorial

Mrs. Bowen Heads Group's New Board

The Cumberland Girl Scout Council planned a memorial for the late Mrs. Robert R. Henderson and named a Planning Board at the meeting Tuesday night at the Girl Scout house, with Mrs. J. Gordon Mitchell presiding.

The council decided to "present a memorial book case for Mrs. Robert R. Henderson to the Public Library, in which she was greatly interested." Mrs. Henderson was an active member of the Girl Scouts for 14 years and the fund for the memorial has been started with volunteer gifts from her associates and friends. It also was decided that "as money is contributed books will be purchased on subjects in which she was specially interested, and will be placed in the cabinet as a permanent memorial." Mrs. Emma Everstine was elected to receive contributions at her office in the Liberty Trust Building.

A Council Planning Board to work with the Leaders Planning Board was named, with Mrs. Seth Bowen chairman. Serving with her are Mrs. Henry Holzshu, Mrs. A. M. Spioch and Mrs. William Somerville. The object of the group is to facilitate the two working together on large projects. They will begin with the Christmas program. An organization meeting is to be held December 1 at the Girl Scout house at which time a charter will be drawn up and presented at the next Council meeting.

Mrs. Lester Millenson, Mrs. Spioch and Mrs. Norman Geatz reported on the regional conference held in Washington last month, at which time outdoor work at all times was stressed. The Council also decided to sponsor a skating party for all scouts November 20 at Crystal Park. The bus will leave the scout office at 1 o'clock. The December meeting was changed to the 14th because of Christmas.

Drugless Heaith!

REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feel and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth — Nature's laboratory. Contains NO alcohol, NO preservatives, NO oil. NO harmful drugs, NO dope — is NOT habit forming. Contains ONLY Nature's minerals, the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments — highly recommended by the medical profession.

FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hipocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from nutritional anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Amazing Results

MEDICAL records shew 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid coddition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain and suffering of these ills. People, on the advice of their doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgie. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Wonder Minerals

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wonderous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

GEO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best springs. Watch your elimination from your bowels a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities — poisonous waste — coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

Read What They Say!

"We not only sell Geo-Mineral"—says G. A. Littlefield, Manager of Smith's Drug Store, Gastonia, N. C.—"but as pharmacists, we know good medicine, and we believe there is none better than Geo-Mineral as a supplement for mineral deficiency. Doctors, hospitals, sanatoriums know the value of natural minerals. We are not surprised at the many users who came back to buy more and told us stories of amazing benefit. We recommend it to our friends, relatives, and beloved ones, and to every one wishing for better health."

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be the remedy you need!

TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

YOU CAN ENJOY GOOD HEALTH
STOMACH AILMENTS, WEAK KIDNEYS, RHEUMATIC PAINS, ARTHRITIS, NEURITIS and such complaints as Headaches, Nervousness, Acids Toxins, Bloating, Lack of Vitality, Energy, Poor Appetite, Underweight, Dizzy Spells.

Drugless Heaith!

REGARDLESS of how long you have been a sufferer, and how many medicines you have tried before, you can now hope for relief if you try GEO-MINERAL, the wonderful mineral aid. Feel and enjoy the results one week after you start taking it. GEO-MINERAL comes from the earth — Nature's laboratory. Contains NO alcohol, NO preservatives, NO oil, NO harmful drugs, NO dope — is NOT habit forming. Contains ONLY Nature's minerals, the oldest, most reliable remedy for rheumatism, arthritis, kidney and stomach ailments — highly recommended by the medical profession.

FOR THOUSANDS of years ever since Hipocrates was the father of medicine, minerals and other natural medicines were a reliable remedy for most of our common ailments. GEO-MINERAL will enrich your blood, help to make you strong, full of pep, life and energy. If you suffer from nutritional anemia, nervousness, lack of vitality and energy see what GEO-MINERAL will do for you.

Amazing Results

MEDICAL records shew 65% of men and women over 35 suffer from nutritional mineral-iron anemia. When you feel nervous, dull, tired, lazy, have dizzy spells, no ambition to work or play, a poor appetite, when your eyes lack that bright spark, and your mind brilliance, when headaches get the best of you, and you feel old before your time, and life seems not worth living, with worry wearing you down—it may be simply lack of minerals in your blood. GEO-MINERAL is then what you need.

RHEUMATISM, arthritis are dreadful diseases. Acid coddition in the blood is often their cause. What could be the remedy? For thousands of years, minerals have been used to relieve the pain and suffering of these ills. People, on the advice of their doctors, go to mineral springs to find cure, or relief. The late President Roosevelt used to go to Warm Springs in Georgie. He was helped or would not have gone there twice a year.

Wonder Minerals

YEAR after year, people rush to mineral springs and spas, to drink and bathe in their miraculous water. We have all heard of the wonderous springs of Lourdes, France, and famous Thronion in ancient Greece where, according to legend, Hercules, the god of eternal strength and youth, drank its waters and bathed to be forever young.

GEO-MINERAL contains minerals you get at the world's best springs. Watch your elimination from your bowels a day or two after using it. The waste, black as the color of your shoes, will start to break away, and you will SEE it! Also examine your urine. You may see impurities — poisonous waste — coming out of your kidneys, relieving you. And then realize the priceless value of GEO-MINERAL.

Read What They Say!

"We not only sell Geo-Mineral"—says G. A. Littlefield, Manager of Smith's Drug Store, Gastonia, N. C.—"but as pharmacists, we know good medicine, and we believe there is none better than Geo-Mineral as a supplement for mineral deficiency. Doctors, hospitals, sanatoriums know the value of natural minerals. We are not surprised at the many users who came back to buy more and told us stories of amazing benefit. We recommend it to our friends, relatives, and beloved ones, and to every one wishing for better health."

100% Guaranteed!

WE URGE everyone to try GEO-MINERAL. Do not hesitate one moment. Go to your drug store now. Get one bottle. Use it one week. If you are not 100 per cent satisfied, we will refund your money.

REGARDLESS of how long you have been suffering, and how many medicines you have tried before, GEO-MINERAL may be the remedy you need!

TRY it today! It may do wonders for you—and be the best investment for your health. Make you feel, eat, sleep, work and enjoy life better.

Tribute Is Paid Nursing Profession At Jubilee Banquet

The enormous forward strides made by the nursing profession during the past 75 years were hailed by a panel of eight speakers, representing a cross-section of the nation's social forces, at the Diamond Jubilee of Nursing Banquet held Wednesday night at the Hotel Biltmore, New York. The Jubilee is sponsored by the American Nurses' Association.

In charting the future of the nursing profession, now the largest single group in the health field in the United States, the speakers were in agreement that the next three-quarters of a century would witness a new era of progress that would over-shadow even the great achievements nursing has made since the year 1873.

The banquet, which was attended by more than 700 guests, was held to commemorate 75 years of nursing progress in the United States and to honor the memory of Linda Richards, America's first professional nurse. Adolph A. Berle, Jr., was toastmaster.

The speakers were Dr. Frank Porter Graham, president, University of North Carolina, representing education; Dr. Ralph C. Williams, Chief, Bureau of Medical Service, United States Public Health Service, representing government; Ralph Blanchard, president, National Conference of Social Work, representing social service; Dr. Eli Ginzberg, Associate Professor of Economics, Columbia University, representing social science; Dr. G. Rowland Collins, Dean of the Graduate School of Business Administration, New York University, representing business; Dr. Paul Hawley, Chief Executive Officer, Blue Cross-Blue Shield Commissions, representing health plans; Dr. Arthur W. Allen, president, American College of Surgeons, representing medicine; and Pearl McIver, R. N., president, American Nurses' Association, representing nursing. The invocation was given by The Very Reverend Monsignor Christopher J. Weldon. The benediction was given by the Right Reverend Horace W. B. Donegan, D. D.

"Nursing's opportunities are many and its responsibilities great," declared Miss McIver. "This fact has been recognized in the famous 22-point program drawn up by the ANA in convention this year. These illustrate the far-reaching aims which today animate the American nursing profession. The program calls for an expansion of the role of the American nurse in world affairs; for an increased participation in national affairs; for a rapid expansion of nursing forces to meet the health needs of the American people; and a furthering of the health needs of all people by a determined promotion of the welfare of the professional nurses."

All speakers emphasized the mutuality of interests between their respective fields and the nursing profession.

Sutherland Files Answer To County Board Complaint

Counsel for Jacob R. Sutherland, near Barton, filed an answer in Circuit Court yesterday to a bill of complaint by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners against Sutherland as a result of a dispute over a drainage ditch.

Horace P. Whitworth, Jr., attorney for Sutherland, stated in his answer that the water drains have not always been under the road and that the drain over which the dispute arose was originally constructed and maintained with the express permission and knowledge of said owner to carry off surface waters.

Denial is also made that the drain in its present size and status has been located on the defendant's property for more than 22 years as alleged.

Sutherland denies he wilfully obstructed the drain to prevent the water from crossing under the road at this point, but admits that the drainage of water upon his property has been stopped by the filling up of the drain. He claims that the drain has been filled with rock and sand washed into it by excessive water being turned into it as a result of the inadequate ditching and repair of the Miller Road in front of his property by the country road department.

Sutherland also stated that he and his wife own the property and that his father, J. H. A. Sutherland owned the property and gave his permission to the Allegany County Board of Road Directors to ditch the surface waters of the road across his property. He also stated a small open ditch was adequate to carry off the water at that time as the road was not surfaced or graded except for a portion below the level of the property.

Sutherland also claims that a coal mine which was recently opened above his property has caused sulphur water to flow onto his property and that his concrete sidewalk, trees and shrubbery has been greatly damaged by the water coursing across his property.

The court is asked to dismiss the bill of complaint of the county board and refuse to issue the injunction asked by the county.

Council Receives Sewer Lien Protest

Protest of a Wempe Drive resident against a sewer lien was tabled by the Mayor and Council Monday pending a conference with City Engineer Ralph L. Rizer.

Leo Breighner, 101 Wempe Drive, said in a letter to the council that he had already built his home when the sewer was put in, adding that workmen installing the sewer told him it would "not be deep enough" for him to use.

Breighner said he went to considerable expense to tap a sewer on the Pennsylvania Avenue playground, and that he had been charged with a lien on the former sewer.

Tribute Is Paid Nursing Profession At Jubilee Banquet

The enormous forward strides made by the nursing profession during the past 75 years were hailed by a panel of eight speakers, representing a cross-section of the nation's social forces, at the Diamond Jubilee of Nursing Banquet held Wednesday night at the Hotel Biltmore, New York. The Jubilee is sponsored by the American Nurses' Association.

In charting the future of the nursing profession, now the largest single group in the health field in the United States, the speakers were in agreement that the next thre-quarters of a century would witness a new era of progress that would over-shadow even the great achievements nursing has made since the year 1873.

The banquet, which was attended by more than 700 guests, was held to commemorate 75 years of nursing progress in the United States and to honor the memory of Linda Richards, America's first professional nurse. Adolph A. Berle, Jr., was toastmaster.

The speakers were Dr. Frank Porter Graham, president, University of North Carolina, representing education; Dr. Ralph C. Williams, Chief, Bureau of Medical Service, United States Public Health Service, representing government; Ralph Blanchard, president, National Conference of Social Work, representing social service; Dr. Eli Ginzberg, Associate Professor of Economics, Columbia University, representing social science; Dr. G. Rowland Collins, Dean of the Graduate School of Business Administration, New York University, representing business; Dr. Paul Hawley, Chief Executive Officer, Blue Cross-Blue Shield Commissions, representing health plans; Dr. Arthur W. Allen, president, American College of Surgeons, representing medicine; and Pearl McIver, R. N., president, American Nurses' Association, representing nursing. The invocation was given by The Very Reverend Monsignor Christopher J. Weldon. The benediction was given by the Right Reverend Horace W. B. Donegan, D. D.

"Nursing's opportunities are many and its responsibilities great," declared Miss McIver. "This fact has been recognized in the famous 22-point program drawn up by the ANA in convention this year. These illustrate the far-reaching aims which today animate the American nursing profession. The program calls for an expansion of the role of the American nurse in world affairs; for an increased participation in national affairs; for a rapid expansion of nursing forces to meet the health needs of the American people; and a furthering of the health needs of all people by a determined promotion of the welfare of the professional nurses."

All speakers emphasized the mutuality of interests between their respective fields and the nursing profession.

Sutherland Files Answer To County Board Complaint

Counsel for Jacob R. Sutherland, near Barton, filed an answer in Circuit Court yesterday to a bill of complaint by the Allegany County Board of Commissioners against Sutherland as a result of a dispute over a drainage ditch.

Horace P. Whitworth, Jr., attorney for Sutherland, stated in his answer that the water drains have not always been under the road and that the drain over which the dispute arose was originally constructed and maintained with the express permission and knowledge of said owner to carry off surface waters.

Denial is also made that the drain in its present size and status has been located on the defendant's property for more than 22 years as alleged.

Sutherland denies he wilfully obstructed the drain to prevent the water from crossing under the road at this point, but admits that the drainage of water upon his property has been stopped by the filling up of the drain. He claims that the drain has been filled with rock and sand washed into it by excessive water being turned into it as a result of the inadequate ditching and repair of the Miller Road in front of his property by the country road department.

Sutherland also stated that he and his wife own the property and that his father, J. H. A. Sutherland owned the property and gave his permission to the Allegany County Board of Road Directors to ditch the surface waters of the road across his property. He also stated a small open ditch was adequate to carry off the water at that time as the road was not surfaced or graded except for a portion below the level of the property.

Sutherland also claims that a coal mine which was recently opened above his property has caused sulphur water to flow onto his property and that his concrete sidewalk, trees and shrubbery has been greatly damaged by the water coursing across his property.

The court is asked to dismiss the bill of complaint of the county board and refuse to issue the injunction asked by the county.

Council Receives Sewer Lien Protest

Protest of a Wempe Drive resident against a sewer lien was tabled by the Mayor and Council Monday pending a conference with City Engineer Ralph L. Rizer.

Leo Breighner, 101 Wempe Drive, said in a letter to the council that he had already built his home when the sewer was put in, adding that workmen installing the sewer told him it would "not be deep enough" for him to use.

Breighner said he went to considerable expense to tap a sewer on the Pennsylvania Avenue playground, and that he had been charged with a lien on the former sewer.

MIRROR Of Your MIND

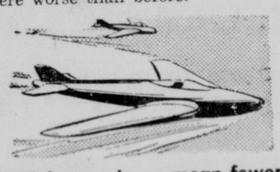
By LAWRENCE GOULD
Consulting Psychologist

Are parents and children sometimes better apart?

Answer: Yes, particularly when the children reach adult years. For unpleasant as the fact is, there are cases in which mutual grudges and misunderstandings have become so bitter and deep rooted that no contact can result in anything but renewed irritation. Nothing in the parent-child relationship makes people naturally congenial, and when they are not, trying to keep in touch with one another from a sense of duty ends in either trying to pay off old scores, or futile efforts to make one another over after its too late.

Can nearsightedness be cured by "visual training"?

Answer: Apparently not, to judge by the findings of a privately endowed inveistigation carried on under medical supervision in Baltimore, Md. Rather more than half the patients who received the training showed a slight improvement in tests, but the doctors felt this was due, not to seeing better, but to having learned to interpret blurred images more effectively and to a more hopeful mental attitude in response to the teachers' interest. Nearly one-third of the patients showed no improvement, and a few were worse than before.



Will faster planes mean fewer pilots?

Answer: At least, fewer applicants will qualify, says Dr. Maurice N. Walsh of the Mayo Clinic, since the psychiatric tests must be made stricter than ever. Although pilots in World War II were "screened" with considerable care, many lives were lost in training from the effects of anxiety at critical moments and new supersonic planes will make even severer emotional demands. For example, when the maximum speed is reached, the pilot has a sense of "weightlessness" which feels like falling and may produce strong anxiety reactions.

Punt Return Mark Might Be Broken In Maryland Tilt

Commodore Back Has Only 10 Yards To Go

NEW YORK, Nov. 17 (AP)—Lee Nalley, Vanderbilt University's ace safety man, can set a new record for punt returns in one season of collegiate football Saturday. All he has to do is bring one back 10 yards against Maryland.

The Commodore back is a cinch to take seasonal honors in this department, and break the old mark set by Bill Geyer of Colgate in 1941, for Vanderbilt has three more games to play.

Nalley has returned 34 punts a total of 607 yards, compared with the all-time high of 616 yards made by Geyer. Nalley is the key man in Vanderbilt's punt return system, with other players aiding by set blocking assignments.

Other figures released today by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau showed John Freeman of Portland University topping the list in kickoff runbacks, Bill Olson of Columbia leading in pass interceptions, Bill Boston of Montana State heading punters, and Red O'Quinn of Wake Forest the leading pass receiver.

The individual leaders:

PUNT RUNBACKS—Lee Nalley, Vanderbilt, 34 returns for 607 yards; Jack Mitchell, Oklahoma, 19 for 433; Henry Pryor, Rutgers, 23 for 433; Hal Littleford, Tennessee, 30 for 395; Bill Doherty, Villanova 23 for 347; Jack Sims, Baylor, 12 for 303; Wilford White, Tempe State, 11 for 293; Bobby Vinson, Army, 23 for 286; Bud French, Kansas, 23 for 283; Charlie Justice, North Carolina, 17 for 266.

KICKOFF RUNBACKS—John Freeman, Portland, 21 returns for 503 yards; Billy Gregus, Wake Forest, 18 for 473; Jerry Williams, Washington State, 10 for 407; Roy Malcolm, Montana, 17 for 406; Bob Goode, Texas A. & M., 15 for 387; Jerry Hiller, Marquette, 16 for 373; L. Corbin, Western Reserve, 14 for 358; Everett Faunce, Minnesota, 15 for 336; Alan Egler, Colgate, 12 for 335; Andy Davis, George Washington, 17 for 335.

PUNTING—Bill Boston, Montana State, 29 punts for 44.4 yards; Hall Haynes, Santa Clara, 41 for 44.1; Charlie Justice, North Carolina, 49 for 44.0; Doak Walker, Southern Methodist, 23 for 43.5; Paul Stombaugh, Furman, 57 for 43.1; Dike Eddleman, Illinois, 50 for 42.6; Bud Collins, Louisiana State, 50 for 41.7; Fred Wendt, Texas Mines, 24 for 41.3; Richard Melka, Marquette, 40 for 41.2; Levi Jackson, Yale, 46 for 41.1.

PASS RECEIVING—Red O'Quinn, Wake Forest, 35 for 563 yards; Jim Powell, Tennessee, 33 for 433; Jimmy Ford, Tulsa, 31 for 66; Jim Lukens, Washington and Lee, 29 for 407; Snake Bailey, Texas Christian, 28 for 21; Robert Larsen, Arizona, 27 for 354; Bob McChesney, Hardin-Simmons, 26 for 270; Dick Wilkins, Oregon, 25 for 495; Art Weiner, North Carolina, 25 for 371; Scott Beasley, Nevada, 25 for 309.

COUPER TO RESIGN AS LEAGUE HEAD

LEXINGTON, Va., Nov. 17—(AP)—Colonel William Couper of Virginia Military Institute said today he would resign as president of the Southern Conference at the League's annual meeting December 9 in Washington, D. C.

Couper was elected president of the conference in 1946 and was re-elected last year at Roanoke, Va. He said "it's time the younger men took over."

Couper said he made his first move towards relinquishing his conference job early this year when he resigned from the VMI athletic council.

"I decided I had been in college athletics long enough," Colonel Couper said. "I played my first game of football for VMI at Washington against Georgetown. Now, it looks as if I'll bow out there."

St. Bonaventure Plays St. Vincent's Sunday

LATROBE, Pa., Nov. 17—St. Bonaventure College, coached by Hugh Devore, former Notre Dame mentor, will play St. Vincent's College here Sunday afternoon.

The New York Staters have won from Dayton, Wayne, St. Louis, William and Mary and Niagara, played a 7-7 tie with Boston College and lost to Canisius by one touchdown. Canisius beat St. Vincent's by three touchdowns.

Savannah Fight Head Wants Bill Conn Barred

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 17—(INS)—Leon Collins, secretary of the Savannah Boxing Commission, today attempted to have Billy Conn barred from the ring because he reneged on a verbal agreement to fight in Savannah tomorrow night.

Collins said he wired the National Boxing Association asking that Conn and Sol Winegroff, a Macon, Ga., boxing promoter, both be suspended.

He claims Conn and Winegroff agreed to the Savannah fight following a fight in Macon last Monday. Conn, according to Collins, telephoned to report he could not fill his agreement because of an "injured hand."

Collins quoted Dr. A. M. Phillips, Macon Athletic Association physician, as saying that Conn had suffered no hand injury.

Redskins Have Ace All-Around Gridder

Dick Poillon Plays All Phases Of Game

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—This is the age of football specialization. It's an age when there's a man to kick extra points. And a man to hold the ball for the man to kick extra points.

So it's a relief to talk about Dick Poillon of the Washington Redskins.

You might say he specializes in doing a little of everything, which brings us right back to the place where football started.

The Redskins play the Eagles in Philadelphia Sunday for the leadership of the Eastern Division in the National Football League.

And if there are any oldtimers in the audience, who can remember 'way back when a football player wasn't considered good unless he was good in all phases of football, they will enjoy watching Poillon.

Poillon is a six-footer who weighs 197 pounds, and came to the Redskins via little Canisius. He doesn't make the headlines as much as some of the specialists, yet in the average game he will:

Help back up the line.

Move into a defensive halfback position if the opposition gets pass happy.

Do all the team's punting.

Kick all the Redskin extra points.

Boot a field goal if their attack bogs down within field goal kicking distance. One of these, against the Pittsburgh Steelers, came with only 16 sizzling seconds left, and won the game for Washington, 17-14.

Carry the ball, from either the halfback or fullback slot.

Catch passes, a chore at which he is very fancy.

Block for other ball carriers.

All of which means he puts in a busy afternoon each Sunday, so busy that he's been the top scorer for the high scoring Redskins for three years.

Dobbs And Wedemeyer To Play In Baltimore

BALTIMORE, Nov. 17—Baltimore's Colts, now involved in a three-way tie for first place in the eastern division of the All-America Football Conference, will meet the Los Angeles Dons here Sunday.

The Dons will be led by Glenn Dobbs, who is currently leading the league in total offense. Dobbs will be aided and abetted in his ball-carrying and passing duties by Herman Wedemeyer, the Hawaiian flash, who gained All-America honors at St. Mary's College (Cal.) under his present coach, Jim Phelan.

Michigan Is Best Hoosier Team Says

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 17—(AP)—The Indiana poll by the narrowest of margins today picked Michigan as a better team than Notre Dame.

The two teams, both topheavy victors over Indiana this season, have dominated the Associated Press poll for two seasons. Michigan led comfortably this week.

Twenty-five Hoosiers who played against both gave Michigan the nod, 12-11, with two calling it a draw. The concensus was that Notre Dame has the better line and Michigan the better backfield. Indiana linemen favored Notre Dame and backs voted for Michigan.

LaSalle To Open Basketball Slate Here On Dec. 12

Frederick Team Is Explorer Opponent

Coach John Mullaney announced last night that the LaSalle High School Explorers basketball team will open a tentative 30-game schedule by playing St. John's of Frederick here at SS. Peter and Paul gym, Sunday, Dec. 12.

The team started practice Monday with approximately 35 boys reporting for the first drills. Coach Mullaney stated he would give the boys until the football players reported to round themselves into shape before he started cutting the squad. He expects the gridders, who will probably form the nucelus of the team, to be available for practice about Dec. 1.

The squad as a whole will be small but fast, Mullaney said, and although he has no definite ideas yet as to who will make the team he believes that prospects for a successful season appear to be good.

Two new teams have been added to the Explorer schedule this year with home and home games slated with St. Francis of Morgantown, W. Va. and Berlin-Brothersvalley, Pa.

LaSalle met the Berlin team in football here this year and will continue the rivalry in the hardwood court. St. Francis has been one of the ranking teams of the West Virginia area for many years.

Other home and home games are set with St. John's of Frederick, St. John's of Washington, D. C.; Altoona Catholic, Johnstown (Pa.), Catholic, Moorefield, W. Va., Fort Ashby, W. Va., Ridgeley, W. Louis' Eye Cut In Bivins Fight

Champ Not Bothered During Exhibition

CLEVELAND, Nov. 17—(AP)—Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland opened a cut above Joe Louis' left eye as the heavyweight champion resumed his exhibition tour in a no-decision six-rounder at the arena tonight before 10,086.

The wound was the same one he received in an exhibition with Johnny Shkor at Boston Nov. 8, when the two accidentally bumped heads.

Louis came into the ring wearing a small patch over his left eye as the wound had not healed completely Bivins opened the cut in the second round with a hard right hook.

The Cleveland negro tried to concentrate his attack upon the injury but Louis kept him away most of the time with left jabs. The injury bled slightly again in the fourth when Bivins connected with another right but at no time was Louis bothered.

The exhibition, with both fighters using 12-ounce gloves, instead of the regulation eight, was devoid of much action until the fifth when Louis suddenly opened up and drove Bivins to cover with a quick succession of lefts and rights.

Previously Bivins had done most of the leading but very seldom did he get close to Louis.

Referee Jackie David was empowered only to call a knockout or a technical knockout.

Football fans of the tri-state area will be given an opportunity to see college elevens in action here for the first time in many years when freshmen teams of West Virginia Univrsity and the University of Maryland collide tonight at the local stadium at 8 o'clock.

West Virginia and Maryland have met here in varsity basketball games in the past but football teams of the two schools will be tangling here for the first time.

Local interest in the game is centered in Joe Moss, former Ridgeley High School backfield star, who started the season playing fullback for the Little Terps and has become the first string left tackle of the junior split-T-ers from College Park. Joe tips the beam at 205 pounds and is 6 feet, 2 inches tall.

Cumberlanders On Squad

Three Cumberlanders may get a chance to "do their stuff" for Maryland in tonight's game. They are Bill Treiber, 225 pound tackle, who starred in football at Fort Hill and was outstanding in the shot put and javelin throw; Don Sensabaugh, ex-Fort Hill fullback, and Bill Ruehl, tackle.

Clarence Brawkley, long and lean Arizonian, who plays an end position, and kicks the extra points, will captain Coach Bill Meek's eleven.

Ed Modzelewski, who hails from Har-Brack, Pa., was named all-state halfback last year and runnerup as the Pennsylvania High School player of the year, is the Little Terps' big scoring threat. He's 6 feet tall, tips the beam at 202 and is heralded as another Lu Gambino.

Played With Marines

Ray Bender, guard, and Tackle Ed O'Connor performed for the championship Quantico Marine team while Tom Cosgrove, center, and Jack Brewster, quarterback, played for the championship Catholic High team in Philadelphia in 1947. O'Connor is 6-foot-4 and weighs 225 pounds. Harold "Buck" Early, starting halfback, hails from Hagerstown High School, where he proved a sensation as a ball-toter. Joe Tydings, Maryland lacrosse player, has developed into a promising end for the young Old Liners. The biggest boy on the squad is 18-year-old Clarence Fry of Reading, Pa., who stands 6-3 and tips the Toledo at 248.

Hott With Mounties

The best known player from this section on the West Virginia roster is George Hott, fullback, who starred for the Moorefield High School Yellow Jackets for several seasons. Charley Geis, an end from Beall High, Frostburg, and Tom Harden, wingman from Martinsburg, W. Va., are also members of the Morgantown squad.

Leonard Barnum is head coach of the team and his assistants are Charles (Pete) Yost and Chester Spelock. Yost is a member of the staff of the School of Physical Education and Athletics. Spelock, regular varsity end last year, is in graduate school.

All-staters in the fold are Dick Davis, 185 pound end from Beckley; Harry Lewis, tackle, Weirton, and Jim Danter, guard, from Stonewall Jackson High, Charleston.

The Little Mountaineers are reported to be well grounded in the T-formation and they've shown great improvement over the 1947 team who tied one and lost three games.

Best Talent Since 1940

This is Barnum's first year as freshman mentor after a year as varsity backfield tutor. He started out with a squad of 63 players which packs more talent than has matriculated to the Morgantown campus since 1940—which should be pleasing news to Dudley DeGroot whose varsity team has done exceptionally well this season.

The game is being sponsored by Cumberland Council, Knights of Columbus, with Jim Browning and Paul Nose acting as co-chairman of the committee on arrangements, and should attract a good-sized crowd to the hilltop stadium.

Two Bands Will Play

Bands of Fort Hill and Allegany high schools will play before the game and during intermission.

Officials will be John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh, Ed Milbrada, John Blough and William P. Hahn, all of this city.

Draft Is Aiding Army Grid Teams

May Be Reason For Cadets' High Rating

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—(INS)—The roistering runs of bottle-leg Bobby Stuart can be said to have had a certain bearing on the situation.

So have the through-the-middle thrusts of Gil Stephenson, the quarterbacking of Arnold Galiffa and the coaching of a man named Earl "Red" Blaik.

But, on the word today of not a few frustrated rivals, the growing answer to the Army's No. 3 rating in the national football lists behind Michigan and Notre Dame is a gadget, a gimmick; a so-called "12th man in the line up," namely:

The peace-time draft.

They say it's becoming, far and away, the best talent-scout in the history of West Point football. Its quarry is any guy with enough brawn and scholastic credits—and no particular hankering for life in a GI pup-tent.

It is added that, in the circumstances, campus recruiting elsewhere is likely to have a somewhat prefunctory appeal to the earnest young footballer, seeking to forge his way to eminence with might and main.

Navy Has New Plays For Army Contest

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Nov. 17—(AP)—Coach George Sauer promised tonight that winless Navy will come up with some secret plays against unbeaten Army at Philadelphia Nov. 27.

"We're going to have a few new plays and some variations to throw against them," Sauer said after the Midshipmen went through a blocking and tackling drill.

The squad also heard a report—mostly gloomy—on Army's personnel, formations and plays, and alleged weak points thereof.

Navy's pass defense was also reviewed with an eye to corrective measures.

Full-scale scrimmages start tomorrow with a test against the junior varsity, to be followed on Friday by an intra-squad scrimmage.

Campus Campaigns For Notre Dame Tilt

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 17—(AP) —A campus movement was underway today to bring the University of Michigan and Notre Dame together again on the football field.

Petitions, the source of which was not apparent, were posted in campus buildings. They called on Michigan to play Notre Dame "on any Friday, Saturday or Monday, anywhere." They suggested the rivalry be resumed no later than 1949.

Allegany Team Tops St. Patrick, 33-0

The Allegany Eighth Grade football team won its second straight victory yesterday at Campobello by defeating St. Patrick's 33-0 in a Catholic Youth Organization contest.

Fullback Charles "Chuck" Eirick was the star for the winners tallying 19 points.

The Young Campers will play undefeated St. Mary's in the battle for first place in the league in a Friday night tilt as the preliminary to the LaSalle-Romney game at Fort Hill stadium.

Becomes The Ninth Recipient Of Honor

Played With Marines

Ray Bender, guard, and Tackle Ed O'Connor performed for the championship Quantico Marine team while Tom Cosgrove, center, and Jack Brewster, quarterback, played for the championship Catholic High team in Philadelphia in 1947. O'Connor is 6-foot-4 and weighs 225 pounds. Harold "Buck" Early, starting halfback, hails from Hagerstown High School, where he proved a sensation as a ball-toter. Joe Tydings, Maryland lacrosse player, has developed into a promising end for the young Old Liners. The biggest boy on the squad is 18-year-old Clarence Fry of Reading, Pa., who stands 6-3 and tips the Toledo at 248.

Hott With Mounties

The best known player from this section on the West Virginia roster is George Hott, fullback, who starred for the Moorefield High School Yellow Jackets for several seasons. Charley Geis, an end from Beall High, Frostburg, and Tom Harden, wingman from Martinsburg, W. Va., are also members of the Morgantown squad.

Leonard Barnum is head coach of the team and his assistants are Charles (Pete) Yost and Chester Spelock. Yost is a member of the staff of the School of Physical Education and Athletics. Spelock, regular varsity end last year, is in graduate school.

All-staters in the fold are Dick Davis, 185 pound end from Beckley; Harry Lewis, tackle, Weirton, and Jim Danter, guard, from Stonewall Jackson High, Charleston.

The Little Mountaineers are reported to be well grounded in the T-formation and they've shown great improvement over the 1947 team who tied one and lost three games.

Best Talent Since 1940

This is Barnum's first year as freshman mentor after a year as varsity backfield tutor. He started out with a squad of 63 players which packs more talent than has matriculated to the Morgantown campus since 1940—which should be pleasing news to Dudley DeGroot whose varsity team has done exceptionally well this season.

The game is being sponsored by Cumberland Council, Knights of Columbus, with Jim Browning and Paul Nose acting as co-chairman of the committee on arrangements, and should attract a good-sized crowd to the hilltop stadium.

Two Bands Will Play

Bands of Fort Hill and Allegany high schools will play before the game and during intermission.

Officials will be John J. "Bobby" Cavanaugh, Ed Milbrada, John Blough and William P. Hahn, all of this city.

Draft Is Aiding Army Grid Teams

May Be Reason For Cadets' High Rating

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—(INS)—The roistering runs of bottle-leg Bobby Stuart can be said to have had a certain bearing on the situation.

So have the through-the-middle thrusts of Gil Stephenson, the quarterbacking of Arnold Galiffa and the coaching of a man named Earl "Red" Blaik.

But, on the word today of not a few frustrated rivals, the growing answer to the Army's No. 3 rating in the national football lists behind Michigan and Notre Dame is a gadget, a gimmick; a so-called "12th man in the line up," namely: The peace-time draft.

They say it's becoming, far and away, the best talent-scout in the history of West Point football. Its quarry is any guy with enough brawn and scholastic credits—and no particular hankering for life in a GI pup-tent.

It is added that, in the circumstances, campus recruiting elsewhere is likely to have a somewhat prefunctory appeal to the earnest young footballer, seeking to forge his way to eminence with might and main.

Louis' Eye Cut In Bivins Fight

Champ Not Bothered During Exhibition

CLEVELAND, Nov. 17—(AP)—Jimmy Bivins of Cleveland opened a cut above Joe Louis' left eye as the heavyweight champion resumed his exhibition tour in a no-decision six-rounder at the arena tonight before 10,086.

The wound was the same one he received in an exhibition with Johnny Shkor at Boston Nov. 8, when the two accidentally bumped heads.

Louis came into the ring wearing a small patch over his left eye as the wound had not healed completely Bivins opened the cut in the second round with a hard right hook.

The Cleveland negro tried to concentrate his attack upon the injury but Louis kept him away most of the time with left jabs. The injury bled slightly again in the fourth when Bivins connected with another right but at no time was Louis bothered.

The exhibition, with both fighters using 12-ounce gloves, instead of the regulation eight, was devoid of much action until the fifth when Louis suddenly opened up and drove Bivins to cover with a quick succession of lefts and rights.

Previously Bivins had done most of the leading but very seldom did he get close to Louis.

Referee Jackie David was empowered only to call a knockout or a technical knockout.

Redskins Have Ace All-Around Gridder

Dick Poillon Plays All Phases Of Game

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17 (AP)—This is the age of football specialization. It's an age when there's a man to kick extra points. And a man to hold the ball for the man to kick extra points.

So it's a relief to talk about Dick Poillon of the Washington Redskins.

You might say he specializes in doing a little of everything, which brings us right back to the place where football started.

The Redskins play the Eagles in Philadelphia Sunday for the leadership of the Eastern Division in the National Football League.

And if there are any oldtimers in the audience, who can remember 'way back when a football player wasn't considered good unless he was good in all phases of football, they will enjoy watching Poillon.

Poillon is a six-footer who weighs 197 pounds, and came to the Redskins via little Canisius. He doesn't make the headlines as much as some of the specialists, yet in the average game he will:

Help back up the line.

Move into a defensive halfback position if the opposition gets pass happy.

Do all the team's punting.

Kick all the Redskin extra points.

Boot a field goal if their attack bogs down within field goal kicking distance. One of these, against the Pittsburgh Steelers, came with only 16 sizzling seconds left, and won the game for Washington, 17-14.

Carry the ball, from either the halfback or fullback slot.

Catch passes, a chore at which he is very fancy.

Block for other ball carriers.

All of which means he puts in a busy afternoon each Sunday, so busy that he's been the top scorer for the high scoring Redskins for three years.

Michigan Is Best Hoosier Team Says

BLOOMINGTON, Ind., Nov. 17—(AP)—The Indiana poll by the narrowest of margins today picked Michigan as a better team than Notre Dame.

The two teams, both topheavy victors over Indiana this season, have dominated the Associated Press poll for two seasons. Michigan led comfortably this week.

Twenty-five Hoosiers who played against both gave Michigan the nod, 12-11, with two calling it a draw. The concensus was that Notre Dame has the better line and Michigan the better backfield. Indiana linemen favored Notre Dame and backs voted for Michigan.

St. Bonaventure Plays St. Vincent's Sunday

It will be the 14th meeting of the teams. The Bonnies hold a 6-5 edge in wins. Two games ended in ties.

Savannah Fight Head Wants Bill Conn Barred

Savannah, Ga., Nov. 17—(INS)—Leon Collins, secretary of the Savannah Boxing Commission, today attempted to have Billy Conn barred from the ring because he reneged on a verbal agreement to fight in Savannah tomorrow night.

Collins said he wired the National Boxing Association asking that Conn and Sol Winegroff, a Macon, Ga., boxing promoter, both be suspended.

He claims Conn and Winegroff agreed to the Savannah fight following a fight in Macon last Monday. Conn, according to Collins, telephoned to report he could not fill his agreement because of an "injured hand."

Collins quoted Dr. A. M. Phillips, Macon Athletic Association physician, as saying that Conn had suffered no hand injury.

Teaching Of Bible Is Approved Conditionally In Hardy Schools

MOOREFIELD, W. Va.—Miss Mae Gwen Matthews, commercial teacher at Moorefield High School, gave a demonstration of her work at the Parent-Teacher meeting Monday night at the graded school. The programs for the meeting for the year will be built about the various departments of the high school and Miss Matthews presented some of her students, showing how they were taught the advantages of trained typing, and some of the things taught in office practice.

Mrs. R. E. Fisher prefaced the program by listing what employers wanted in commercial graduates. Miss Ann Calhoun, Miss Mary Cowger, Miss Pat Grafton and Miss Rebecca Doman gave demonstrations of various phases of training. Rev. Charles Kernan assisted as the "hunt and peck" expert. Mrs. Kernan and Miss Blanche Hinkle took letters in short hand and long hand, demonstrating speed and space saved. Miss Joan Didawick led the members of the organization in the salute to the flag at the beginning of the program.

During the business session which followed the program, Lacy Cochran, member of the Finance Committee, presented a budget of $200 for the organization, and suggested various means for the raising of this money. The organization decided to have a womanless wedding, the committee to be appointed later.

Mrs. L. R. Grover reported for the committee who investigated the matter of teaching Bible in the schools. A ruling from the Board of Education was given as follows:

"Bible teaching in the public schools of Hardy County is approved by the Board of Education of the county of Hardy under the following conditions:

"That it be established and maintained at no cost to the Board of Education.

"That a committee or council of non-faculty people be established to organize, administer, formulate administrative and educational policies, and administer the program generally.

"That all churches in the school community be invited to representation on the committee or council.

"That principals or teachers find it possible to schedule Bible classes in the program of the school so that school opportunities, of pupils not taking said course, will in no way be jeopardized. The regular class schedule shall be followed by the school regardless of the size of the group not taking the Bible class.

"Pupils will be released to enroll in the Bible class only on request of parent or guardian. This request to be made in writing to teacher or principal.

"That pupils be released from the school to report to Bible classes set up in churches or whatever center is chosen by the committee, and that the Board of Education or the school will in no way be held responsible for the welfare and safety of pupils while released to attend said classes."

The Parent-Teacher Association voted to continue the study of the problem and a committee was appointed to complete plans for teaching. Mrs. L. R. Grover was appointed general chairman. Irvin Bowman and Harlan M. Calhoun were named on the committee for facilities; S. P. Hawse and Mrs. John St. Clair, standards for teachers; Rev. J. B. Dryfield and Rev. Charles Kernan, Miss Ella Bergdoll and Miss Mae Gwen Matthews, committee for materials and textbooks. These committee members will make up the council.

Mrs. Wade Stickley's room had the most parents present when the count was taken.

Mrs. R. M. Gamble and Miss Mildred Racey served refreshments after the meeting.

26-Inch Gas Line To Be Laid In Hardy County

To Be Completed In About 1950

MOOREFIELD, W. Va.—Workmen with the Atlantic Seaboard Corporation are engaged in the preliminary work for the laying of a 26-inch gas line which will run through the southern end of Hardy County.

The huge gas main originates near Charleston and will connect with the gas line network which serves Washington, Philadelphia and New York at Rockville, Md.

The line comes into Hardy County near Peru, following the stream at Brake Falls, follows Howard's Creek into Mathias, continues into the Cove and goes into Virginia at North Mountain. The main will be buried 24 inches below the surface.

Three crews of workmen will lay the gas main and the work will be completed in about 1950. In addition to the Atlantic Seaboard Corporation activities, United Fuel and Gas Company, has equipment in Hardy County. Both companies are subsidiaries of the Columbia Gas Company.

Workmen in the crew with headquarters temporarily at Moorefield, have a seventy-mile stretch of the line to install, starting at Elkins and going to the Virginia Line.

Rights-of-way for the lines have been secured in Hardy County and the work will continue until completion of the job. Service to Moorefield is not contemplated in the work.

Teaching Of Bible Is Approved Conditionally In Hardy Schools

MOOREFIELD, W. Va.—Miss Mae Gwen Matthews, commercial teacher at Moorefield High School, gave a demonstration of her work at the Parent-Teacher meeting Monday night at the graded school. The programs for the meeting for the year will be built about the various departments of the high school and Miss Matthews presented some of her students, showing how they were taught the advantages of trained typing, and some of the things taught in office practice.

Mrs. R. E. Fisher prefaced the program by listing what employers wanted in commercial graduates. Miss Ann Calhoun, Miss Mary Cowger, Miss Pat Grafton and Miss Rebecca Doman gave demonstrations of various phases of training. Rev. Charles Kernan assisted as the "hunt and peck" expert. Mrs. Kernan and Miss Blanche Hinkle took letters in short hand and long hand, demonstrating speed and space saved. Miss Joan Didawick led the members of the organization in the salute to the flag at the beginning of the program.

During the business session which followed the program, Lacy Cochran, member of the Finance Committee, presented a budget of $200 for the organization, and suggested various means for the raising of this money. The organization decided to have a womanless wedding, the committee to be appointed later.

Mrs. L. R. Grover reported for the committee who investigated the matter of teaching Bible in the schools. A ruling from the Board of Education was given as follows:

"Bible teaching in the public schools of Hardy County is approved by the Board of Education of the county of Hardy under the following conditions:

"That it be established and maintained at no cost to the Board of Education.

"That a committee or council of non-faculty people be established to organize, administer, formulate administrative and educational policies, and administer the program generally.

"That all churches in the school community be invited to representation on the committee or council.

"That principals or teachers find it possible to schedule Bible classes in the program of the school so that school opportunities of pupils not taking said course, will in no way be jeopardized. The regular class schedule shall be followed by the school regardless of the size of the group not taking the Bible class.

"Pupils will be released to enroll in the Bible class only on request of parent or guardian. This request to be made in writing to teacher or principal.

"That pupils be released from the school to report to Bible classes set up in churches or whatever center is chosen by the committee, and that the Board of Education or the school will in no way be held responsible for the welfare and safety of pupils while released to attend said classes."

The Parent-Teacher Association voted to continue the study of the problem and a committee was appointed to complete plans for teaching. Mrs. L. R. Grover was appointed general chairman. Irvin Bowman and Harlan M. Calhoun were named on the committee for facilities; S. P. Hawse and Mrs. John St. Clair, standards for teachers; Rev. J. B. Dryfield and Rev. Charles Kernan, Miss Ella Bergdoll and Miss Mae Gwen Matthews, committee for materials and textbooks. These committee members will make up the council.

26-Inch Gas Line To Be Laid In Hardy County

To Be Completed In About 1950

MOOREFIELD, W. Va.—Workmen with the Atlantic Seaboard Corporation are engaged in the preliminary work for the laying of a 26-inch gas line which will run through the southern end of Hardy County.

The huge gas main originates near Charleston and will connect with the gas line network which serves Washington, Philadelphia and New York at Rockville, Md.

The line comes into Hardy County near Peru, following the stream at Brake Falls, follows Howard's Creek into Mathias, continues into the Cove and goes into Virginia at North Mountain. The main will be buried 24 inches below the surface.

Three crews of workmen will lay the gas main and the work will be completed in about 1950. In addition to the Atlantic Seaboard Corporation activities, United Fuel and Gas Company, has equipment in Hardy County. Both companies are subsidiaries of the Columbia Gas Company.

Workmen in the crew with headquarters temporarily at Moorefield, have a seventy-mile stretch of the line to install, starting at Elkins and going to the Virginia Line.

Rights-of-way for the lines have been secured in Hardy County and the work will continue until completion of the job. Service to Moorefield is not contemplated in the work.

Commission Gives Land Appraisals For Road Work

KEYSER, W. Va.—A five-man commission yesterday reported on its appraisal of three parcels of land sought for relocation of part of the Headsville Road. Work on the road began several months ago.

The commissioners were named in Mineral County Circuit Court early this month to determine just compensation for land sought by the West Virginia State Roads Commission for the work.

They are John E. Umstot, Frank J. Jones, A. S. A. Holsinger, Albert L. Sites and Harry Cumberledge.

Appraisals were $150 for 0.26 acres owned by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller; $750 for 1.7 acres owned by Samuel A. Fleek, and $262.50 for 0.33 acres owned by Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Logsdon.

Action by the Circuit Court became necessary when the owners of parcels of land condemned last June contested the price of the land set by another group of commissioners.

They asked that new appraisers be appointed, charging that the former commission was "misadvised and acting under prejudiced circumstances" because of relationship to the parties interested in settling the case. Commissioners who made the original appraisal were C. I. Homan, S. S. Smith, Russell Stickley and G. H. Ebert.

Original appraisals made were as follows: $250 for the land owned by Millers; $650 for the land owned by Fleek, and $225 for the land owned by Logsdons. An appraisal of $50 for 0.25 of an acre was accepted by Thomas P. Liller and Helen E. Liller, his wife.

N. Howard Rogers, attorney for the land owners, could not be reached yesterday for a statement as to whether the new appraisals had been accepted.

Commission Gives Land Appraisals For Road Work

KEYSER, W. Va.—A five-man commission yesterday reported on its appraisal of three parcels of land sought for relocation of part of the Headsville Road. Work on the road began several months ago.

The commissioners were named in Mineral County Circuit Court early this month to determine just compensation for land sought by the West Virginia State Roads Commission for the work.

They are John E. Umstot, Frank J. Jones, A. S. A. Holsinger, Albert L. Sites and Harry Cumberledge.

Appraisals were $150 for 0.26 acres owned by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller; $750 for 1.7 acres owned by Samuel A. Fleek, and $262.50 for 0.33 acres owned by Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Logsdon.

Action by the Circuit Court became necessary when the owners of parcels of land condemned last June contested the price of the land set by another group of commissioners.

They asked that new appraisers be appointed, charging that the former commission was "misadvised and acting under prejudiced circumstances" because of relationship to the parties interested in settling the case. Commissioners who made the original appraisal were C. I. Homan, S. S. Smith, Russell Stickley and G. H. Ebert.

Original appraisals made were as follows: $250 for the land owned by Millers; $650 for the land owned by Fleek, and $225 for the land owned by Logsdons. An appraisal of $50 for 0.25 of an acre was accepted by Thomas P. Liller and Helen E. Liller, his wife.

N. Howard Rogers, attorney for the land owners, could not be reached yesterday for a statement as to whether the new appraisals had been accepted.

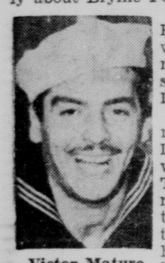
KEEPING UP WITH

HOLLYWOOD

By LOUELLA PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 17—(INS)—There have been a lot of jokes lately about Brynie Foy.



Victor Mature

Two days after President Truman was elected, Brynie found his studio, Eagle-Lion, closed.

Brynie is a rootin', tootin' Democrat, and was 100 per cent Truman. Well, now Brynie has the laugh on those who kidded him. He's got a bankroll from New York, and starts work in January on "Secret Service U.S.A."

The bankers were influenced by "They Walk By Night," Brynie's last, which is as swell a mystery melodrama as we've ever had on the screen. It's a semi-documentary film.

Richard Basehart, who was starred as the unique killer, again will be with Producer Foy, this time on the side of law and order. Much of the picture will be shot in Washington, Toronto and New York.

Among the remaining independent producers not beating their heads against the wailing wall are the Messrs. William and Edward Nassour who speak up to announce three productions at their own studio for 1949.

If you are wondering how these boys, who just started "Africa Screams" with Abbott and Costello, were able to nab a bankroll, I'll tell you: William Nassour is chairman of the board of a Hollywood bank. In other words, a banker with plenty of his own dough.

It did my heart good to have Marion Davies stop in at my house the other day at tea time. She looked so beautiful that some of her friends who hadn't seen her for a long time were delighted.

Moreover, she has received two offers to return to the movies and for television. Mike Curtiz asked her if she would be interested in his next picture at Warners, and Hal Roach, who is going into television extensively, asked Marion to do a television series for him. But my girl friend said that while she's very flattered, she has retired.

I constantly marvel at the way Marion does nice things for people and then never wants anyone to mention it.

The gala first night in Paris of "Satan Rejects the World" brought out Norma Shearer, her husband, Marty Arrouge, and Barbara Hutton with Prince Troubetzkoy, guests of David Sukels. Barbara was reported as looking very well after her long, serious illness.

The play, by Maurice Dekobra, has all Paris talking. The ironic theme is that the world is so wicked now, even Satan doesn't want the warmongers or those who exploit the innocent. Dekobra's former equally controversial play was "Madonna of the Sleeping Car."

Chatter in Hollywood: If Vic Mature doesn't want those rumors floating around that he and his wife are at the breaking point, he shouldn't choose a prominent cafe in which to have a quarrel. At least five people telephoned after he and Dorothy had such an argument that people at the other tables heard them fighting.

•—•—•

Many actors having a dull season, with so many studios barely operating—but not Phil Reed. He goes into his fifth picture this year in "Manhandle," with Dottie Lamour.

And I don't believe this is all due to luck. Phil is not only one of the best looking boys around town, he is one of the least temperamental and demanding.

I'd heard so much about Paul Christian, the Swiss actor who arrived here about three months ago, that I was very happy to meet him and to see for myself that he is tall, good looking and attractive.

His first assignment is at Universal-International in "Bagdad," which he will make with Yvonne De Carlo.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Joan Crawford is home from Presbyterian hospital, but she's disconnected her telephone so she can have a complete rest.

Eddie Arnold is going into the ham business—only for Christmas, however. Eddie is heading a committee for a dinner celebrating Montgomery's 20 years in pictures. I am very happy I was asked to be on the committee with Walter Wanger, Jimmy Stewart and James Cagney.

Judy Garland made such a hit on Bing Crosby's broadcast that she's been signed to do five more. The way that Judy sings, bless her, and the way she brings them into the box office!

That's all today.

HOLLYWOOD

By LOUELLA PARSONS

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 17—(INS)—There have been a lot of jokes lately about Brynie Foy.

Victor Mature

Two days after President Truman was elected, Brynie found his studio, Eagle-Lion, closed.

Brynie is a rootin', tootin' Democrat, and was 100 per cent Truman. Well, now Brynie has the laugh on those who kidded him. He's got a bankroll from New York, and starts work in January on "Secret Service U.S.A."

The bankers were influenced by "They Walk By Night," Brynie's last, which is as swell a mystery melodrama as we've ever had on the screen. It's a semi-documentary film.

Richard Basehart, who was starred as the unique killjer, again will be with Producer Foy, this time on the side of law and order. Much of the picture will be shot in Washington, Toronto and New York.

• — • — •

Among the remaining independent producers not beating their heads against the wailing wall are the Messrs. William and Edward Nassour who speak up to announce three productions at their own studio for 1949.

If you are wondering how these boys, who just started "Africa Screams" with Abbott and Costello, were able to nab a bankroll, I'll tell you: William Nassour is chairman of the board of a Hollywood bank. In other words, a banker with plenty of his own dough.

It did my heart good to have Marion Davies stop in at my house the other day at tea time. She looked so beautiful that some of her friends who hadn't seen her for a long time were delighted.

Moreover, she has received two offers to return to the movies and for television. Mike Curtiz asked her if she would be interested in his next picture at Warners, and Hal Roach, who is going into television extensively, asked Marion to do a television series for him. But my girl friend said that while she's very flattered, she has retired.

I constantly marvel at the way Marion does nice things for people and then never wants anyone to mention it.

The gala first night in Paris of "Satan Rejects the World" brought out Norma Shearer, her husband, Marty Arrouge, and Barbara Hutton with Prince Troubetzkoy, guests of David Sukels. Barbara was reported as looking very well after her long, serious illness.

The play, by Maurice Dekobra, has all Paris talking. The ironic theme is that the world is so wicked now, even Satan doesn't want the warmongers or those who exploit the innocent. Dekobra's former equally controversial play was "Madonna of the Sleeping Car."

• — • — •

Chatter in Hollywood: If Vic Mature doesn't want those rumors floating around that he and his wife are at the breaking point, he shouldn't choose a prominent cafe in which to have a quarrel. At least five people telephoned after he and Dorothy had such an argument that people at the other tables heard them fighting.

• — • — •

Many actors having a dull season, with so many studios barely operating—but not Phil Reed. He goes into his fifth picture this year in "Manhandle," with Dottie Lamour.

And I don't believe this is all due to luck. Phil is not only one of the best looking boys around town, he is one of the least temperamental and demanding.

• — • — •

I'd heard so much about Paul Christian, the Swiss actor who arrived here about three months ago, that I was very happy to meet him and to see for myself that he is tall, good looking and attractive.

His first assignment is at Universal-International in "Bagdad," which he will make with Yvonne De Carlo.

Snapshots of Hollywood collected at random:

Joan Crawford is home from Presbyterian hospital, but she's disconnected her telephone so she can have a complete rest.

Eddie Arnold is going into the ham business—only for Christmas, however. Eddie is heading a committee for a dinner celebrating Montgomery's 20 years in pictures.

I am very happy I was asked to be on the committee with Walter Wanger, Jimmy Stewart and James Cagney.

Judy Garland made such a hit on Bing Crosby's broadcast that she's been signed to do five more. The way that Judy sings, bless her, and the way she brings them into the box office!

That's all today.

RADIO IN REVIEW

By JOHN CROSBY

What Ever Happened to the Bad Boy?

The closest thing we have around to Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer—and it's pretty distant—is Henry Aldrich and Homer, which proves how boyhood has degenerated since I was a boy. Boyhood—let's face it squarely—has been going down hill for years but it's come to a pretty pass when its archetypes are Henry and Homer and Oogie Pringle and Archie Andrews.

John Crosby

When I was young, roughly around the twelfth century, the blue print of my deportment was drawn to scale by Huck and Tom and Penrod and the hero of "The Story of a Bad Boy," whose name I've forgotten. (I missed "Peck's Bad Boy" entirely. Different generation, I guess.) Those three provided an outline of general hell-raising that any boy could be proud of.

Judging from the radio, the lads still get into mischief (a word we wouldn't be caught dead with) but they never get into it deliberately. The difference is one of intent, and that's where a boy's character is formed, which is why I think the education of our sons is in incapable hands. When Huck and Tom ran away from home, when the Bad Boy (what was that kid's name anyway?) blew up the village cannon, they knew what they were doing. In both cases there were unexpected consequences, but the sense of wrongdoing was present from the outset. They were active little fiends, destined to be captains of industry when they grew up.

For Homer and Henry and Oogie and Archie, I see no hope whatever of future brilliance. Week after week, they get into one jam after another, always by accident, never by design. They're the victims. In Huck's day somebody else was the victim.

Modern boys—and I'm judging by Oogie and company—are a bunch of namby pambies. They never try to get into trouble. They try to stay out of it. But, with the best intentions in the world, they stick their elbows through windows, they fall flat on their faces in front of their best girls. Always they're crossed by circumstance or the idiosyncrasies of adults. What I object to is that they're trying so hard to be good. And they generally are foiled by their own stupidity.

What sort of example is that to hold up before a young boy? Penrod and Huck and Tom slipped once in awhile in the mires of boyhood but they were never stupid. They didn't put their feet in their mouths with such monotonous regularity. Their parents worried about them. Henry and Homer and Oogie and Archie worry about their parents. Also, the modern girl has got out of hand. There was a place in Penrod's life and in Tom Sawyer's life for girls but there was also a place where girls weren't allowed. The modern boy seems to have girls on the brain all day long.

I dunno. These adnoidal infants they got on the air don't sound quite bright or quite virile. Of course, you might argue that all these kids—Archie and Henry and Homer and Oogie—belong in the category of Tarkington's "Seventeen" rather than in the company of Huck Finn but they're the nearest thing we have to Huck.

They're aren't any Huck Finns in radio, the influence probably of mothers craving respectability. I'm against it. A couple of Huck Finns would be a lot better for the kids than Captain Midnight, Superman or Tom Mix.

They're wasn't any real harm in Tom and Huck. They were just harum scarum.

Radio In Review

By JOHN CROSBY

What Ever Happened to the Bad Boy?

John Crosby

The closest thing we have around to Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer—and it's pretty distant—is Henry Aldrich and Homer, which proves how boyhood has degenerated since I was a boy. Boyhood—let's face it squarely—has been going down hill for years but it's come to a pretty pass when its archetypes are Henry and Homer and Oogie Pringle and Archie Andrews.

When I was young, roughly around the twelfth century, the blue print of my deportment was drawn to scale by Huck and Tom and Penrod and the hero of "The Story of a Bad Boy," whose name I've forgotten. (I missed "Peck's Bad Boy" entirely. Different generation, I guess.) Those three provided an outline of general hell-raising that any boy could be proud of.

Judging from the radio, the lads still get into mischief (a word we wouldn't be caught dead with) but they never get into it deliberately. The difference is one of intent, and that's where a boy's character is formed, which is why I think the education of our sons is in incapable hands. When Huck and Tom ran away from home, when the Bad Boy (what was that kid's name anyway?) blew up the village cannon, they knew what they were doing. In both cases there were unexpected consequences, but the sense of wrongdoing was present from the outset. They were active little fiends, destined to be captains of industry when they grew up.

For Homer and Henry and Oogie and Archie, I see no hope whatever of future brilliance. Week after week, they get into one jam after another, always by accident, never by design. They're the victims. In Huck's day somebody else was the victim.

Modern boys—and I'm judging by Oogie and company—are a bunch of namby pambies. They never try to get into trouble. They try to stay out of it. But, with the best intentions in the world, they stick their elbows through windows, they fall flat on their faces in front of their best girls. Always they're crossed by circumstance or the idiosyncrasies of adults. What I object to is that they're trying so hard to be good. And they generally are foiled by their own stupidity.

What sort of example is that to hold up before a young boy? Penrod and Huck and Tom slipped once in awhile in the mires of boyhood but they were never stupid. They didn't put their feet in their mouths with such monotonous regularity. Their parents worried about them. Henry and Homer and Oogie and Archie worry about their parents. Also, the modern girl has got out of hand. There was a place in Penrod's life and in Tom Sawyer's life for girls but there was also a place where girls weren't allowed. The modern boy seems to have girls on the brain all day long.

I dunno. These adnoidal infants they got on the air don't sound quite bright or quite virile. Of course, you might argue that all these kids—Archie and Henry and Homer and Oogie—belong in the category of Tarkington's "Seventeen" rather than in the company of Huck Finn but they're the nearest thing we have to Huck.

They're aren't any Huck Finns in radio, the influence probably of mothers craving respectability. I'm against it. A couple of Huck Finns would be a lot better for the kids than Captain Midnight, Superman or Tom Mix.

They're wasn't any real harm in Tom and Huck. They were just harum scarum.

DAILY CRYPTOQUOTE—Here's how to work it:

A X Y D L B A A X B
is L O N G F E L L O W

One letter simply stands for another. In this example A is used for the three L's, X for the two O's, etc. Single letters, apostrophes, the length and formation of the words are all hints. Each day the code letters are different.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and Father, John L. Fogle, who passed away six years ago today, November 18, 1942.

Somewhere back of the sunset
Where loveliness never dies,
He lives in the land of glory.
With the blue and gold of the skies.
And we who have known and loved him,
Whose passing has brought sad tears,
Will cherish his memory always, to
Brighten the passing years.
Keep him, dear Lord, till we reach the shore,
Then let us have him to love once more.

Sadly missed by his Mother and Son.

In loving memory of our son and brother, Pfc. Coyle Joseph O'Neal, who passed away five years ago, November 17, 1943.

There is a home not made by hands;
Beyond its golden door
Awaits the one who's now away,
Not lost . . . just gone before.
And in that home not made by hands
The Master will prepare
A place for us, and when He calls
We'll meet our loved one there.

Sadly missed by his Mother, Father, Brothers and Sisters.

In memory of Frances (Bone) Hunter, who died eleven years ago, November 18, 1937.

Today our hearts are heavy; our thoughts are all of thee,
Oft, how we miss you, Frances, dear, but God in heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart, but no, it isn't true,
For eleven long years have passed, dear, and our hearts still ache for you.

Sadly missed by her, Mother, Father, Brothers and Children—Billy and Waneta.

In memory of my beloved husband, Howard Kerns, who died November 18, 1947.

There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each must pass alone,
Beyond this gate my loved one lies,
His heart and soul at rest.

There's not a day that passes, dear,
I do not think of you,
Your loving face is still in my memory,
Your voice and footsteps too.

There's many a lonely heartache,
There's many a lonely tear,
No one but God alone knows how much
I miss you at the end of the first year.

Sadly missed by his wife, Hazel Kerns.

In loving memory of my little daughter, Judy Ann, who died four years ago, Nov. 12, 1944.

My little girl would now be a lady,
If God had not called her from me,
But I'll always remember my baby.
We had her just a short time, you see,
She will always be with me
No matter where I roam,
And I know that she is happy
In her wonderful new Heaven home.

Remembered dearly by her Daddy, Sam White, USAF
Walker Air Force Base
Rosewell, New Mexico.

Card of Thanks

We take this means to thank our friends and neighbors who were so kind to us during our bereavement, the death of William Lawrence McFarland. We also wish to thank the pallbearers and friends who loaned cars for the funeral.

Mrs. W. J. McFarland & Family.

In Memoriam

In loving memory of our dear son and Father, John L. Fogle, who passed away six years ago today, November 18, 1942.

Somewhere back of the sunset
Where loveliness never dies,
He lives in the land of glory,
With the blue and gold of the skies.
And we who have known and loved him,
Whose passing has brought sad tears,
Will cherish his memory always, to
Brighten the passing years.
Keep him, dear Lord, till we reach the shore,
Then let us have him to love once more.

Sadly missed by his Mother and Son.

In loving memory of our son and brother, Pfc. Coyle Joseph O'Neal, who passed away five years ago, November 17, 1943.

There is a home not made by hands;
Beyond its golden door
Awaits the one who's now away,
Not lost . . . just gone before.
And in that home not made by hands
The Master will prepare
A place for us, and when He calls
We'll meet our loved one there.

Sadly missed by his Mother, Father, Brothers and Sisters.

In memory of Frances (Bone) Hunter, who died eleven years ago, November 18, 1937.

Today our hearts are heavy; our thoughts are all of thee,
Oh, how we miss you, Frances, dear, but God in heaven can see.
Some say time heals an aching heart, but no, it isn't true,
For eleven long years have passed, dear, and our hearts still ache for you.

Sadly missed by her, Mother, Father, Brothers and Children—Billy and Waneta.

In memory of my beloved husband, Howard Kerns, who died November 18, 1947.

There's an open gate at the end of the road,
Through which each must pass alone,
Beyond this gate my loved one lies,
His heart and soul at rest.

There's not a day that passes, dear,
I do not think of you,
Your loving face is still in my memory,
Your voice and footsteps too.

There's many a lonely heartache,
There's many a lonely tear,
No one but God alone knows how much
I miss you at the end of the first year.

Sadly missed by his wife, Hazel Kerns.

In loving memory of my little daughter, Judy Ann, who died four years ago, Nov. 12, 1944.

My little girl would now be a lady,
If God had not called her from me,
But I'll always remember my baby.
We had her just a short time, you see,
She will always be with me
No matter where I roam,
And I know that she is happy
In her wonderful new Heaven home.

Remembered dearly by her Daddy, Sam White, USAF
Walker Air Force Base
Rosewell, New Mexico.

Trade Volume Drops Below Million Mark For First Time This Month

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—(AP)—A late recovery checked an all-day retreat in the stock market today.

Losses of fractions to a point or more were well in the majority at the final bell but the widest declines of the session were trimmed in numerous cases.

It was the market's first average setback after a three-day advance.

Volume dropped below 1,000,000 shares for the first full session this month. The total of 970,000 shares compared with 1,060,000 Tuesday and was the smallest since October 29.

Trading was largely professional, with the general public still a little uneasy after the post-election break. Many deals represented switching from one issue to another or efforts to make a few dollars on quick turnover.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .2 of one point to 64.6. The rail group showed the widest loss while industrials and utilities did comparatively well.

Of the 1,003 issues which changed hands—the smallest for a full day in around a month—475 declined and 286 advanced.

Just before the close of a couple of Standard Gas & Electric issues put on a show of their own. The seven-dollar prior preferred jumped 5½ to 113 and the four-dollar preferred ran up 1⅜ to 20¾ following the decision of directors to ask the Securities & Exchange Commission for permission to pay dividends on the prior preference stocks.

Superior Oil of California jumped on the other side of the price fence. The stock ended nine lower at 150.

Some sample losers included U. S. Steel at 72¼, General Motors 59⅜, Chrysler 53⅜, Montgomery Ward 56¼, Deere 34¾, Douglas Aircraft 49, Distillers Corp. 16¼, American Telephone 151⅜, Consolidated Natural Gas 38½, Cerro De Pasco 21½, Westinghouse Electric 24⅜, Remington Rand 9¾ (a new 1948 low), Santa Fe 101, Southern Railway 41⅜, Illinois Central 30, Standard Oil (NJ) 72⅞, and Eastern Air Lines 14⅞.

Bond prices were irregular and the changes slight in the dullest market since October 18.

Sales totalled $2,960,000 as against Tuesday's $3,150,000.

U. S. Governments halted their advance for the first time since the election, closing unchanged to off three thirty-seconds of a point. The key bank-eligible 2½s of September 1976-72 eased three thirty-seconds of 101 22-32nds bid.

Trade Volume Drops Below Million Mark For First Time This Month

NEW YORK, Nov. 17—(AP)—A late recovery checked an all-day retreat in the stock market today.

Losses of fractions to a point or more were well in the majority at the final bell but the widest declines of the session were trimmed in numerous cases.

It was the market's first average setback after a three-day advance.

Volume dropped below 1,000,000 shares for the first full session this month. The total of 970,000 shares compared with 1,060,000 Tuesday and was the smallest since October 29.

Trading was largely professional, with the general public still a little uneasy after the post-election break. Many deals represented switching from one issue to another or efforts to make a few dollars on quick turnover.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .2 of one point to 64.6. The rail group showed the widest loss while industrials and utilities did comparatively well.

Of the 1,003 issues which changed hands—the smallest for a full day in around a month—475 declined and 286 advanced.

Just before the close of a couple of Standard Gas & Electric issues put on a show of their own. The seven-dollar prior preferred jumped 5½ to 113 and the four-dollar preferred ran up 1⅜ to 20⅝ following the decision of directors to ask the Securities & Exchange Commission for permission to pay dividends on the prior preference stocks.

Superior Oil of California jumped on the other side of the price fence. The stock ended nine lower at 150.

Some sample losers included U. S. Steel at 72½, General Motors 59⅜, Chrysler 53⅜, Montgomery Ward 56¼, Deere 34⅜, Douglas Aircraft 49, Distillers Corp. 16¼, American Telephone 151⅜, Consolidated Natural Gas 38½, Cerro De Pasco 21½, Westinghouse Electric 24⅜, Remington Rand 9⅜ (a new 1948 low), Santa Fe 101, Southern Railway 41⅜, Illinois Central 30, Standard Oil (NJ) 72⅞, and Eastern Air Lines 14⅞.

Bond prices were irregular and the changes slight in the dullest market since October 18.

Sales totalled $2,960,000 as against Tuesday's $3,150,000.

U. S. Governments halted their advance for the first time since the election, closing unchanged to off three thirty-seconds of a point. The key bank-eligible 2½s of September 1976-72 eased three thirty-seconds of 101 22-32nds bid.

Romney Suspect Admits Killing

Confesses He Shot Va. Man, Then Hid Body

Leads Police To Scene Of Killing

An Arlington, Va., man arested in Romney, W. Va., Monday "for suspicious action," last night was being held in Warrenton, Va., on a murder charge to which he confessed. Police said the murder victim was Belmont Woodridge, Arlington Funeral goods salesman.

Virginia authorities lodged the murder charge against James Nolan, 24, after he led police to a woods near Warrenton where Woodridge's body was found. Six .32 caliber bullets pierced the body, police declared.

The body was discovered about 70 feet from Route 960, some three and a half miles north of Warrenton. The victim had been missing since November 11.

West Virginia State Police Sgt. H. R. Shields said Nolan was taken into custody Monday after he created suspicion by spending over $100 in a couple of hours. He also flashed a .32 caliber revolver in a Romney garage.

Driving Woodridge's Car

After questioning the prisoner, Sgt. Shields said they learned that he was driving a stolen car registered in the name of Woodridge, and United States Savings Bonds totaling $2,050 made out to Woodridge were also found in Nolan's possession.

Nolan told authorities at the time that Woodridge was vacationing in Florida. He was returned to Virginia after waiving extraditon to face a larceny charge resulting from the theft of $500 from an Arlington cleaning establishment.

Sgt. Shields said the bonds, revolver, car and $148 in cash taken from Nolan are still in possession of State Police at Romney. The revolver gave evidence that it was fired in the past 10 days, authorities said.

Nolan attracted police attention in Romney after his spending spree, acording to police, who said he promised a garage attendant $5 for a "quick job" of installing a set of fog lights. The attendant told police Nolan took the revolver from the glove compartment while the work was being done.

Arlington Chief of Police Harry Woodyard said Nolan confessed to the killing, and also admitted returning to Woodridge's apartment which he looted. The killing occurred after Nolan left to drive to Cincinnati with Woodridge.

Police gave this account:

Nolan shot Woodridge as they stood along the road and then dragged the body back into the woods. Nolan then took the victim's car and drove back to Arlington.

Rifles Apartment

After robbing Woodridge's apartment, Nolan said he drove to Washington, D. C., where he spent several days before driving to Romney. West Virginia police said Nolan cashed $150 of the U. S. bonds while in Romney.

In his confession Nolan said he had agreed to buy two $8,000 automobiles from Woodridge and explained they were en route to Cincinnati to negotiate the purchase. The victim was an employe of the Sayles and Scoville Company, Cincinnati, but resided in Arlington since 1936. He was not married.

A murder charge was filed against Nolan, Chief Woodyard said, by Sheriff Sam Hall of Fauquier County. Woodridge's body was being held by Sheriff Hall at Warrenton.

Nolan first confessed to the slaying while being questioned about the theft of $500 from the Progressive Dry Cleaning Company, Arlington.

Police said he led them to the body, which was found covered over by some dried leaves. Nolan said he shot Woodridge when the salesman resisted as he attempted to take his automobile.

Woodridge was a graduate of Yale University. His closest known relative is Mrs. M. L. Rosensweig, Columbus, Miss. She is a sister. West Virginia authorities said the woman's name appeared as beneficiary on several of the bonds.

Robs Cleaning Plant

Arlington and Fauquier Counties authorities said Nolan admitted he was from Arlington, and West Virginia police said the prisoner told them he robbed the cleaning establishment after being employed there for three days.

Nolan was quoted by West Virginia police as saying he hid in the Progressive Dry Cleaning building until his employer locked the business for the day. He then took approximately $500 and fled, according to police.

Virginia medical authorities said Woodridge was fatally shot "on or about" November 11, the same day he was reported missing.

Nolan was returned to Fauquier County Jail, Warrenton, where he is being held pending grand jury action.

Local Man Fined In Assault Case Involving Woman

Victim Pleads For Shober's Freedom

Thirty-year-old Oscar Shober, 142 Frederick Street, yesterday was fined and given a suspended jail term on an assault charge after his victim told authorities "I don't want to see him go to jail."

Shober pleaded "nolo contendere" to the charge, which was preferred by Helen Anderson, 30, 930 Maryland Avenue, who complained to police at 2 a. m. and said the man struck her in the face while they were sitting in a parked car. Her eyes and nose were badly bruised.

The Anderson woman testified in court she met Shober in Bean's Cove, Pa., Tuesday night and returned to Cumberland with him and another passenger. The third party left the car when they arrived in the city.

Shober, according to the plaintiff, then drove his car down Canal Street and parked in the rear of the Western Maryland Railway freight shed. After conversing for a short time, the woman said Shober hit her in the face. He then drove her home, she told the court.

Shober and the injured woman stood in front of the magistrate's bench throughout the hearing and frequently exchanged smiling glances. She later told the court that she did not want to see him sent to jail.

Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti fined Shober $20 and suspended a 30-day jail sentence, on condition the prisoner pay the medical expenses incurred by the victim. They left court together.

Assistant State's Attorney Paul M. Fletcher prosecuted the case and told the court he would like to see Shober fined and given a suspended sentence on condition that he pay the medical expenses. His statement followed the woman's plea for Shober.

Edward J. Ryan, attorney, defended Shober and admitted that he should pay the medical costs, but asked the court not to impose a fine.

Shober was taken into custody at his home yesterday at 5 a. m. by Officers Harold Crawford and J. D. Daum. Both officers testified at the hearing and said Shober denied the charge when arrested.

Prisoner Claims False Detention

A prisoner in the Maryland House of Correction has filed a petition in Circuit Court for a writ of habeas corpus, claiming he is falsely detained in the prison.

The prisoner, Ernest L. Thomas, who is serving a three-year term for forgery, claims he was sentenced to the House of Correction on March 8 by Judge Patrick M. Schnauffer of the Frederick County Circuit Court.

Thomas' attorney, Matthew J. Mullaney, submitted a document from Thomas in which it is charged that Thomas had no funds with which to retain an attorney at the time of his trial, and was not informed of his right to be assigned counsel by the state.

The document further states that Thomas was "unable to represent himself" and was "ignorant of the fact he could get an attorney furnished by the state because he had no funds."

Judge Bruce issued a writ and court order commanding the superintendent of the House of Correction to appear before the Court with Thomas at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday to show why Thomas is being held.

Other members of the board present were Ralph Race, William Morgan, Charles Bramble, Ralph Beard and W. J. Jones.

Virginia Avenue Parent-Teacher Group Planning Christmas Events

Two Christmas events are being planned by the Virginia Avenue Parent-Teacher Association.

Next month's meeting, to be held Monday, December 13, will be in the form of a Christmas party. A children's party will be held Friday afternoon, December 17.

All home room mothers are urged to attend a meeting next Monday, November 22, at 2 p. m. in the school cafeteria, when plans for the Christmas parties will be made.

Speakers at a meeting of the association Tuesday night were Mrs. Margaret Carroll, new visiting music teacher, and Mrs. Gladys Pitzer, public health nurse.

Mrs. Carroll discussed the music program in elementary schools, while Mrs. Pitzer described the health program, stressing the various clinics held by the Health Department.

The association decided to request the location of a safety zone at the school.

The Board of Education has granted $15 to each room for purchase of library books, and the association voted to donate an additional $5 to each room for that purpose.

Mrs. Eleanor Tennant's first grade room won the attendance banner.

Re-elected to serve on the building and grounds committee were C. P. Henry, Kenneth Gray, Richard Hollar and John Turley. Henry reported that new lights were installed throughout the building last summer by the Board of Education.

Mrs. Laura Shumaker, program chairman, led the devotions, which included a tribute to Mrs. Irene Gladys King, former president of the P-TA, who died last week.

Leonard Thomas, president, presided. Refreshments were served in the school cafeteria by home room mothers of the first grade rooms of Mrs. Tennant and Mrs. Daisy Lloyd.

C. Of C. Drive Is Progressing

Charles F. Helmrich, chairman of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce membership drive, reported "very satisfactory" progress yesterday following a "clean-up" breakfast held in Central YMCA.

Thirty memberships, he added, have been turned in during the two-day drive and there are still a good many prospects to be contacted.

The first phase of the Chamber's drive for 100 new members will end at a "mop-up" meeting to be held here November 29.

Helmrich said 65 per cent of the prospects contacted by the 30 member committee signed up for membership in the Chamber of Commerce. Sixteen members of the committee attended yesterday's meeting.

The Chamber of Commerce is composed of some 500 representatives of industrial institutions, business houses, professional men and women and individuals who are interested in the development of Cumberland.

Weather

Late weather trends have been enough to make any weatherman quit his job. The rain predicted for yesterday turned out to be sun for as beautiful a fall day as one could wish for. The high temperature was 62, several degrees higher than it has been for the past week. However, late last night the thermometer read 43 which was lower than the 46 degree overnight low. The rainfall (which came Tuesday night) was 0.07 inches. The forecast for today is clear and warm which, translated, probably means blizzard.

Police Show Way To Beat 'Slots'

Using a technique that Hoyle would frown upon, City Police hit the jackpots of 14 slot machines yesterday — in fact they hit the whole slot machine, and when the game was over police counted out $533.83.

Actually the city officers were never in doubt about losing, for they were using the old fashioned sledge hammer, which any gambling expert will tell you is equal to "a three bar win."

The police "take" didn't represent the entire loss though, for the machines were really "busted" so bad they will never be used again. Experts valued the equipment involved at close to $5,000.

The losers, police reported, were the American Legion Club, the Navy Club, the Maccabees Club and Ruth's Tavern. That's where the machines were seized in recent raids.

Like all gambling winnings, though, police couldn't hold on to it. It was finally turned over to the City of Cumberland's General Budget Fund.

Early June Cited For Traffic Study

Early June was recommended as the best time for beginning the proposed traffic study in Cumberland, City Engineer Ralph L. Rizer said yesterday in reporting on a conference in Baltimore Tuesday with officials of the State Roads Commission and the Public Roads Administration.

Rizer said the recommendation was made by George N. Lewis, Jr., director of the traffic division of the State Roads Commission.

Lewis pointed out that weather conditions would be good in June and that a heavy flow of through traffic would provide wider basis for the study.

The Mayor and Council has given verbal approval to the project but formal action is pending. Lewis said the State Roads Commission is prepared to accept the city's application for such a study at any time.

Data derived from the study would provide a basis for requesting federal and state aid on street construction which would benefit through traffic.

Rizer was accompanied by Commissioners William H. Buchholtz and William V. Keegan, and Charles McKearn, city fire inspector.

Birrell Describes Project Details

Technical problems of the $15 million Cumberland-Ridgeley flood control project, which will begin here next spring and is expected to be completed in 1954-55, were discussed last night by Donald V. C. Birrell, of the Corps of Engineers, at a meeting of the Engineers' Club of Cumberland.

Birrell spoke following a dinner meeting of the technical society held in Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

After outlining the history of the project, including the Kimball and Thomas plans proposed many years ago, Birrell discussed in considerable detail the hydrology of the project.

The latest proposal of the Army Engineers, he said, includes the dredging and paving of Wills Creek to facilitate the flow of water and the modification of three highway and two railroad bridge structures.

Outlines Plan

The plan calls for the reconstruction of an industrial dam on the Potomac River to replace the Chesapeake and Ohio Dam and to provide sufficient water in summer months for industries, he said.

The building of a training wall at the confluence of Wills Creek and the Potomac River, Birrell explained, will keep the flows separate and prevent currents at the junction of the streams.

The channel of the Potomac River, he added, will be excavated from the confluence of the streams to the Knobley Mountain Bridge of the Western Maryland Railway. Construction of earth and concrete dikes along the North Branch to about the B. and O. crossing is also slated.

Birrell illustrated his talk with slides of floods back in 1889, including the 1924 and 1936 floods. Aerial views of this area, on which the new project was indicated, were also shown.

Pictures Shown

A series of pictures of the model as developed at Vicksburg, showing the project with and without water, was also shown.

Congress, he reported, has approved an expenditure of $500,000 to begin the project and the Union Foundation Corporation, Union, N. J., is expected to begin work December 1 on a plant to make pressure conduit pipe. Actual construction work is slated to begin next spring.

Mayor Thomas S. Post, Finance Commissioner William H. Buchholtz, Albert S. Paye, liaison agent for the project; George M. Hitchcock, superintendent of the Evitts Creek Water Company; Thomas B. Finan, city solicitor, and Simon Carroll, city plumber, were guests of the club.

The city officials were introduced by Mayor Post, who expressed the interest of the city in the project. James S. Thayer, president, introduced Birrell and conducted an election to name six directors of the club.

Directors named to serve two-year terms were Roy W. Eves, John R. Connelly, Frederick Dodge, William J. Elvin, George Hazelwood and Albert Paye.

Vo-Ag Contests Set For Friday

With the harvest in, vocational-agriculture students of Allegany County will compete in a Future Farmers of America judging contest Friday night in Flintstone High School. A corn and potato show is also planned.

The competitive judging contest will feature the program, and James F. House, Vo-Ag instructor-supervisor, said the contest will include corn and potatoes. Vo-Ag students from the entire county are expected to paritcipate.

In addition to the judging, students will show corn and potatoes they raised during the summer months. Cash prizes will be presented for outstanding exhibits.

House said the prizes are donated by the Maryland State Fair Board. The judging contest will be under the supervision of Stanley P. Stabler, extension agronomist of the University of Maryland. The Fair board will also donate cash prizes for the judging contest.

House said the hybrid corn showing will feature Southern States Co-Operative developed seed corn which was given to Vo-Ag and 4-H students for trial raising last spring.

Logsdon Is Held For Pa. Authorities

A man booked as Jesse E. Logsdon, 43, Mt. Savage, was being held last night for Pennsylvania authorities who hold a warrant charging him with the theft of a $45 air compressor. He was arrested on a "fugitive from justice" warrant.

Wilbur Baldwin, about 23, Cresaptown, was also being held in Allegany County Jail, and authorities said he is accused of violating terms of a recent parole. Trooper William Baker, Maryland State Police, made both arrests.

Strother Can Remove Davis, Holmes Asserts

Logsdon Is Held On Five Charges In Hit-Run Case

Prisoner Is Held In Default; $2,000 Bond

Five state motor vehicle law violation counts were preferred yesterday against William Louis Logsdon, 29, LaVale, who police said fled from the scene after striking and seriously injuring Andrew Jackson, 20, this city. Bond was set at $2,000, but he was held in default.

The victim, who was struck at the intersection of Henderson Avenue and Valley Street Sunday morning, was reported improving last night in Allegany Hospital where his left leg was amputated as a result of injuries. A hearing for Logsdon was postponed until Jackson recovers.

Lt. Edwin R. Lilya said the five charges preferred against Logsdon include:

Failing to observe a stop sign, reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident without rendering aid, operating a motor vehicle on fictitious tags, failing to give aid to a person injured in an accident.

Logsdon has been held in City Jail since he was apprehended early Sunday morning, after two witnesses identified him as the man who fled from the car which struck Jackson. Police said a woman was also riding in the car at the time.

Lt. Lilya said Logsdon was arrested shortly after he left the car and that the speedy arrest was due in large part to co-operative work by the Johnny Cab Company. He explained it like this:

When Jackson was struck Francis Hall, Johnny Cab driver was at the intersection. He immediately used the taxi radio to notify cab headquarters from where police received their first report. Hall then assisted Jackson and took him to the hospital.

Hall and another witness, George W. Shroyer, B. and O. Railroad crossing watchman, were questioned at the office of the State's Attorney yesterday prior to the fixing of bond for Logsdon.

Lt. Lilya quoted Hall as saying he stopped at the intersection when he saw the car driven by Logsdon approaching. Police said both Hall and Shroyer said Jackson was struck as he was crossing the avenue.

The victim's body was hurtled end over end for approximately 82 feet after being carried on the car for 81 feet.

Eichner Nominated To Stadium Group

W. E. Eichner was nominated last night at a special meeting of the City Playground Associations to represent the group on a committee being formed by the Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce for the war memorial stadium project.

In other action, the group voted unanimously to recommend that none of the $150,000 recreation bond issue be used for the stadium project, since the bond issue is intended for overall recreational purposes.

J. C. Patterson, chairman of the Recreation Planning Committee, suggested that arrangements be made next summer for children from city playgrounds to have free swimming periods once weekly at the Constitution Park pool.

Mrs. Vivian Turley, president, said she plans to confer with Chief of Police R. Emmett Flynn next week regarding lists of streets proposed for sled riding. The group arranged last winter with the Police Department to rope off a number of streets for that purpose.

Next regular meeting will be held December 2.

Board May Probe Tax Collector's Request

County Tax Collector William A. Strother can hire and fire his assistants as he sees fit and without the approval of the County Commissioners, James Holmes, a member of the board, said last night.

He said the opinion was his personal belief and not necessarily the opinion of the County Commissioners.

Meanwhile, Commissioner William H. Lemmert said he believed the County Commissioners would investigate a request from Strother that the board dismiss George E. Davis from his post as assistant tax collector. He did not discuss the point further.

Lemmert said he was not sure whether Strother could dismiss Davis without approval of the board. The matter, he said, did not enter into the discussion following Strother's request Tuesday.

Fey Is Uncertain

John T. Fey, attorney to the board, said last night that he was not certain whether Strother could fire Davis. "I haven't done any research into the matter," he said, because "the question was not put up to me."

Strother appeared before the board at an executive session at noon Tuesday to request the board to ask for Davis' resignation or to dismiss him.

Commissioners Holmes and Lemmert both said last night that Strother made "no specific charges" against Davis. Strother said he had not given a detailed account of his complaint because a majority of the board had not asked for it.

Commissioner Lemmert said he told Strother he need make no specific charges concerning Davis. Lemmert also said last night that as far as he is concerned the matter is already settled.

Board Not Responsible

Commissioner Holmes also expressed the belief that the county board has no responsibility in the matter except in the appointment of a tax collector.

Holmes, who reminded that he is a former tax collector, expressed the belief that the County Commissioners do not enter into the matter of engaging or releasing assistant tax collectors.

In reference to Strother's request, Holmes said that Strother said only that Davis did not suit him and indicated that Davis has not been doing satisfactory work. He made no direct charges, Holmes said, but only said he was "trying to uphold the dignity of the office."

Charles N. Wilkinson, president of the county board, said Davis was appointed by the board at the same time Strother was named, after a conference and agreement with Strother.

Both were appointed for the four-year term the commissioners serve, he said.

Lemmert last night explained that Strother is responsible to the county commissioners for the operation of the tax collector's office.

Strother, he said, "has done a splendid job" as tax collector in District No. 1.

TWUA Officials Appeal Sentences

ROME, Ga., Nov. 17 (AP)—Two CIO union officials were fined $200 each and sentenced to 20 days in jail today on contempt charges stemming from a state court injunction against mass picketing.

The two were the first of 77 striking employes of the Celanese Corporation cited for contempt by Superior Court Judge H. E. Nichols to be tried.

Both men, Joe D. Pedigio, international representative for the Textile Workers of America and C. L. Ross, Local 689 secretary, filed notice of appeal and were freed on $500 bond.

Judge Nichols two weeks ago issued a temporary restraining order against mass picketing at the plant after 1,500 union members turned out to block a company-sponsored back to work movement.

The pickets turned out full strength for two days after the order was issued and Judge Nichols then issued contempt of court citations.

TWUA members struck August 14 over wages, asking a 15 cents per hour wage hike. The company offered eight cents.

The union sought to have the case transferred to federal court, contending that a diversity of citizenship existed between the Georgia union members and the company, incorporated in Delaware.

Federal Judge Richard L. Russell yesterday denied the transfer and sent the case back to the state court.

Harper reported the bus was not to the car at about $350. He said Mrs. Byrnes was not hurt but was "shaken up."

Mrs. Byrnes was taken to the home of a friend on Fairview Avenue, he said.

Romney Suspect Admits Killing

Confesses He Shot Va. Man, Then Hid Body

Leads Police To Scene Of Killing

An Arlington, Va., man arested in Romney, W. Va., Monday "for suspicious action," last night was being held in Warrenton, Va., on a murder charge to which he confessed. Police said the murder victim was Belmont Woodridge, Arlington Funeral goods salesman.

Virginia authorities lodged the murder charge against James Nolan, 24, after he led police to a woods near Warrenton where Woodridge's body was found. Six .32 caliber bullets pierced the body, police declared.

The body was discovered about 70 feet from Route 960, some three and a half miles north of Warrenton. The victim had been missing since November 11.

West Virginia State Police Sgt. H. R. Shields said Nolan was taken into custody Monday after he created suspicion by spending over $100 in a couple of hours. He also flashed a .32 caliber revolver in a Romney garage.

Driving Woodridge's Car

After questioning the prisoner, Sgt. Shields said they learned that he was driving a stolen car registered in the name of Woodridge, and United States Savings Bonds totaling $2,050 made out to Woodridge were also found in Nolan's possession.

Nolan told authorities at the time that Woodridge was vacationing in Florida. He was returned to Virginia after waiving extraditon to face a larceny charge resulting from the theft of $500 from an Arlington cleaning establishment.

Sgt. Shields said the bonds, revolver, car and $148 in cash taken from Nolan are still in possession of State Police at Romney. The revolver gave evidence that it was fired in the past 10 days, authorities said.

Nolan attracted police attention in Romney after his spending spree, acording to police, who said he promised a garage attendant $5 for a "quick job" of installing a set of fog lights. The attendant told police Nolan took the revolver from the glove compartment while the work was being done.

Arlington Chief of Police Harry Woodyard said Nolan confessed to the killing, and also admitted returning to Woodridge's apartment which he looted. The killing occurred after Nolan left to drive to Cincinnati with Woodridge.

Police gave this account:

Nolan shot Woodridge as they stood along the road and then dragged the body back into the woods. Nolan then took the victim's car and drove back to Arlington.

Rifles Apartment

After robbing Woodridge's apartment, Nolan said he drove to Washington, D. C., where he spent several days before driving to Romney. West Virginia police said Nolan cashed $150 of the U. S. bonds while in Romney.

In his confession Nolan said he had agreed to buy two $8,000 automobiles from Woodridge and explained they were en route to Cincinnati to negotiate the purchase. The victim was an employe of the Sayles and Scoville Company, Cincinnati, but resided in Arlington since 1936. He was not married.

A murder charge was filed against Nolan, Chief Woodyard said, by Sheriff Sam Hall of Fauquier County. Woodridge's body was being held by Sheriff Hall at Warrenton.

Nolan first confessed to the slaying while being questioned about the theft of $500 from the Progressive Dry Cleaning Company, Arlington.

Police said he led them to the body, which was found covered over by some dried leaves. Nolan said he shot Woodridge when the salesman resisted as he attempted to take his automobile.

Woodridge was a graduate of Yale University. His closest known relative is Mrs. M. L. Rosensweig, Columbus, Miss. She is a sister. West Virginia authorities said the woman's name appeared as beneficiary on several of the bonds.

Robs Cleaning Plant

Arlington and Fauquier Counties authorities said Nolan admitted he was from Arlington, and West Virginia police said the prisoner told them he robbed the cleaning establishment after being employed there for three days.

Nolan was quoted by West Virginia police as saying he hid in the Progressive Dry Cleaning building until his employer locked the business for the day. He then took approximately $500 and fled, according to police.

Virginia medical authorities said Woodridge was fatally shot "on or about" November 11, the same day he was reported missing.

Nolan was returned to Fauquier County Jail, Warrenton, where he is being held pending grand jury action.

Local Man Fined In Assault Case Involving Woman

Victim Pleads For Shober's Freedom

Thirty-year-old Oscar Shober, 142 Frederick Street, yesterday was fined and given a suspended jail term on an assault charge after his victim told authorities "I don't want to see him go to jail."

Shober pleaded "nolo contendere" to the charge, which was preferred by Helen Anderson, 30, 930 Maryland Avenue, who complained to police at 2 a. m. and said the man struck her in the face while they were sitting in a parked car. Her eyes and nose were badly bruised.

The Anderson woman testified in court she met Shober in Bean's Cove, Pa., Tuesday night and returned to Cumberland with him and another passenger. The third party left the car when they arrived in the city.

Shober, according to the plaintiff, then drove his car down Canal Street and parked in the rear of the Western Maryland Railway freight shed. After conversing for a short time, the woman said Shober hit her in the face. He then drove her home, she told the court.

Shober and the injured woman stood in front of the magistrate's bench throughout the hearing and frequently exchanged smiling glances. She later told the court that she did not want to see him sent to jail.

Magistrate Peter J. Carpenti fined Shober $20 and suspended a 30-day jail sentence, on condition the prisoner pay the medical expenses incurred by the victim. They left court together.

Assistant State's Attorney Paul M. Fletcher prosecuted the case and told the court he would like to see Shober fined and given a suspended sentence on condition that he pay the medical expenses. His statement followed the woman's plea for Shober.

Edward J. Ryan, attorney, defended Shober and admitted that he should pay the medical costs, but asked the court not to impose a fine.

Shober was taken into custody at his home yesterday at 5 a. m. by Officers Harold Crawford and J. D. Daum. Both officers testified at the hearing and said Shober denied the charge when arrested.

Prisoner Claims False Detention

A prisoner in the Maryland House of Correction has filed a petition in Circuit Court for a writ of habeas corpus, claiming he is falsely detained in the prison.

The prisoner, Ernest L. Thomas, who is serving a three-year term for forgery, claims he was sentenced to the House of Correction on March 8 by Judge Patrick M. Schnauffer of the Frederick County Circuit Court.

Thomas' attorney, Matthew J. Mullaney, submitted a document from Thomas in which it is charged that Thomas had no funds with which to retain an attorney at the time of his trial, and was not informed of his right to be assigned counsel by the state.

The document further states that Thomas was "unable to represent himself" and was "ignorant of the fact he could get an attorney furnished by the state because he had no funds."

Judge Bruce issued a writ and court order commanding the superintendent of the House of Correction to appear before the Court with Thomas at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday to show why Thomas is being held.

Virginia Avenue Parent-Teacher Group Planning Christmas Events

Two Christmas events are being planned by the Virginia Avenue Parent-Teacher Association.

Next month's meeting, to be held Monday, December 13, will be in the form of a Christmas party. A children's party will be held Friday afternoon, December 17.

All home room mothers are urged to attend a meeting next Monday, November 22, at 2 p. m. in the school cafeteria, when plans for the Christmas parties will be made.

Speakers at a meeting of the association Tuesday night were Mrs. Margaret Carroll, new visiting music teacher, and Mrs. Gladys Pitzer, public health nurse.

Mrs. Carroll discussed the music program in elementary schools, while Mrs. Pitzer described the health program, stressing the various clinics held by the Health Department.

The association decided to request the location of a safety zone at the school.

The Board of Education has granted $15 to each room for purchase of library books, and the association voted to donate an additional $5 to each room for that purpose.

Mrs. Eleanor Tennant's first grade room won the attendance banner.

C. Of C. Drive Is Progressing

Charles F. Helmrich, chairman of the Cumberland Chamber of Commerce membership drive, reported "very satisfactory" progress yesterday following a "clean-up" breakfast held in Central YMCA.

Thirty memberships, he added, have been turned in during the two-day drive and there are still a good many prospects to be contacted.

The first phase of the Chamber's drive for 100 new members will end at a "mop-up" meeting to be held here November 29.

Helmrich said 65 per cent of the prospects contacted by the 30 member committee signed up for membership in the Chamber of Commerce. Sixteen members of the committee attended yesterday's meeting.

The Chamber of Commerce is composed of some 500 representatives of industrial institutions, business houses, professional men and women and individuals who are interested in the development of Cumberland.

Weather

Late weather trends have been enough to make any weatherman quit his job. The rain predicted for yesterday turned out to be sun for as beautiful a fall day as one could wish for. The high temperature was 62, several degrees higher than it has been for the past week. However, late last night the thermometer read 43 which was lower than the 46 degree overnight low. The rainfall (which came Tuesday night) was 0.07 inches. The forecast for today is clear and warm which, translated, probably means blizzard.

Police Show Way To Beat 'Slots'

Using a technique that Hoyle would frown upon, City Police hit the jackpots of 14 slot machines yesterday — in fact they hit the whole slot machine, and when the game was over police counted out $533.83.

Actually the city officers were never in doubt about losing, for they were using the old fashioned sledge hammer, which any gambling expert will tell you is equal to "a three bar win."

The police "take" didn't represent the entire loss though, for the machines were really "busted" so bad they will never be used again. Experts valued the equipment involved at close to $5,000.

The losers, police reported, were the American Legion Club, the Navy Club, the Maccabees Club and Ruth's Tavern. That's where the machines were seized in recent raids.

Like all gambling winnings, though, police couldn't hold on to it. It was finally turned over to the City of Cumberland's General Budget Fund.

Early June Cited For Traffic Study

Early June was recommended as the best time for beginning the proposed traffic study in Cumberland, City Engineer Ralph L. Rizer said yesterday in reporting on a conference in Baltimore Tuesday with officials of the State Roads Commission and the Public Roads Administration.

Rizer said the recommendation was made by George N. Lewis, Jr., director of the traffic division of the State Roads Commission.

Lewis pointed out that weather conditions would be good in June and that a heavy flow of through traffic would provide wider basis for the study.

The Mayor and Council has given verbal approval to the project but formal action is pending. Lewis said the State Roads Commission is prepared to accept the city's application for such a study at any time.

Data derived from the study would provide a basis for requesting federal and state aid on street construction which would benefit through traffic.

Rizer was accompanied by Commissioners William H. Buchholtz and William V. Keegan, and Charles McKearn, city fire inspector.

Birrell Describes Project Details

Technical problems of the $15 million Cumberland-Ridgeley flood control project, which will begin here next spring and is expected to be completed in 1954-55, were discussed last night by Donald V. C. Birrell, of the Corps of Engineers, at a meeting of the Engineers' Club of Cumberland.

Birrell spoke following a dinner meeting of the technical society held in Ali Ghan Shrine Country Club.

After outlining the history of the project, including the Kimball and Thomas plans proposed many years ago, Birrell discussed in considerable detail the hydrology of the project.

The latest proposal of the Army Engineers, he said, includes the dredging and paving of Wills Creek to facilitate the flow of water and the modification of three highway and two railroad bridge structures.

Outlines Plan

The plan calls for the reconstruction of an industrial dam on the Potomac River to replace the Chesapeake and Ohio Dam and to provide sufficient water in summer months for industries, he said.

The building of a training wall at the confluence of Wills Creek and the Potomac River, Birrell explained, will keep the flows separate and prevent currents at the junction of the streams.

The channel of the Potomac River, he added, will be excavated from the confluence of the streams to the Knobley Mountain Bridge of the Western Maryland Railway. Construction of earth and concrete dikes along the North Branch to about the B. and O. crossing is also slated.

Birrell illustrated his talk with slides of floods back in 1889, including the 1924 and 1936 floods. Aerial views of this area, on which the new project was indicated, were also shown.

Pictures Shown

A series of pictures of the model as developed at Vicksburg, showing the project with and without water, was also shown.

Congress, he reported, has approved an expenditure of $500,000 to begin the project and the Union Foundation Corporation, Union, N. J., is expected to begin work December 1 on a plant to make pressure conduit pipe. Actual construction work is slated to begin next spring.

Mayor Thomas S. Post, Finance Commissioner William H. Buchholtz, Albert S. Paye, liaison agent for the project; George M. Hitchcock, superintendent of the Evitts Creek Water Company; Thomas B. Finan, city solicitor, and Simon Carroll, city plumber, were guests of the club.

The city officials were introduced by Mayor Post, who expressed the interest of the city in the project. James S. Thayer, president, introduced Birrell and conducted an election to name six directors of the club.

Directors named to serve two-year terms were Roy W. Eves, John R. Connelly, Frederick Dodge, William J. Elvin, George Hazelwood and Albert Paye.

Vo-Ag Contests Set For Friday

With the harvest in, vocational-agriculture students of Allegany County will compete in a Future Farmers of America judging contest Friday night in Flintstone High School. A corn and potato show is also planned.

The competitive judging contest will feature the program, and James F. House, Vo-Ag instructor-supervisor, said the contest will include corn and potatoes. Vo-Ag students from the entire county are expected to paritcipate.

In addition to the judging, students will show corn and potatoes they raised during the summer months. Cash prizes will be presented for outstanding exhibits.

House said the prizes are donated by the Maryland State Fair Board. The judging contest will be under the supervision of Stanley P. Stabler, extension agronomist of the University of Maryland. The Fair board will also donate cash prizes for the judging contest.

House said the hybrid corn showing will feature Southern States Co-Operative developed seed corn which was given to Vo-Ag and 4-H students for trial raising last spring.

A man booked as Jesse E. Logsdon, 43, Mt. Savage, was being held last night for Pennsylvania authorities who hold a warrant charging him with the theft of a $45 air compressor. He was arrested on a "fugitive from justice" warrant.

Wilbur Baldwin, about 23, Cresaptown, was also being held in Allegany County Jail, and authorities said he is accused of violating terms of a recent parole. Trooper William Baker, Maryland State Police, made both arrests.

Strother Can Remove Davis, Holmes Asserts

Logsdon Is Held On Five Charges In Hit-Run Case

Prisoner Is Held In Default; $2,000 Bond

Five state motor vehicle law violation counts were preferred yesterday against William Louis Logsdon, 29, LaVale, who police said fled from the scene after striking and seriously injuring Andrew Jackson, 20, this city. Bond was set at $2,000, but he was held in default.

The victim, who was struck at the intersection of Henderson Avenue and Valley Street Sunday morning, was reported improving last night in Allegany Hospital where his left leg was amputated as a result of injuries. A hearing for Logsdon was postponed until Jackson recovers.

Lt. Edwin R. Lilya said the five charges preferred against Logsdon include:

Failing to observe a stop sign, reckless driving, leaving the scene of an accident without rendering aid, operating a motor vehicle on fictitious tags, failing to give aid to a person injured in an accident.

Logsdon has been held in City Jail since he was apprehended early Sunday morning, after two witnesses identified him as the man who fled from the car which struck Jackson. Police said a woman was also riding in the car at the time.

Lt. Lilya said Logsdon was arrested shortly after he left the car and that the speedy arrest was due in large part to co-operative work by the Johnny Cab Company. He explained it like this:

When Jackson was struck Francis Hall, Johnny Cab driver was at the intersection. He immediately used the taxi radio to notify cab headquarters from where police received their first report. Hall then assisted Jackson and took him to the hospital.

Hall and another witness, George W. Shroyer, B. and O. Railroad crossing watchman, were questioned at the office of the State's Attorney yesterday prior to the fixing of bond for Logsdon.

Lt. Lilya quoted Hall as saying he stopped at the intersection when he saw the car driven by Logsdon approaching. Police said both Hall and Shroyer said Jackson was struck as he was crossing the avenue.

The victim's body was hurtled end over end for approximately 82 feet after being carried on the car for 81 feet.

Eichner Nominated To Stadium Group

W. E. Eichner was nominated last night at a special meeting of the City Playground Associations to represent the group on a committee being formed by the Cumberland Junior Association of Commerce for the war memorial stadium project.

In other action, the group voted unanimously to recommend that none of the $150,000 recreation bond issue be used for the stadium project, since the bond issue is intended for overall recreational purposes.

J. C. Patterson, chairman of the Recreation Planning Committee, suggested that arrangements be made next summer for children from city playgrounds to have free swimming periods once weekly at the Constitution Park pool.

Mrs. Vivian Turley, president, said she plans to confer with Chief of Police R. Emmett Flynn next week regarding lists of streets proposed for sled riding. The group arranged last winter with the Police Department to rope off a number of streets for that purpose.

Next regular meeting will be held December 2.

Board May Probe Tax Collector's Request

County Tax Collector William A. Strother can hire and fire his assistants as he sees fit and without the approval of the County Commissioners, James Holmes, a member of the board, said last night.

He said the opinion was his personal belief and not necessarily the opinion of the County Commissioners.

Meanwhile, Commissioner William H. Lemmert said he believed the County Commissioners would investigate a request from Strother that the board dismiss George E. Davis from his post as assistant tax collector. He did not discuss the point further.

Lemmert said he was not sure whether Strother could dismiss Davis without approval of the board. The matter, he said, did not enter into the discussion following Strother's request Tuesday.

Fey Is Uncertain

John T. Fey, attorney to the board, said last night that he was not certain whether Strother could fire Davis. "I haven't done any research into the matter," he said, because "the question was not put up to me."

Strother appeared before the board at an executive session at noon Tuesday to request the board to ask for Davis' resignation or to dismiss him.

Commissioners Holmes and Lemmert both said last night that Strother made "no specific charges" against Davis. Strother said he had not given a detailed account of his complaint because a majority of the board had not asked for it.

Commissioner Lemmert said he told Strother he need make no specific charges concerning Davis. Lemmert also said last night that as far as he is concerned the matter is already settled.

Board Not Responsible

Commissioner Holmes also expressed the belief that the county board has no responsibility in the matter except in the appointment of a tax collector.

Holmes, who reminded that he is a former tax collector, expressed the belief that the County Commissioners do not enter into the matter of engaging or releasing assistant tax collectors.

In reference to Strother's request, Holmes said that Strother said only that Davis did not suit him and indicated that Davis has not been doing satisfactory work. He made no direct charges, Holmes said, but only said he was "trying to uphold the dignity of the office."

Charles N. Wilkinson, president of the county board, said Davis was appointed by the board at the same time Strother was named, after a conference and agreement with Strother.

Both were appointed for the four-year term the commissioners serve, he said.

Lemmert last night explained that Strother is responsible to the county commissioners for the operation of the tax collector's office.

Strother, he said, "has done a splendid job" as tax collector in District No. 1.

TWUA Officials Appeal Sentences

ROME, Ga., Nov. 17 (AP)—Two CIO union officials were fined $200 each and sentenced to 20 days in jail today on contempt charges stemming from a state court injunction against mass picketing.

The two were the first of 77 striking employes of the Celanese Corporation cited for contempt by Superior Court Judge H. E. Nichols to be tried.

Both men, Joe D. Pedigio, international representative for the Textile Workers of America and C. L. Ross, Local 689 secretary, filed notice of appeal and were freed on $500 bond.

Judge Nichols two weeks ago issued a temporary restraining order against mass picketing at the plant after 1,500 union members turned out to block a company-sponsored back to work movement.

The pickets turned out full strength for two days after the order was issued and Judge Nichols then issued contempt of court citations.

TWUA members struck August 14 over wages, asking a 15 cents per hour wage hike. The company offered eight cents.

The union sought to have the case transferred to federal court, contending that a diversity of citizenship existed between the Georgia union members and the company, incorporated in Delaware.

Federal Judge Richard L. Russell yesterday denied the transfer and sent the case back to the state court.

Bus Passengers Escape Injury In Collision

Harper reported the bus was not to the car at about $350. He said Mrs. Byrnes was not hurt but was "shaken up."

Mrs. Byrnes was taken to the home of a friend on Fairview Avenue, he said.
